

R. Mauley to Col. McMahon

40313

Sir

I have had the honor of receiving your Letter, and I make no scruple in declaring, upon my Honor, that in ^{no} part of the Paper you have seen, did I mean to convey the least personal offence to you - -
- I am inclined to express myself more fully, as to this point, but the situation in which I am at present placed, under (I think) a further explanation incompatible - I have the Honor to be, Yours most obedient humble Servant
