

Ed. Moira to Col. McCracken.

40326-7.

Birmingham, Nov 22^d

My dear Col

Mr Clarke is desired to pay into your hands the £2000 arising from the bond, which you will retain for the present. As I could not get him to come to my account for his journey hither, I must get you to prep upon his the necessary remuneration. I was 40388

Thinking that 50 would answer for time, to
- the compliment. Get the Prince to allow you to recommend the General /
-ant Inspector of Hospitals here / to the good offices of Keate, but do not mention to Keate by intervention.

The 26th Foot, Two thousand Men, is ordered away from us to Ireland. I have now only one Battalion of Regulars for Field hd. Moira to Col. McCracken.

40327

twice. Do not make any complaint about it.

Very truly yours
Moira

Clara McCracken

1880

Lord Moira

Nov. 22. 1802.

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]