Jan^y 25th 1805

Dear Sir

I did myself the honour of paying my Duty w^{ch} Carlton House this morning in consequence of an intimation which I had received that His Majesty has expressed an intention of appointing me His Solicitor General. As this Office is incompatible with that which I have at present the honour of holding under the Prince, I take the liberty of requesting through you that I may be made acquainted with His Royal Highness's pleasure, to which from Duty as well as inclination I shall ever pay the greatest regard, & I will beg you at the same time to assure His Royal Highness that I shall in every situation retain a strong sense of the kindness & confidence with which he has honoured me while I have been in his service.

I have the honour to be with great regard
Dear Sir
yr most obed^t humble servant
V. Gibbs
