Lord Grenville to H.R.H.

Camelford House March 18.
1805.

Sir

The prospect of Lord Shelbourn's attendance, as mentioned in the letter with which your Royal Highness has honoured me, gives me very great pleasure. I certainly will not fail, in obedience to the commands contained in that letter, to wait upon your Royal Highness at half past twelve tomorrow -

I have the honour to be

Lord Grenville

March 10th 1795

with the utmost respect

Sir

Your Royal Highness's

most dutiful

& devoted servant

Grenville.
