Dunedin, May 6, 1885.

My Dear Friend

I have this day received your letter, explaining to me that there was a mistake as to your inspection of the father-lic questions being put off till the 10th & that it was positively to be done on or after the 10th. It is now absolutely impossible for me to get away till about noon tomorrow by travelling day & night, if no accident happens

-ed, I might certainly reach London on the night of the 10th, or as to go into the House of Lords.
 But there is not a chance that I should not be so completely knocked up as to be totally unfit to take a share in the debate; & by silence on such an occasion would be worse than by voting only by Proxy.
 If this proved alone I should think it unnecessary to make the attempt of getting to London by Friday night. I cannot imagine how he is from

 he is less to a Sunday

however, that when D Grenville finds I shall be in town on Sunday (as he would learn from the letter I wrote to you yesterday) he would not put off the discussion to at the least Monday. It appears, therefore, best to me to adhere to my plan of making Sunday the day of my arrival; for, I assure you that there is no possibility of being thrown into such a feverish state as To have a quite unfit for business for some days after.

I believe he was faithfully paid

Celi Schuber.
