

Col. J. MacKee to H. Hoodkirk.

June 2 1805

40433

Sir.

I have had the honor to lay your Letter of yesterday signifying the resolution of "The Committee of the Corporation to whom the bills of Parliament for the Improvement of the Port of London are referred" before the Prince of Wales.

His Royal Highness Commands me to request you will be so ^{kind} ~~obliged~~ as to return his ^{best} acknowledgements to the Gentlemen of that Committee for the very obliging Compliment they intend to pay him by ^{Publicly} opening the Canal across the Isle of Dogs on the 1st of August next

A Compliment which, from the Importance of the Advantages to be produced by the measure, cannot fail, but to be highly acceptable to R. H. J.

I have the Honor to be Sir.