Dear Sir,

Having accidentally that it is the intention of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to inspect the 80th Regiment of Light Dragoons at its different quarters along the Coast from Mize to Brighton, & as my Post is situated between two of its stations, to wit Mize & Hastings, & not very far distant (13 Miles) from the third, ~~Weymouth~~, it perhaps may be found convenient for His Royal Highness to make my humble habitation his Fordel Quarters during the time he remains in this Neighbourhood, should this be the case, I have to request, that you would take an early opportunity of mentioning in the most proper & respectful terms to His Royal Highness, that my quarters (such as they are) are not only very much at his service, but that I will consider myself highly honored & flattered, should he be condescending enough to make use of them. — I have the honor to be With Esteem & Respect.

Dear Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant

A. M. Treveser

Colonel Macmillan

P.S. it perhaps may be proper to mention to you that there are four unoccupied Beds in my house. —
