Sir

In the doubt whether Colonel Pitt-man be not gone to Chatterham, I presume so far upon your Royal Highness's gracious indulgence as to furnish Lord Coler with this letter directly to yourself. He is one of the Lords of Session, eminent for his talents, & on all occasions a declared adherent of your Royal Highness. His health requiring him to make a tour to the South, he is eager to take the opportunity of paying his personal regards to you, & has on that account desired I would facilitate that honor for him by bearing testimony to the devotion with which he supports any object in which he conceives your Royal Highness to be interested. It is more than probable that Mr Henry Jackson may have mentioned him to you, in, as they are particu-

Royal Highness will allow Lord Callan to offer his duty, it will highly please him & will prove to me that you have the goodness to pardon the liberty I take.

With the highest respect, I remain

Dear Sir

Your Royal Highness's

most obliged & devoted servant

The Prince of Wales.
