My Dear Mac,

Your letter has given me very great pleasure, I shall be obliged to dine with the Corporation of Banbury on the 1st and 2nd of September, if you can make it convenient to yourself to give us the pleasure of your and Mrs MacMahon's company on the 3d we shall be rejoiced to see you

2d

You will find no company except Col St Ledger and Mr Blakeney Mrs St Ledger Broker. They are two as good humoured Hibernians as ever migrated from the land of potatoes - It is possible Dudley North may be with us - There is a report I believe without any foundation of a serious quarrel having taken place between Mulgrave & Pitt They are both haughty and illtempered, but I think my friend Harry has too much worldly wisdom to fall out with
