Sir,

Knowing the high estimation which my departed friend Lord Nelson was held in by Your Royal Highness, induces me to take the liberty of troubling You with a Copy abstracted from his Journal of one of his last requests to his King and Country in favor of Lady Hamilton, whose sufferings, poor woman are beyond expression.

I also take the freedom to inclose a Letter I have this moment received from her Ladyship, which though of a private nature will shew her sense of Gratitude to Your Royal Highness Trusting to Your Royal Highness excusing me on the Liberty I have presumed to take, I have the Honour to remain with the highest possible Sentiment of Respect,

Sir

Your Royal Highness

Most faithful

Most Devoted, and

Most Dutiful Servant
