My dear Sir

As His Royal Highness the prince of Wales was so good an admirer & really loved our beloved friend - I think it would be right to send him a copy of his last letter to me most interesting Codical and as I know you have the greatest love & respect for his R. H. pray do me the favour to send it him and with my duty & respects & say that to my grave

I shall ever be grateful to Him for His kind to His own or beloved & my self

I am very ill & (state)

Dear Mr. (Severian) you suffer we all must ever feel this most severe loss & love you most dearly and had He lived

I know how he would have shown his regard to you as to the prince he adored him & how ever true it is that for his feelings on this occasion could never as you & I said yesterday look from this time how would he be gratified by the prince's kind brotherly and generous offer of being chief mourner to eternity will add glory to his name & shame on the dirty mean hearted persons that threw my brides in the way but this is the way this is some time ago I be more proud by their being so truly mean glows - spite

for by you
I write for my bed
as an ever you I write for follow
perhaps I mean Hamilton
