

H. M. Lord North

Mar. 8 1781

4133

Manus. House, A 364

The idea of opposing the Lottery Yesterday seems rather Extraordinary, unless Mankind could entirely be prevented from Gaming I am certain it is right for the Public to avail itself of that Vice rather than lay Taxes on the Residue of life; I see Lord North has postponed for a day or two the

Taxes

Lucas House

March 8th 1781.

^{on}
2. / A. G. Ash

7

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]

8 Mar 1781