

Nov. 2 1810

(Copy.)

The Prince of Wales is much obliged to Mr. Perceval for his communication which has just reached him, and has only to express his most sincere hopes that any measures which His Majesty's confidential servants may have deemed it expedient to adopt respecting His Majesty's health under the present circumstances may be attended with the wished for success.

Windsor.
