

Ld. Eldon & S. Perceval to H.R.H.

Nov. 15 1810

41423-4

The Lord Chancellor & Mr Perceval present their humble duty to your Royal Highness and beg leave to acquaint your Royal Highness, that they thought it their duty to go down to Windsor this morning, to make personal Enquiry into the State of His Majesty's Health, and they have also thought it their duty before they proceed to the House of Parliament to acquaint your Royal Highness, that the unanimous opinion of His Majesty's Physicians was that upon the whole view of His Majesty's Indisposition His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales

1d was in a state of prospective amendment, and also that very considerable amendment had already taken place: and they were of uni-mously of opinion, that it is of the greatest importance to His Majesty's recovery, to delay or postpone or prevent the preparing to His Majesty, to do any act of Government -

Under these circumstances The Lord Chancellor & Mr Serjeant humbly beg leave to acquaint your Royal Highness that it is their intention to propose to the two Houses of Parliament to adjourn till the 29 of this month - They would have humbly requested leave to have given your Royal Highness this information in person, had they been able to arrive in Town at an earlier hour, and before they were obliged to Ld. Eldon to S. Perceval to H.R.H.

Nov. 15 1810

admonitions, and new had ere of name greatest to delay on to his property
The Duke
ly beg leave that it is House of
of this lumbly respects perhaps if they be earlier obeyed to prepare to go down to the House of Lords

-ment -

41424

Joseph R

Nov. 15. 1810

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of lined paper pasted onto a larger sheet of paper.]

Mr. Kew

Nov 15. 1840.