Lord North's letter from Bushy dated last night did not arrive till I was going this day to St. James's, as Lord Guildford and the Bishop of Worcester interest themselves in Dr. Palmer's resigning a Prebendary of Canterbury in favour of Dr. Lynch I authorize the steps to be taken.
The Atholl family seem never contented but I leave the affair to Lord North to settle as he may think most equitable.
I am not surpris'd Lord North feels disgust'd at the fatigue he undergoes he may be certain I feel my task as unpleasant as he can possibly find his but both of us are in the same and it is our duty to continue.
Sir John Burgoyne propos'd to raise a Regiment he now wishes to decline the undertaking, certainly never can blame him as the offer came from King
