Mr Perceval presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness and begs permission to inform your Royal Highness that the Examination of the Five Physicians attendant upon his Majesty was finished this afternoon with the exception of some slight corrections which one of them is desirous of having an opportunity of making, and for which purpose the Committee will meet for a short time on Monday Morning. Mr Perceval hopes to be able to furnish your Royal Highness with a List of the Names of the
The Names of the

Copy of the first days examinations in the course of Common Law, as he has taken steps for that purpose, but he fears it will be Monday before he can obtain one of the days examinations —
