Ld George Cressman by the advice of Lord Sandringham humbly proposes to your Majesty to sign the enclosed Instructions, as it may be some days before any account can be received from the Pranger which carry the original dispatches to Jersey in her way to the Leeward Islands.

Captain McCallister may be immediately sent with the present instructions from Plymouth, and Duplicates will be sent to Jersey to be delivered to the Officer Commanding the Pranger should he still remain there.
