AA

43392-3

27 Feb 1781

Dear Brother

I am afraid you will think me very troublesome in giving you so many commissions but however You must expect a good many particularly as this letter which will be a manner composed of nothing else, as Promise I have to beg You will order me a Dandy Ke dress of white Satten wastcoat and Breeches
with a Pink cloak the Hat must be white Satten with a fine plume of Feathers, and trimmed as the Dress

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

after Gent. I forgot to say that there must be the Shoes and every thing for. I did ~~many things~~ all in my power but it was impossible to get it made here.
Secondly You must get just such a Sword made as ~~[illegible]~~ Grey made for us, Thirdly You must send me over by the next Quarterly Messenger another Cotton of Gloves of both Sorts, ~~And~~ As for Shoes and Boots Rhymer has already got his orders about ~~them~~ only I forgot to add a dozen pair of the Accoutrement Leather Soled Shoes. I pass my time very well here, to be sure it is not England however taking every thing together I do very well, I am luckily not very difficult I am four Hours at my Studies like a Good Boy. I think having nothing better to do I will give You a little Specimen of the Way of passing my time, first of all I get up soon to have breakfasted at Eight, I then go to ~~the~~ Page here and learn ~~[illegible]~~ Geometry, and to draw military plans till Ten, I then have a drawing master

4A

43393

till Eleven I then either walk or ride till one, at one I dress and we dine at Half an Hour after one, at four I have my German Master till five, and then I amuse myself pretty well the rest of the day. But I am afraid I shall tire you with this stuff I shall therefore only beg my Compliments to Miss Hamilton and the rest of my friends at Home and Believe me

Dear Brother

Most affectionately Yours

Hanover Feb 27 1781 Frederick

P.S. I forgot to desire you would send the Collars of the Garter and Bath over for I understand that it is the Custom to wear them here on the King's Birthday New Years day and Fast days for the people being given much to prayers ~~and~~ fasting in this Country than to feasting. By the rules of all orders we must put them on or wear

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Feby 27. 1781.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43394

Sir

I have many thanks to return Your Majesty for your Gracious Letter which I received by the Courier. I have enquired about the best means of bringing over My Horses. And Every body to whom I have applied have advised their being sent in a Neutral Ship to Bremerlee Because if their Passage is good it will only last four days And they will have a very short ~~passage~~ Journey by land, but if they were to be landed at Ostend, their Journey would take them above three weeks and the Roads are so excessively bad in Flandrs

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

as well as all through Westphalia that they would probably be quite spoilt, before they arrived here. Your Majesty bids me at the same time to acquaint You what kind of town Hanover is, In general it is not well built, and I must confess the Palace is the worst House in the whole town, But however there are some Houses which are certainly very fine, particularly Prince Charles's ~~House~~ It belongs to Lieut. Busch, and a Mr. Sawyer lives at the Stables, He belongs to Prince Charles. Your Papers so exceedingly early here that I am afraid I must finish and to my Letter but I cannot conclude, without desiring Your Majesty to give my duty to the Queen and my Love to Prince of Wales and all my other Brothers and Sisters, and to believe me most sincerely

Your Majesty's

Most dutyfull Son and Subject

Frederick

March 9 1781

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA

43397-8

P.S. I shall answer your next Post as well as you & give you an account of all yr. Commission etc. I hope I shall have performed to yr. approbation. once more adieu dearest Frederick would to Heaven I was with you —

Dearest Brother,

Thank Heaven I am just recovered of a most dangerous illness. I have no other remains of it but a few red spots such as those people have who have lately had ye. Small Pox, but I can assure my illness was not owing to ye. great one whatever Grenville may think, I flatter myself you attribute my silence to nothing but Illhealth, for I think you are too thoroughly convinced of my unalterable affection to attribute it to any thing else. I say nothing more concerning myself or England in general, as I receive

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA

433 every thing concerning us all here till a very Long Letter next Post — The true reason of my writing to you is to recommend to you in ye. strongest manner Hoor Buseke a Friend of mine, so far from being the Gentleman that took poetical Licence as we supposed he is a very honest agreable chearful Man, in short more like an English man than any man of Ger — ma — ny that ever I yet saw. He has been infamously ill treated by yt. Old Rascal Ahasuerus, &c. whole of wh. you will hear from him, "Bar=denberg witnesses &c. truth & every thing he says, & ye. old Field Marshall is acquainted with it, they are both Understand from Buseke very honorable respectable Men. Every thing 43398

wh. concerns his Department he wishes should happ between you & ye. King, & indeed it is much better it should be so, for the King attends to nothing they say & says he will not concerning ye. Army but will wait till he hears from you, he now begins to be convinced of ye. truth of many things Bupshe says, & wh. Alvensleben had assured him to be false, in short I shall be personally obliged to you Dear Brother if you will take these two worthy people as much by ye. Hand as possible, you will find her especially every thing wh. is amiable & I am convinced you will be pleased with her society, & for Heaven's sake beware of ye.
two little nasty Tongues of Uncles I mean particularly Ernest & George, they have made stories & talk

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

march 1781

all sorts of nonsense, wh. is come round to us here ever since you have been at Hanover, they are be ye. first to take part in any little folly with you, & ye. first to repeat it, & to accuse you of it, they will live & hang upon you, un =less you cut them, pardon me my dearest Brother what I write to you you know I promised to write every thing yt. came round to me concerning you, you know how much I love you, & then hope you will look upon this in ye right light yt. I wish you to be very civil to them, but no intimacy. Adieu dearest Frederick I had promised you a short Letter, but when I once have my Pen in hand writing to you, I know not when to stop. May every happiness Heaven can afford center upon you, is ye. constant Prayer of yr. ever affectionate. George P.

Lo. H. March 27th
1781

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales

March 24. 1701.

AA

43399

Dear Brother

I can not Describe how much I have been alarm'd with the Account of Your illness which however luckily I did not hear without being told at the same time that You were now in a manner well, which I pray God heartily may be true. I write You this little Scrawl just to Desire you to put Your Wademen in mind That the Quarterly Messenger Will Soon come and That therefore They must Begin to make

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

any things, You must tell Stab to make me ~~one~~ two pair of Woolen Breeches quite down to the Ancles with a Strap under the foot of white Rams Skin but not to count them in the Half a dozen pair which I ordered Him to send every Quarter and also order Blayney a dozen pair of Pumpsoemen leather Seated Dancing Pumps and two pair of half Boots of the thinny Leather All this as besides the usual Complement which I order to be sent quarterly before I quitted England and also some Hats. Every thing else I shall leave to Your Taste Wisdom and Care, And therefore shall only add my Compliments to Miss Hamilton and all other friends in England, and repeat My most Heartey prayers for Your ~~Health~~ Happy Recovery and Sign My self Most Sincerely

Your most affectionate Brother

Hanover March 24 1781

Frederick

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43400-1

Sir

I have a Thousand Thanks to return your Majesty for the Gracious Letter which the Courier brought me. I can not describe, how much I feel my self flattered by the affectionate manner, in which You express Yourself pleased with my Conduct. Your Majesty may be thoroughly convinced that nothing shall ever be wanting on my part to fulfill your expectations of me. I shall certainly in the first Letter which I write to my brother express as forcibly as I can what Your Majesty wishes. As for my Studies I am so far advanced with Hograve that I this morning made my first Survey. I find the German grow every day more and more easy, so that I now dare begin to talk it a little.

I went on Sunday last to see Hornhausen, which to be sure is not in a very good State at present however they are repairing it, there is a great deal of Room in the House. I can not conclude my Letter without most sincerely congratulating Your Majesty on the good News from Sir George Rodney, I hope that in a short time You will receive as good from Admiral Darby. Permit me Sir to trouble Your Majesty with my Love to my Brothers and Sisters, and to subscribe myself most Sincerely

Your Majesty's

most Dutifull Son and Subject

Frederick

Hanover March 29 1781

P. S.

to the answer

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

P.S. May I trouble your Majesty to give my Humble Duty to the Queen and acquaint H[er] that I intend my self the Honer of answering her Letter next post.

Prince Frederick
March 29. 1781

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA

HRH to Prince Frederich

43404-5

March 30 1781 D Queens House
The Prince of Wales

Dearest Brother,

I last night receiv'd yr. Buckles & yr. Letter; I will take care you shall have yr. Buckles immediately, & now I will set down to write a Volume to you. In primis to make use of yr. own expression, I must tell you as I already have done in a Letter I have sent to you by Busche yt. ye. only reason of my not writing to you, was, yt. I have been upwards of a Month under Sir Richard Jebbs hands, so ill, yt. for two Days he was very much alarmed for me, he had me blooded regularly Morning & Evening during those two Days wh-

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA
HRH

did me infinite good, however immediately ye. most violent inuption similar to the worst Small Pox came out all over my face & all over my Body in a Confluent & so very acrid was ye. Humor yt. threw itself out upon my face yt. it formed a Crust upon it upwards of Half an Inch thick, during wh. time I was ye.
most shocking & helpless object you ever saw, almost blind & so feeble & reduced yt. I could scarce stand or walk across ye. Room; I remained cooped up in my Bed Chamber an entire Fortnight without ever tasting any thing but barley Water or some damned Wishy washy stuff of that sort. I was sensible of my danger for those two Days after ye. Disorder was at its Crisis, & I can not say I was much affected with any idea, except a very slight

AA

HRH to Prince Fredorich

43405

I never should see either you my dearest Frederick or my dear Friend Lake again, whilst I was so ill received three Letters from you, all wh. arrived together as well as one from Joan Grenville; I can not express to you how happy they made me in two of yr. Letters you told me what you wished should be done respecting Mr. Smith; trusting Letters in ye. hands of a Woman man is ye. cursedest of all things, we have had a proof of yt. by yt damnation Bitch Robinson, therefore sent Mr. Smith Word yt. I had received Letters from you, respecting Her wh. I would have ye. Honr.
one of communicating to her as soon as I was able to see any body. Accordingly ye. Moment I was able to stir out, I went & called upon her, carried yr. Letters with me, Read her ye. Passages out of them in wh. She was concerned; in short you may

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

make yourself perfectly easy about her, for she has now laid aside all thoughts of her journey, but says she should be very happy if you go an excursion to Vienna at any time if you would send her word & yt. then she would set out immediately & come & meet you. I hope intrigues go on well at Hannover, for here ye. Women are delightfull & very obliging, I wish to know what sort of a piece you have got, & whether Duchess Egge yours German Bitch Grenville has ye. satisfaction of visiting. I am become a to enable good which & have given those orders concerning ye. Phaeton wh. you desired me to give in one of yr. preceding Letters, you will now have it very soon would to Heaven I could come over in it, for you can not

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43406-7

form to yourself an idea how happy I should be to see you soon again, it is my principal & constant wish, but no matter I hope our separation will not last long. Whenever I meet Mrs. Smith she always plagues me after you, is there any thing particular you would with me to say to her, for I think, was you to send her another kind Message byme it would afford her infinite satisfaction. A propos to Smith, we heard very bad accounts of poor Winchelsea who was arrived at Lisbon, Lady Charlotte Finch, her two Daughters, & John Somers, set out directly to see him, but since they are gone, we have heard much better tidings of him, wh. promise a speedy recovery. I hope he will soon recover, for a more truly worthy, honorable Man I believe does not exist. I flatter myself you will be pleased with ye.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

manner in wh. yr. commissions are executed, as I have taken infinite pains with ym. all; I hope you like ye. frocks I sent you over, & by ye. next Messenger I will send you, two new Uniforms at least, with ye. Dress & undress of my Hunting Uniform, it is called so, & is universally admired, Vicount London, tout ce qui s'appelle Ton, has made it up by way of handsome Banelagh Frocks, if there are any other Cloaths of any sort or these & kind besides Yr. Vandyke Dress, wh. you wish to be sent over I will take care of it. I shall also send you some new Buckles together with ye. sword you ordered, Grey humbly begged to make some alterations, & improvements in it to wh. I most graciously assented, he has sent it home, 'tis exceedingly pretty, a mixture of Gold & Stat Beads, however tho' it is so pretty, I made him take it back immediately as it was not near so pretty or so elegant as yr. I would not was it any thing in yr. taste, you will therefore have another, time enough to go by yr. Messenger, as elegant, as handsome, as hands can make it.

43407

No news stirring here in particular not even in ye. Circle of Galantry, unless it be yr. Ld.
dear Letty Smith has promised me on condition yt. it should not be known not even to a single Soul, to bring me acquainted at her House with Mrs. Franco, this she desired might not be known, not on her account, but on Mr. Franks who is not known by any body but France & Mr.

Smith to be arrived from abroad in London—Smith told me she intended writing to you, what she has to say I can not imagine, however at all events let me know in yr. next what advice you would have me say to her. I am now going to write a line to Joan, & therefore will conclude dear Brother with assuring you truly & affec= tionately I am

Yours

Queen's House.
March 30. 1781

George R

P.S. I have begun my Letter to Joan, but since I began it I have cut my finger so deep yt. I could only add these few Lines to bleed my Quill. But he shall have yt. & you shall have another Letter from me by Friend Post. Adieu My dearest Brother.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA

43408-9

Best compliments to dear Joan, he will excuse my not writing to him as yet. as I want to make up for lost time to you. Ten thousand thanks for ye. heu... you say you send me by ye. Messenger.

Dearest Brother,

I receiv'd yr. most affectionate Letter the Day before Yesterday, & I can not express to you what delight, & satisfaction it gave me, yr. Sermon as you call it, is merely ye advice of one friend to another, & a proof of that excellent heart I have always known you to possess. believe me dearest Frederick, if we always preach so to one another we must be ye. best of Friends thro' out life, & God grant we may ever continue so, nothing on my part shall be wanting to encrease this if possible

AA

this happy union. You mentioned in yr. Letter as if you apprehended yt. ye. D— of L— had in some measure been ye. cause of my Disorder, by raking & rioting & other things of ye. same sort, you are really much mistaken I never have seen ye. D— ever since you have been gone when any thing of that sort has been going forwards, quite ye. contrary, he has acted as my firmest, staunchest & best friend would have done, as you or Lake would have done, had you been present, in an affair, in wh. I wanted yr. advice of such a friend, wh. has lately happened, & wh. I hope now will be speedily put an end to, it originated from ye. old infernal cause Robinson that damned

43409

Bitch. you shall hear every thing concerning it, the moment it is settled but it is too long to be mentioned how; you will therefore perceive how much you are mistaken concerning, when so far providing & caring with me, he is always advising me to take care of my Health. Who is ye. favorite Sultana at present, tell me in yr. next & let me a little into ye. whole Secret of every thing y. hapn at Hannover, as I will do yrs in my next, concerning every thing yt. happens there. Yr. commissions I have executed, I have got both yr. Laces the different from each other, I think them both handsome Buckles I send you at usual, as well as a Watch Chain wh. I hope you will like as well for my sake

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

ye. Hair in ye. Chair is mine. Yr. Vandyke Drop is compleat & beautiful, ye. Hat for it I have ordered of Coster, it was made by ye. Taylor to Covent Garden Theatre, ye ruff belonging to it is seperate from ye whole & lies with two little white things & tapes I do not mean it is a Ruff but like it is an imitation only, but very beautiful in ye neck of your shirt Collar only deeper, remember yr. Shirt Collar Stock must not appear in this dress, you had therefore best always wear any Stock, Stock & tuck yr. Collar down or under. I flatter myself you will find all these things executed with yr. dear good wisdom & prophecy, you attribute to me in prefix'd Sonnet, & yr. being ye case, I remain dearest Brother Yours most affectionately Queens House. April 10th 1784 Georgel

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
April 24. 1791.

AA

43414

Dear Brother

I have no time to write by an Express but I can not help thanking You for Your kind Letter, which I shall answer as fully as I can the first Opportunity You shall have the full account of Every thing Relative to Hanover. Many thanks for Your having executed all the Commissions, I sent You last

Affectionate

Hanover April 24. 1791

Fred.k

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA

43415-6

Dear Brother

I am Waiting With impatience for the Letter which You promised me, We have now two English Posts Due, and You may easily conceive how Eager We are for any news that comes from Dear England. Buschek who arrived here the beginning of last Week brought me Your Letter, as well as the things You was so good as to send me. By what He says I find many things are altered since I quitted England.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

~~[illegible]~~ I shall certainly do what You desire me about Busche, and had very luckily before I read Your Letter already told Him, that if there was any thing that He wished should be done, and ~~[illegible]~~ thought that I could be of any use to Him by writing to the King, I should certainly be very happy to do it, I ~~am~~ can write You, when I have more leisure many more instances of that Rascal Alvensleben, but I wish You would not mention them, I only tell You one now that General Wallmoden whom You must remember and who is an exceeding ~~[illegible]~~ ~~and~~ clever man, ~~and~~ having been fourteen Years Minister from Hanover at Vienna which is always regarded as a step towards being ~~Minister~~ in the Cabinet, wished to quit the Army and Enter as Minister. He is without a doubt the fittest man of this Country for that office and besides it was his due. but however Alvensleben as had weight to get Him refused And it is supposed that He intends ~~to push [illegible]~~ appoint his own Nephew Hacke (a Minister) whom You remember in England, ~~[illegible]~~ He used to talk so oddly. He is of all the stupid and tiresome fellows the stupidest. Wallmoden feels this so much, that He says He will go back to Vienna for a Year and if in the course of that Year The King does not chuse to appoint Him Minister, He shall resign and return to Hanover. Walmoden did not indeed tell me this Himself, but He told it to the Person who told it me, but with the same time begged it might never be mentioned again, I beg therefore You will never mention it to any body whatsoever, because it can do Mahmoud no good and would certainly do him a great deal of Harm. I beg You will Give my duty to their Majesties and tell them that as I had nothing particular to write to them, I should not do it this Post, but that they might take of them depend upon a Letter by the Quarterly Messenger who Sets out Thursday Sennight. Pray Miss Hamilton and tell her how much I am obliged to her for her kind remembrance of me. I must beg You will send me by the Courier four Cricket Bats and two dozen of Balls for we have no such things in this Country. I think You will be tired of reading this Scrawl I shall therefore Give only add that I am and ever shall be Dear Brother Your most Affectionate

A

Hanover April Fredk

My Compliments to the Duke of Montagu, and to Lt Mc
Wm Penn Lyte.

43416

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

1781

The Duke of York

The Prince of Wales

63216

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales

May 4th 1781.

AA

43417

Dear Brother

I am not time this post to answer your last Letter fully, but shall certainly very soon. I wish you send some more new Country dances for people are vastly fond of our Country dances here. I do not know why but Prince very luckily I am hardly upon decent terms with Mr Conolly or with Prince Charles, as for Prince George he is the Lord be praised gone back to Prague, I have great many very pretty stones to tell you about these pretty

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

Jemima, as well as about them other people.
I cannot write to her long to and Ken. Give my compliments to Mrs Hamilton, and to all other Friends in England. If You see them Give her my love. Dear Brother.

I am most sincerely

Your most affectionate

Hanover May 4th 81

Frederick

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43418-9

Sir

I hope your Majesty will pardon my long Silence but not having any thing Material to write to you by last post, I was desirous of delaying my Letter till the departure of the Courier. The Count de la Lippe was so polite as to invite me to go tomorrow

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

to Wilhelmstein to see the fortress, which now nobody is allowed to see without a particular permission As We shall be probably out all day, I am obliged to write now. The Field Marechal has been so good as to tell me that I should set out either the eighteenth or nineteenth of this month to see the Harz the Solling Herpesberg Furstenberg &c. We shall probably pass ten days or a fortnight in our tour. I shall then a fortnight or three weeks at Harkeff to begin Gunnery. having already gone through Geometry and the Greatest Part of Trigonometry, then have therefore remains only Levelling, and a slight Knowledge of Conic Sections, before I am able to begin with Colonel Grey I can not sufficiently express to your Majesty how much I am obliged to Captain Haycraw. for having ordered this Study which is otherwise dry as easy and amusing as possible. I am afraid I have already

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43419

trespassed so much upon Your Majestys patience I shall therefore only entreat yr. to present my Humble Duty to the Queen and my Love to my Brothers. and Sisters and to believe me Sir Most Sincerely

Your Majestys

Most dutyfull Son and Subject

Frederick

Hanover May 7 1781

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

Hanover May 7. 1781.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

AA

43422-3

make me give her every assistance in my power to preserve her from want; the last Day of our hunting wh. was this Day Senn'ight she came to see us turn out in her Carriage; I went up to her & told her I had just received a Letter from you wh. was the last in wh. yr. mentioned her, saying yt. ye. first opportunity you could find you wd. send for her over to meet you, she repeated very quick, what does he say, what does he say, I then told her that it was over again, ay says she that it is very well but I am afraid it is now too late. I then immediately left her, & have not seen or heard of her since. You will not be surprised at her going into keeping with any body when you hear yt. she had spent all her money, & had not a Shilling any where upon earth. Yr. Phaeton is shipped on board of a Hambro' Ship, with particular marks upon it with a direction for some one else for should ye. Ship be taken & were they to see ye. direction for a subject of England they wld. seize it, but it being directed to somebody yt. has nothing at all to do with England they wld. let it proceed on its Voyage. I therefore send you ye. marks & direction by wh. you must send for it, you will see them written in ye. enclosed Paper in Lukin's Hand. Part of yr. Commission only ye. Messenger can bring with him, yr. Cloaths & a few other things I believe ye. Hats to yr. Jaeger & two or three round Hats: the swords with some other trifles & with yr. Watch I send you are all packed together in a long wooden box, another box full of Bats & balls & another Box full of Brushes & other things wh. Sam wrote over for to order, a Box of saddles &c General Freytag will take care shall be safely embarked by ye. next Hambro' Ship wh. is to sail a fortnight hence, we ordered yr. Horses should go by ye. same conveyance. I hope I have now executed every thing to yr. satisfaction, so that I shall be for ye. future employed upon ye. like occasions for believe me dear Frederick nothing can afford me more pleasure, than doing any thing yt. can give you satisfaction

AA

43423

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43423

I do not yet receive any Gazette with excellent news from Lord Cornwallis. My best Compliments to Jane & Burke, Sorry really write to you both by next Friday's Post. Adieu it is very late, believe me, Dear Friedrich ever most affectionately
Yours
George R.

Queen's House.
May 11th 1781

Queen Mary 11 May 1781
Prince of Wales

43424

Sir

As I am afraid that your Majesty should hear from others that I am laid up, I could not let the Messenger go, without acquainting you myself, that on Thursday evening I strained the back part of my knee and, Saturday as I was getting out of the Phaeton, by the fault of one of the footmen, I also strained the same poor Hand, which I had hurt before by my fall last October. I am however almost recovered of both. I can not close my Scrawl without desiring your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen and my love to my Brothers and Sisters and to believe me most Sincerely

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

Your Majesty's

most Dutifull Son and Subject

Hanover May 31/81

Frederick

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43425 - 6

Sir

I hope your Majesty will excuse my long silence but as I acquainted you about a week ago I had the misfortune in going down Stairs to strain the Back of my knee, And two days afterwards as I was lifting my self out of the Phaeton, the Servant upon whom I was leaning, thought that I was fainting and therefore tried to hold me by which He strained my right Side so violently that I have been under the Surgeons hands ever since I had before intended to have asked Your Majesty's permission to go to Tyoments for my amusement, but I have now the additional reason that the Surgeon recommends My going to Pump my Wrist with the Water there, which is remarkable Good to strengthen any Weakness because He did not know already strained the same Wrist, Violently how if I do not get that cured thoroughly now, then may remain a Weakness there for Life. Yesterday the Hops the Horses arrived, considering the length of the Journey in very good order. One of them on board the Ship had the misfortune to get a Blow on the Knee, but nothing of any consequence. The Groom has taken immense care of them on the Road. They agreed perfectly well with Fricksamper. They were very near taken by a French Privateer, but the told them the Horses belonged to the Empress Queen, and what is very extra ordinary the Frenchman believed them. Will Captain Hazard I have only two more Lessons in Dancing Lessons and then I shall begin to practise I can not help repeating, how very easy and agreeable

He has rendered, Geometry &c, which I have already 43426 gone through and which would have otherwise been very dry and tiresome. Permit me Sir before I put my hand and Seal to my Letter, to trouble Your Majesty with my Duty to the Queen and my love to my Brothers and Sisters, and believe me Sir

Your Majesty's

most dutifull Son and Subject

Hanover May 25 1761

Frederick

Frederick R

Hanover May 25. 1781.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

43427.8

Sir

Though I know how much Your Majesty dislikes Compliments, yett I hope You will receive my most Sincere Congratulations upon the Anniversary of your Birthday, and my most hearty prayers to Heaven to Shower down upon you, every blessing both in your publick and private affairs, whilst it is possible to receive. I wish last

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020

week to make Princess Caroline a visit at Zelle
The Town is extremely ugly but the Chateau where the Nobility live is very fine, I went in the Evening to see the Mad House, I was told that I should be exceedingly Struck by the Appearance of the Mad People but I must confess that I was not half so much Struck with them as with the State Prisoners. They are perfectly well taken care of And the Man who is at the Head of it, is exceedingly attentive and kind to them. I saw Hennenberg He is grown fat, and now wears a Wig, They told me that He has had only one fit of Madness since He has been there He is allowed to go about and Play, but He is always attended by one of the People belonging to the House. My Hand is so far recovered, that both Zimmerman and the Surgeon have given me leave to go to the Play

43428

I am to set out Tomorrow Morning. Permit me Sir before I conclude my Letter to trouble Your Majesty
With My Duty to the Queen, and my Love to my brothers and Sisters, and to Sign my self Your Majesty

Your Majesty's

most Dutifull Son and Subject

Hanover June 5 1781

Frederick

F. Frederick
Hanover June 5th 1781.

Supplied by the Royal Archives / © Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II 2020