

43463-4

Sir

I have many thanks to return Your Majesty for the gracious letter, which I received from you today by the post. Nothing can have been more unlucky than the camp here, which broke up today, owing to the badness of the weather. None of the officers have been able to pull off a single piece of their deaths since Tuesday. The Wind blew so hard between Tuesday and Wednesday. That not a tent or a left standing, and at the same time with such a rage as is hardly to be conceived, ~~British~~ Troops were only able to manoeuvre one day, which altogether succeeded pretty well. The finest Regiment in point of both Horses and Men is Friedrich's, in which Malthor is, they have not above fifty Horses in the Regiment, which are not of the Country. The finest Regiment of Infantry is Reders, though not so much in point of Men, but of discipline and Air. Having been so long ~~quartered~~ in Garriso and Manaw that they have much more of the Indians ~~discipline~~. The ground, where the troops were to have encamped, is so completely spoiled that it would be impossible for them to do any thing for a fortnight, even if it was now to hold up.

20484
43
I am just returned from seeing the Garriso Manaw 43464 was impossible to describe the figures they cut, but however it must be said to their credit that they appeared in very good humour and spirits However one lucky thing is that as yet it is astonishing how very few are sick.

I write to you, Sir to entreat your Majesty to give my duty to the Queen, and my love to my Brothers and Sisters, and to sign myself most sincerely, Sir, Your Majesty's most Dutifull Son and Subject

Hanover September 20 1781

Frederick

MS.A.1.1.1

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

J. G. Steinhilber
November 19, 1881

43465-6

Sir

The Duke of Brunswick was so good as to come and make us a visit here last Wednesday. I can not express to your Majesty how very kind and affectionate his behaviour was to me, and with how true respect and feeling he spoke about Your Majesty. The Duke sent me through Grenville a message from the King of Prussia

He said he was charged by the King to say that if I was to come next year to the reviews at Berlin He should be very glad of having that opportunity of shewing his attachment to his relations, I answered that, I begged the Duke would represent to His Majesty how much I felt myself honoured by his gracious offer, and that there was nothing I was more desirous of, than the Honour of being presented to Him but that as I did not as yet know Your Majesty's intentions about the next summer, I could give no answer.

I have again begun my Lessons with Hogsrave Wipul and Falk, which had been interrupted by the Camp, with Hogsrave I have just finished my second plan, and with Wipul I have begun to draw Cannon, My Lessons with Falk become every day more amusing, part of the time I talk German with Him, and the other part we read the History of Germany in German which I understand without much difficulty, indeed by Falk's agreeable manner of teaching, I find myself much more advanced, in the time to visit

And I believe
Honor

43466 time I have learnt ^{from} ~~of~~ ^{him} ~~her~~ than I thought I should.

Permit me, Sir before I finish my Letter to entreat your Majesty, to give my Duty to the Queen and My Love to my Brothers and Sisters and to believe Me, Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Dutifull Son
and Subject

Frederick

Hanover October 12 1781

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

Handwritten note:
Hansover Oct. 12. 1791.

43467-8

Dear Brother

I take the first opportunity of answering your last affectionate letter, as for Madam de Hardenberg's behaviour since her return here it has been very much like the injured Lucretia, so much so that she would not do me the honor of speaking to me however at least she dignified, to prevent me from the beginning of dinner to the end with questions about England, as I told her almost as much as I do the Devil Jesus was only answered ^{without changing to enter farther into conversation} the question without ever ~~attempting~~ at what

She has ^{not} taken so ill that she did not chuse to speak to me for a fortnight afterwards however one day she spoke to me and appeared as if she intended to ^{hear} ~~ask~~ to know what had passed in England, which I carefully avoided to do. In short Dear Brother I think you ought greatly to rejoice that you have got off so well as you have done, for if there ever was an infernal Broomstick Bill in this world it is the aforesaid honourable Lady.
 I am sorry to hear what you say about the Kings not being in good Humour. Let the contract you so do every thing propitiously to ~~bring~~ ^{all} ~~down~~ right again as it is about the plague of both of you without expressing the least in the world. I suppose you are now hunting almost every day, as by the Papers I see, that you have been out with the Duke of Cumberland's Hounds. We are now going to begin our shooting parties here, I am become within one of the best shot here, both with shot and with ball, so much so that I can shoot hares in ~~at~~ their full speed with a Ball at a hundred Yards speaks distance, You can have notice of Stag shooting to I have often run ~~ten~~ five or six miles as hard as I could on foot with my gun on my shoulder, after a stag I do not think the stags here much larger than they are in England, but here a stag is never told that till he is twelve years old and in England they are always told that, at six. I forgot to tell you that a short time ago a letter from England with ~~some~~ wrote that my ~~Bill~~ Gray's Bill on my accounts were very high, I must therefore beg You Dear Brother to send me some things but not too many, however I must beg you will not forget the commissions, which I sent you. I have not time to write more I shall only beg you to write often, and to believe me

43468

Dear Brother

Your most affectionate

Answer October 12 1781

Fredrick

3888

Mr Duke of York

to

Mr Prince of Wales

Date: 12th 1781.

43469-70

Behaving as a Minister of State
 The Duke of Devonshire

Dearest Brother,

I can not help seizing ye earliest opportunity of acknowledging yr. very kind Letter, it gave me more real satisfaction than I can express to you, indeed it delighted me beyond measure. The love I have for you dear Frederick is so great, yt. it will always render me happy in hearing from you, but I confess you made me peculiarly happy by yr. last Letter, as I feared by not having heard from you for some time, yt. some unred Letters from England had endeavoured to break thro' yr. boundless confidence, & affection wh. ever have been subsisted in our intercourse.

Indeed my dear Frederick I am sorry to tell you of yr. unkind behaviour of both Their Majesties but in particular of the Queen is such yt. it is hard to ve ly bearable. She and I under the protestations of yr. greatest friendship had a long conversation together, she accused me of various high crimes & misdemeanors all wh. I answered, & in yr. vulgar English Phrase gave her as good as she brought; she spoke to me she said truly ~~arrogantly~~ without yr. King's know ledge, now I am thoroughly convinced from yr. language she used & yr. style she spoke in she must previously have talked yr. subject over with yr. King, who wanted to try whether I could be intimidated or not, but when she 43470 found I was not so easily to be intimidated she was silent; after having tried various topics in order to vex me, finding y^t it was a very difficult task she at last began talking about us both, & abused you monstrously, as well as me, in short I can not imagine what could have put her so much out of humour. I am certain you never will repeat again what I mention to you in this way as it is of the utmost consequence to us both, y^t our family disputes should be as little known in publick as possible.

You talk of Madame de Hardenberg, as one, y^t never was much in love with her, as to me, you know how passionately fond I was of her, & how much I love her still, if ever she should mention my name to you, tell her yt. I had frequently wrote you word, how strongly attached I was still to her, & yt I would have frequently have written to her had I not been afraid yt. if Mr Stardenberg knew it he would use her again ill on my account, do this only as far as you can with propriety tell me whether or do you think I may write to her without any great danger of hurting her, tell me whether her story & mine ~~has~~ has made any great progress at Hannover tell me in every letter how she is & how she goes on, for every thing in wh. she is concerned int rests me.

You mentioned Stunting in yt. last letter to me, no man is so much altered his method of pursuing yt. almost divine amusement as I am; I have plenty of excellent & beautiful Horses, & ride ym. well up to ye

43471

I have taken plenty of all ye. Rural Amusements this Autumn I am become an exceeding good shot, & have some extraordinary good Pointes ye. first time I ever fired a fowling Piece off I shot at a Sheet of Paper at 60 Yards distance & covered it full of shot; Then shot Ball with a Rifle Gun & fired twice following this ye. Acent of a Sheet of Paper I hope you will allow yt. to be an extraordinary thing for one yt. had never let off a Gun before, & I will continue to keep up a very good character. I now hunt 4 times a Week, twice with ye. King & his Stuards & twice with our Friend ye. Duke of Cumberland & his Stuards, who denies his best Love & affection to you. I will mount you in a capital style if you will but come, if it only depended upon you I flatter myself my wishes would not be long without being fulfilled; you are well convinced dear Brother, at least I hope so, of the sincerity of those wishes, Heaven is Witness of it. I wd. give almost all I am worth upon Earth to have you here again you cost me many a sigh & many a anxious moment. I am not surpris'd at what you write concerning Gray's Bill, as the King is grown so stingy with regard to himself, it he will hardly allow himself to part in a far Remember me in the kindest manner to my Friend Joan, desire him to write to me & tell her I wd. have written to him I might had not written so long a letter to you, but be really now shall have a letter from me soon. Adieu.

Windsor castle.
Oct. 22nd 1781 — Yours de tout mon cœur George B. —
Let me hear from you as often as you can I shall be glad to hear from you

Sir

I have a thousand thanks to return your Majesty for the last gracious letter which I received from you, it shall ever be the study of my life to deserve as much as it is in my power, the affections which Your Majesty is pleased so strongly to express for me. Captain Hargrave has begged me to send over to your Majesty, a Plan I have drawn of a Married fort which I could never have thought of troubling Your Majesty with if I did not hope it might be a means of shewing Your Majesty how very attentive and diligent he has been in teaching Mr Lord Appleby has been here two months, he is very agreeable and Oliver Young, Fox, and to all appearance will turn out exceedingly well, Brunswick will be quite shocked with Englishmen, who are gone there to the Academy for their education, The Poor Duke of Mecklenburg continues exactly in the same way, He was taken a few days ago with a violent fever, which however has now quite left him, As to His other disorder is not in the least better ~~at present~~ but however he is in very good spirits and in all other respects quite well. I never in my life saw such weather, as we have had for this last six weeks it has not ceased raining a single day so that it is almost impossible to go out, I have been very desirous of going out Partridge shooting but it has been hit

 place a comple

Letter

Lucas

The Hon

been un

Your

Manou

43473 been hitherto quite ~~unavailable~~ out of my power for the place where the most Portridges are, is at present a compleat Bog.

Permits me, Sir before I close my Letter, to entreat your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen, and to tell ^{her} that I had intended to have done myself the Honour of writing to Her by this Courer, but that I have been unavoidably hindered; &

I have the Honour to be

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful Son and Subject

Hanover October 26, 1701.

Frederick

Frederick
Hanover Dec 8. 1781.

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales

AA

^{Oct^r}
~~Aug~~ 26 1780.

43474

Dear Brother

As the Quarterly Courier sets out today, I must give you a number of Commissions first of all I suppose Davis is by this time returned to England and will certainly therefore have told you in point of cloaths, what I want and what I can not wear. I must with all convenient speed desire some frocks, and and three uniforms, as also leather Breeches and boots. I must also besides put you in mind of a sword in the style of the Turkish Sabre. Bland made for us but not so fine, if there is any thing else I have forgot, you may supply it out of your own needle.

I had almost forgot to desire you would also send Inver some Indian ink and the best sort of Lead Pencils, being we have no such good things here, I have not time to add any thing more but you may depend upon another letter soon Love

Dear Brother

Renovet Oct 26 1781

Your most affectionate

Fredrick

P.S. Pray write soon, your legs to be kindly remember to your A.D.W.

The Duke of York AA

to

The Prince of Wales

Nov. 8th 1701.

43475

Dear Brother

I have many thanks to return you for your last kind Letter, which I received last Friday, what you ask me about Madam de Hardenberg is impossible, for first she has abused you so terribly by all accounts here, that I am thoroughly persuaded she is completely ^{void} of her love for you if she ever had any. Excuse me Dear Brother if I say so, but really if one may judge by her behaviour here she can't

I have had much at ~~it~~ at present however she is not here and I hope she will be returned soon. It is impossible for you to write to her and I am sure if you was she would show them about, In short the more I see of her the more I think you ought to rejoice at having got rid of her. She is in my opinion the true and liberal sense of the word a damned Broomston Witch. I have just heard that the King has ordered ^{about} twenty Hags from hence, so tomorrow we intend to ~~send~~ some, Pray let me agree to treat you to be upon as good a footing as possible with the King for really it is of so much consequence to yourself that it appears to me quite ridiculous that you do not at least attempt. You see Dear Brother I think exactly what I think because I see so much reason to yourself as well as to him that it may be every way ^{to} your good. I have not time to add more Dear Brother except to beg you would send us over a taber an Pipe.

Hanover November 21 1701

Your Dear Brother

Yours Frederick

43476 - 7

Sir

I had intended myself the honor of writing to your Majesty by the last courier, but having been out all the day at a chase of Boars when I returned it was too late then to write The chase itself turned out exceedingly well only we were not successful in taking the Hags, However tomorrow We have a great Chase at the Hallettsbrack.

Where we hope we shall be able to take a good many As by the time the Hags set out all the Chases here will be over for the winter, the Grand Ducur has been so good as to say that the Chapen, who always goes with me, shall accompany them, I believe there is not a more honest nor a braver fellow living than he is nor nobody more attached to another than he is to me I hope tomorrow to get into my new apartment, which will be much more comfortable than the one I am at present in, Grenville has ~~sent~~ received a letter from Duncombe dated at Aix la Chapelle, Your Majesty and the Ducur have been so gracious as to send me letters by them as well as a Chekin Chep, for which I return my most humble thanks. I'll within these three Days has been the worst and most disagreeable I ever felt continually raining so that the roads about Hanover, not being over fine, it has been more very pleasant thing to go out of the town. I think now one may say that all hopes of the Peer Field Marshals

43477 received

longer

told that family of

tell them

a very happy

upon your

your

love to

Hanover

43477

recovery at all over, He may linger on some few days longer, but I hardly think that is possible, When he was told that there was very little hopes left he thanked his family for having had that idea of his foolishness as to tell them the truth, and added that he had always lived a very happy life, and that he was quite resigned to his fate

I am afraid I have already trespass'd too long upon Your Majesty's patience I shall therefore only return your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen and my love to my Brothers and Sisters

I have the Honor to be Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Dutifull Son
and Subject

Hanover November 22 1781

Frederick

48477

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on lined paper]

AA

43478 - 9

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Dear Brother

You will receive this letter by the person, who always accompanies me to the Chapel, and whom I must particularly recommend to you, as very much attached to me. He is of that Rank among the Chaplains that upon all shooting parties he dines with us. I wish therefore, you would take care that he dines with your Pages.

AA

37984

43479 and that if it is necessary He may also dine with the Kings Pages; I am sure if you tell Ramus from me that I wish He would invite him if He comes to Windsor that He will do it, I beg also you would tell Sarhaque from me that as He is His Countryman, He would take Him under His protection and among other things carry Him to Turin when I shall give Him orders to buy a number of things for me. I believe you will find the Stags exceedingly fine, there is but two of them, which are aged the others are all of about three years old. By the By if you have any thing to lend me what you do not think should be ^{lost} ~~drawn~~ and which is not of such consequence as to want an immediate answer you may trust it to them. ~~As~~ ~~the~~ ~~night~~ ~~before~~ ~~last~~ We had last week a great chase where we killed forty two Wildboars which are very few considering the trouble they were at preparing us. As this will certainly be loved by the savage

Harrover

P.S.

See how you can

Will also beed per

is Clous
or Englas

AA

43479 reaching your hands would be ~~very~~ ^{very} grateful by the Post I shall only add that I shall ever remain Dear Brother

Most affectionately Yours

Frederick

Hanover December 1 1781

P.S. When Mr. King sees this letter pray just see him, and make faces at him for I do not suppose you can speak for he talks nothing but German. There will also come over for you at the same time a Peas bred pullet. I forgot to tell you that Mrs. Kame Chapel is Cousin A. Dices. My compliments to all friends in England.

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Decr. 12. 1701.

43480 - 1

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting]

Dear Brother

[Faint handwriting]

It can not let the Council set out without writing you a few lines. When the Stage comes in England you will receive a letter from me which will be brought to you by one of the Chapeurs who accompany them, it contains a recommendation of them I have wrote to Mr. Winick Lake to desire him to send me over a brace of good Painters when he has got them

You will be so good as to let them be delivered to the care of this Chepout, who is really as honest and good a fellow as ever lived. I am going to Morrow to a great chape about five and twenty Miles off. We expect to find there a great Deal of game. I suppose You will have passed the Christmas holy days at Windsor, We intend to be exceedingly merry here. Now the Carnival begins, We shall have our masques ~~about~~ the third of January. There not time to say more I shall therefore only beg my best compliments to all friends in England, pray write after Dear Brother and believe me to be

Yours sincerely Yours
 Frederick

I have happy to

AA

43481 I found the wife of you & Perry Chapman and happy New Year to the good enough to find can send al

the man
to
Dear
yours
etc

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The text is written in a cursive script.]

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
Edin. 20. 1741

Sir

I hope Your Majesty will pardon my not having wrote to you by the last Courier but as General Fowcett was to set out so soon I thought it better to delay my Letter till then. As Your Majesty ordered me, I have also sent over by General Fowcett, two other plans, the one of Lines de Ponts, the other of Lines, The Objection which Your Majesty made to the last plan, appeared in the same light to me, But by the rules of fortification here, the Germans are Content of the Salient Angle is of Sixty Degrees Last Wednesday three Companies of the sixteenth pass through here on their March for Madet, they are the three Worst Companies, and yet they are Considerably finer than those of the fifteenth Regiment, they were hardly any Old Men amongst them. The Officers are so fully persuaded of the Good will of these Soldiers that they would not take away their Arms from them at night, which was always done, when the fifteenth were on their March. I received by last Courier a very sensible Letter ^{with} which I am sure Your Majesty would be exceedingly pleas'd if You had seen it.

I think I never saw in my Life such weather as We have at present here, it is so warm, that we are oblig'd to keep the Windows constantly open. The Stage will not, I am assur'd not arrive in England so soon as it is to be wish'd, for the Matter of the at last before

of time

to depe
and the
I have

Stance

43485 of the Ship who was to have transported them, refused at length to sail till February, so that in all probability before every thing is settled it will take a great deal of time, they are all however in very good health.

Permit me, Sir, before I close my Letters to declare Your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen and my Love to my Brothers and Sisters, I have the Honor to be,

Your Majesty's

Most Dutifull Son
and Subject

Hanover December 29 1781

Frederick

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting covering the majority of the page]

*Received
of the sum of £100 on the 4th day of 1752.*

AA

43486-7

Dear Brother

I can not let General
Lawrence return without sending you a few lines by him So Day is the anniversary of my having quitted you how very much every thing is altered during that time, By all accounts that I have heard the King and Men are not upon ever good terms what I am sincerely sorry for For God sake do every thing which you can do keep well with them at least upon decent terms, consider the too much ⁱⁿ upon publick affairs it is therefore your business, not to make that shall ^{be} the more popular be crop, but say that ^{the} has is not your business to take that which you know ^{my} ^{dear} Brother I hate preaching ^{full} as much as you do and complaint of popishness. But still for both your sakes, I expect you to keep as well together as possible I know you will excuse what I write to you, because it comes from the heart.

We have at present here an Italian Opera, which plays every other night, and our Progress began on Thursday next. So that during the Carnival we shall be very gay. I say write after, if you hear two months, that I have not received the leaflets from you, and I am sure you ought to have a great deal more to say, I do not think you will see

The Stage of their have done all France the new affection the same because Brother

Honour

43487

The Stage in England before the end of February if they live so long which I almost doubt as they have already been in their lives.

Pray give my best Compliments to all Friends in England and also Congratulation on the New Year. You are too fully persuaded of my Affection for you, to make it necessary for me to repeat the same Compliments to you on this occasion because my Son, and believe me Dear Brother &

Yours most affectionate

Honour Decemb 30 1701

Frederick

78454

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Dec. 30. 1701.

AA

Success House Jan 23. 1782

Jan 20 1782

The Prince of Wales

43488

Dearst Brother,

I can not think of writing two formal Letters over to Germany, without scribbling three or four lines to you to thank you for your very affectionate Letter, & flatter myself if ye. not having been well for some time will appear a sufficient excuse for my silence, thank God I am now almost quite well again, it has been nothing but a little feverish cold wh. having neglected for some time, became so strong that I was oblig'd to take care of it, but nothing of any consequence, however fully sufficient to make me very unwell. I will execute any commissions you may want, & have ordered some new Buckles & other rich necks to be sent over to you. You may expect a very long letter from me during your staying fortnight, indeed I only wrote now for fear you should be uneasy at my long silence. I will therefore conclude, dearest Frederick, with affuring you of. I still am what I ever was, & shall I ever shall be,

Lucas House.

Jan: 28th. 1782.

Your most truly affectionate

George B^d

P.S. Gray tells me how M^{rs}. Ardenberg is & what she is about now. I fear she continues perfectly well

Sir

Though I have nothing particular to write to Your Majesty, yet I do not chuse to let the Couriers set out without sending a letter.

Malhotie has received a letter from Monsieur de Solges by which he appears to be in a very melancholy situation, the Death of Madame de Bagel seems to have

43490

43490

Secured His former grief for the loss of His Wife which had begun a little to subside, and He ^{therefore} hoped ^{that} one of his Sisters was a very dangerous ~~attempts~~ Way.

I have very been furnished with Negroes field fortification, We have already gone through, so much of Shives and Dams as are necessary for fortification and are at present drawing all kinds of fortified posts.
In addition I am finishing My last plan of Gun Ammunition and shall next week begin upon Mortars. I find it however much more amusing to draw positions and posts than to draw Cannon.

Our Weather is still as bad as ever, for it one day snows, and the next rains and the third freezes, so that there is hardly any possibility of going.

but,
to Desiring
And may me see
Honour
P.P.
The Honour
Nothing

43490

Dear Sir,

Permit me, Sir before I close my Letter to desire your Majesty to give my Duties to the Queen and my love to my Brothers and Sisters, and to believe me Sir most sincerely

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
and Subject

Hannover, February 11 1702

Frederick

P. A. Colonel Grenelle does not propose himself the Honor of writing to your Majesty as he has nothing in particular to communicate.

00000

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

J. Fordwick
London Feb 19, 1842

Sir

Though I had the Honor of writing to your Majesty by the Carrier who set off last Friday, yet I can not help troubling you again to day in order to express to your Majesty my sincere thanks for your 10284

43492

Gracious Letter and at the same time your Joy at your recovery, I confess I was not a little alarmed at the arrival of the last post, when every Body told me of your Majesty's indisposition, however I was not sufficiently surpris'd how happy I am that it was of so short a continuance, You are too well acquainted with my affection for not to conceive how rejoic'd I am at his return, after having gain'd to himself so much credit and I have no doubt but that he will do every thing in his power to make my Brother behave in such a manner as to please your Majesty.

much therefore Duty to sincerely
 However

I am afraid I have already intuded too much on Your Majesty's patience, I shall therefore only entreat You, Sir, to give my Duty to the Queen, and sign myself, most sincerely, Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Dutiful Son

and Subject

Hanover February 4, 1702

Frederick

10000

[Faint, mostly illegible cursive handwriting covering the majority of the page]

F. Fredericks
Hanover Feb. 4. 1782.

AA

43493

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

July 15. 1790

Dear Brother

I have not hardly a moments time to write to you yet I can not let the courier set out without thanking you for your last kind letter, and telling how sorry I am to hear of your indisposition, We have had here Sledge parties for this last week, which are exceedingly amusing I have an arrived at a very great proficiency in driving a Sledge, which I do not find more difficult then driving a Phaeton only the horses ^{got} very after silly. It was particularly annoying by Torch light I suppose by this time you have seen the Stage which have been sent from hence, but I am afraid they are quite Spent or account of the same they have been sent up in these Caps. As for what you want to know about Madam de Hardenberg, she is going away in about three Weeks into the Country, and how long she is to stay there I can not tell. I am Druff! I am Druff! this short scrawl but I for fear she should not tell I must make the best use of my time. Adieu Dear Brother You may depend upon a letter from me very soon again I may give my best love to Lela, and tell him I could not perform my promise of writing to him by this paper, but that he may not be sure of one the first opportunity I am Dear Brother

Honoured February 18 1702
Your best affectionate
Fredrick

Sir

I have many thanks to return to your Majesty for your last gracious Letter, as well as for your goodness in sending me Williams Letter, which I have the honor according to your orders, of returning. I am exceedingly happy that his conduct has met with your approbation and I have no doubt but that He will turn out a great Comfort to Your Majesty, and a upfull Member of Society, Permet, me, Sir to return Your Majesty most hearty Thanks for the favor, You have conferred upon Lake, by Appointing him, Your Aide de Camp.

Your Majesty is too well acquainted, with my Affection for him not to conceive the joy I felt upon receiving the News of his Promotion

Our Weather here is quite Altered but frost and snow are quite gone and We have the finest Weather in the World. I hope Your Majesty is content with the Hags though I am afraid they must be a little stiff from the length of time they have been in their Caps. Your Majesty says in your last Letter that You are quite surprised that I do not ride oftener, and that I prefer Shooting to riding, but that is not quite the Cap, but as

There are only certain times in which I can go out a shooting, and that I can ride every day I prefer during those seasons, shooting.

Permit me, Sir, before I close my letter to entreat Your Majesty to give my duty to the Queen, and to believe me, most sincerely
Your Majesty's

Most Dutifull Son
And Subject
Frederick

Hanover March 11 1702

30460

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting covering the majority of the page]

Frederick
Hanover March 1st 1760.

43496-7

Dear Brother

You must not expect a long letter from me, but I could not let the carrier set off without just writing a few lines to you to tell you with how much impatience I wait for the letter which you promised me.
The next six weeks will be exceedingly long.

for We are not allowed either to have any Inappreciation or balls, in short the town is as dull as it is possible.
 All our show is gone, so that We can have no more business parties, I am sure if You was ever to see of one of those parties You would like it above all things, I can not express to You how happy the news of Lake's promotion made me, News You can not expect from us here, I hope You have taken care of every thing which I depend of You in the letter which You received by the Chapmans.

Dear Brother I hear nothing from home except my love to Lake, and to beg You would write often, and that You would believe me most sincerely, Dear Brother

Hanover March 1 1702 Your most affectionate Frederick

AA

43497

P. S. Juan desires his best respects to you

Inappreciable propeller

the iron

best to labour

happy

views

been

on ers

board

could

month

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

March 1. 1702.

AA

43498-9

Handwritten notes: Queen's House 1782, Nov 1. 1782, Handwritten, Ms. B. 1. 1. 1. 1.

My dearest Brother,

I this Morning received yr. kind Letter for wh. I am most exceedingly thankful, now I have returned you my thanks for this great favor I will begin my Letter, by telling you y^t. I have done every thing in my Power to shew Mr. Gouse very attention possible I have had him three times with me, he has dined with my Pages, but could not dine with the King's & Queen's Pages, as he was not down at Windsor while we were there. He is to come to me again Tomorrow, when we are to try three Rifle barrel Guns, one y^t. he brought over, one y^t. Freytag got over from Germany for me, & one

③ Büxsen (Büchsen) Spanner wh. was made by ye. best Workman we have here, he is a Swiss German, & his name is Egge, this Gun is made after Surgeson's Rifle, it is almost ye. neatest piece of Workmanship & one of ye. best Guns yt. ever was made. it is not perfectly new, for he made it about three Years ago for my friend St. Leger, who is one of ye. best fellows yt. ever lived, & a great favourite of Gerrard's, wh. I am certain will be very much in his favor with you; he never made use of it but only carried it over to the West Indies & brought it back with him again. Egge saying yt. he could not get one finished by ye. time prescribed for Signor Ghouse's departure I desired my friend St. Leger to give his up to you wh. he has done by every most readily, & Egge is to make him some more upon the same construction, ye. Gunsmith himself says he could not possibly turn out of his hands a better Gun than this,

 yr. accep
 yr. Sign
 wh. I al great for you safe deli cived yr lar about of it. I same as painted
 by every,
 best wa till I r
 Letters

43499

than this, I therefore after all these preliminaries, beg yr. acceptance of it, I have ordered him to send with yr. ^① ~~Erasmus~~ ^{Büxer} a remarkable good pair of Pistols wh. I also beg yr. gracious acceptance of in token of yr. great kindness & affection to me. I have some things for you from Gray wh. Davis will take care to have safe delivered to you soon; may I ask how you received yr. was Profile wh. I sent I am very pertu-lar about this, as I wish to know what you think of it. I have had painted for you a Picture wh. is same as one I have given Gerrard it is a half length painted by Gainsborough & reckoned remarkably like by every, I wish to know wh. you think will be yr. best way to send it over, as I will not have it sent till I receive yr. answer. I dare not in these Letters write any thing particularly secret, but

① Büxer (Büchsen) Spanner will endeavour, if I can catch a moment before Gouss sets off, to write you a great deal of news which I hope will be very interesting & entertaining, it is now time for me to go up stairs, at least Gerrard says so & is hurrying me to conclude, I therefore with reluctance close this as I do every other Letter to you, for I could write, scribble & chatter for ever when you are ye subject. Adieu, my dearest & best of Brothers may Heaven shower down its choicest Blessings upon you & hasten the moment of our Meeting again, is ye constant & fervent Prayer of Queen's House.

March 1. 1782.

Yr. most affectionate

George C.

P.S. Luke desires his best Love & affection to you as I do mine to you, pray tell me how M^r. Her has behaved to you lately & to every body, & how she & her appear to be together