

Draft to Lord Rockingham
June 2^d. 1766

435

Lord Rockingham, I have just seen my Brothers who are anxious that the Word for their Support may be ^{put} put in as was ~~once~~ proposed rather than towards, as they have it much at heart & desire that may be the method of expressing it. You will therefore instantly order it to be prepared to this effect

R. S.
20^o Clock P. M.
June 2^d. 1766

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]