

43500-1

Sir

I can not sufficiently express to Your Majesty how much I felt upon receiving your last most gracious Letter the kindness and affection, which You have pleased to express in it for me, and which it has ever been my greatest Ambition to obtain have filled me with the warmest gratitude and it shall ever be my greatest care to preserve it and augment it The gracious manner ~~with~~ which Your Majesty has mentioned Ladies to me, has also given me infinite pleasure, I am thoroughly convinced that He has Your Service so much at heart that He will do every thing in his power, which He can possibly think, will meet with Your approbation. I have had a trifling cold, which has not kept me at home a single day, but however it was thought most prudent to bleed me, I am at present quite recovered. But Winter is quite gone, and the Woodcocks are arrived so that I hope to be able to go out a shooting which I have only done once during the last three months, I ride every day, so that

43501

I hope

I have

for the

my self

Duty to

and I

Manoe

43501

I hope, Your Majesty will not think that I have diminished in the least in my liking for that exercise

Permit me Sir, before I close my Letter to request Your Majesty to give Order Duty to the Queen and My Love to my Brothers and Sisters. I have the Honor to be, Sir Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
and Subject

Mercurius March 15 1702

Frederick

10282

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on aged paper]

Luccas House March 15th 1782

AA

March 13 1782

The Prince of Wales

43502

My dearest Brother,

I have not time now to write you a long Letter on very interesting subjects as I had promised must therefore defer it, when you may depend upon having it by ye. next Post or ye. Post after. As I had promised Glouse to send you a Letter by him, I did not let him go without three lines to you. I have sent you over a whole parcel of Buckles from Gray, I have also sent you a Pair wh. I wish you wd. present to his Highness or to His Highness Ernest, & one pair for my old friend Joan Guenille. They are ye. two smallest Pairs & I believe are marked — Adieu, I can not add any more except y<sup>r</sup>. S<sup>r</sup>. Van my dearest Frederick what I ever shall be,

Most affectionately Yours,

George C.

Queen's House.

March 15th 1787.

P.S. I have given Florence a Corbeau de Chevreuil à Belt.

43503-4

25

Dear Brother

I have a thousand thanks to return you for your two last Letters, the one of which I received by Clara, to be seems quite delighted with the journey; and with the <sup>kindness with</sup> ~~spaciousness~~ which you treated them; I am also extremely obliged to you for the Gas and Piffolo, which are charming and which the very first opportunity I shall try. I am very impatient for the Letter which you promise me in which I am to hear how every thing is in England The Lord be praised Lent is however, so that we shall again return to our Amusements, We have had such a fall of snow during the last four days that it is in some places in the Country near ten feet deep, You in your last Letter desired to know if I had received the things which Davies sent, I have not received those yet which Mr. Sent sent last Christmas About three Weeks ago, a Merchant here received a Letter from a Correspondent at Brussels to say that they had passed through that Place and that they would probably arrive here in a fortnight, but they are not come yet We have no news here which can possibly interest you 43504 as You

 Hardinbe
 a very few where is upon not been
 as Duon Hop, My
 all Rec
 for the
 myself
 Agree

43504 as You will very safely conceive, As for Madame de Hardenberg she is at present here, but will set out in a very few days for Her Husband's Estate with Him where she will remain all the Summer, she at present is upon a plan of retirement so much so, that she has not been at <sup>from her own</sup> ~~any~~ Assembly this fortnight.

I think I have given you as full an account as I can of her, and as it is late I shall close my Letter, by wishing you my Dear Brother all Health and Happiness, and begging to be remembered in the kindest manner to Lady, and by signing myself Dear Brother

Agnes March 25 1702 Your Obedt Affectionate

Frederick

10500

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

London 29th 1792

AA

March 26th 1782March 26th 1782

The Prime of Wales

43505

My dearest Brother,

I have but a moment to scribble this unintelligible Epistle to you, to wish you most sincerely joy of having been appointed Colonel of ye. 68th Grenadiers, no one can feel more true satisfaction than I did, or more heartfelt ~~satisfaction~~ <sup>joy</sup>, than when I first heard this agreeable piece of news. But I also heard something of you wh. has given me great uneasiness & pain y<sup>t</sup>. you have a return of yr. old Bleeding at yr. nose & of yr. old cough - for Heaven's sake, for yr. own sake & for my sake <sup>more heartily</sup> take care of yourself, as I can not express to you what I have felt concerning you. I have no more time at present, but you shall hear a very long Letter next Post. I can not conclude with out once more beseeching you to take care of yourself you do not know of how much consequence you are to us all here. Once more Adieu Dearest of Brothers May heaven shower down its choicest Blessings on you, & may you long continue to enjoy every happiness this world can afford, in yr. constant Prayer of yr. most affectionate

Tuesday. March 2th. George B<sup>d</sup> 1782 -

P.S. The King had only ordered you the full Uniform I have also ordered you the pocket -

P.S. 2<sup>d</sup>: Dear Joan I hope you are well, & I congratulate you most sincerely on yr. appointment of yr Colonel of yr. Grenadiers -

43508-9

Dear Brother

Though I wrote to you by last Post yet I can not help writing you a few lines to acquaint you that all the things which Davis sent last December are at last arrived, just the day after I had wrote you word that I did not know what was become of them but unluckily the thing of all when I washed for the snuff was quite spoiled which was your snuff in wax, it was all broken into a thousand pieces, luckily however the face was not injured. I wait with impatience for the letter which you promised me, and which I was in hopes you had intrusted to General Fawcett, but alas my hopes were in vain. He tells me you are and look exceedingly well, which I was very happy to hear, we are going to see Lord Appley, which I am exceedingly sorry for is excessively agreeable, and we have our great friend all the time he has been here. I have not time to add any more, therefore my dearest brother, I hope you will excuse this scrawl.

 Write often and believe me most sincerely

Dear Brother
 Honored March 29, 1782

Yours most affectionately Frederick

HA

43509

P. J. Gannell has been appointed to you & Dec sale will book to face for oil sal

bills
I
p the
A id
Deerp
l
i
u
p re

1700

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

March 29. 1702

43514-5

Sir

I have a thousand thanks to return your Majesty for your gracious Letter, as well as for your kindness in relieving my fears, about your health, which though not quite so well as I had flattered myself it would be, is yet better than it has been for some time and which I hope will in a short time be thoroughly reestablished, I have also many thanks to return Your Majesty for sending me over my Commission and my uniform, which I think beautiful. I am affraid, that one of my Letters, which I wrote to Your Majesty about two months ago, in which I mentioned Lord Apsley must have been left, as you say in your last Letter that I have never spoken of him, He has just quitted us to continue his travels which I am exceedingly sorry for as he is a very great loss to me. There can not be a more good humoured or a better companion in the World than he is, and at the same time so exceedingly polite and well bred. I believe, there never was a stranger in any place who was so much liked

43515 as the Perform sure, that the will too some only in and sign

Honour

43515 as he has been here, I am sure there is not a single Person here who does not speak in his praise, and I am sure that, when ever it is his lot to enter into Affairs he will make a great figure,

I am afraid I have already depended too much upon your Majesty's favour I shall therefore only entreat you, not to give my Duty to the Queen and Sign myself, Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Dutiful Son
and Subject

Frederick

Minster April 19 1702

1871

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on lined paper]

43516 - 7

Paris April 26 1782

Sir

Though I did myself

the honor of writing to Your Majesty last Friday, yet, I could not let the quarterly courier set out, without again addressing you. I have been desired by the Grand Marshal to bear testimony to Your Majesty about the 432

I am left here, who really is ~~an~~ exceeding good and who has saved my teeth, which, though I take all the care I can in the world of them, were in so wretched a plight that in six months more they would have been completely spoiled. I do this the more readily, because he is not only very knowing in his trade, but is at the same time a very harmless inoffensive man, and really has very little to live upon. I have taken the liberty to send Your Majesty, the last Plan I have drawn of a fortified camp, which closes the whole of my instructions about field Fortification. I have only now to go through a little of your fortification, and the attack, and defence of Places which will not take me up much time, and which will finish the instructions, which I at present

43517 receive not I much as well

He has under Wipfeld
of Mort
a Week
as You
to conse
I should would p
Hamburg
Germany
of Herbu

43517 receive from Captain Negroe, to whom I can not sufficiently express to your Majesty how much I am oblig'd, for his care and diligence as well as for the agreeable manner in which He has given his instructions, So as has to render the driest parts, amusing. With Monsieur Wipfeld I have almost finish'd my second Plan of Mortars, so that I shall not much more than a Week or a fortnight business with Him.

As Your Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to consent to my going to the Camp at Lunenburg.
I should be exceedingly happy. If Your Majesty would permit me as I am desirous to go and see Hamburg, which is so remarkable a town in Germany, and from thence to see the fortification of Neuburg, and at the same time on my return I might God and his your Majesty's kind at the Hoys I have within these two or three days made Purchase, which if your Majesty pleases to have after you have heard the story is very much at your service. It is a ~~Frame~~ filled with antiques and miniature Pictures. The story is as follows There were four of these frames which belonged to Kings of England. When Charles the second was obliged to quit the Kingdom, he took one of them with him.

The other three were left, and are now hanging up at the Queens House, They were first sold in Holland, and after passing thro: a series of hands, at last came to a Lieut. Gronin, who refused twenty thousand Crowns for them and who died here about thirty years ago, very much in debt so that they were seized and lodged in the Jail at Landen, where they have been put up to auction, but were never sold till within these two or three <sup>days</sup> when I bought them for a trivial <sup>1200 pounds</sup> sum. I permit me, Sir before I close my Letter, to entreat your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen and to beg Your Majesty's most dutiful and subject ms. 1117 Frederick

AA

43518-9

26 April 1772

Dear Brother

I have been waiting with the greatest impatience for the letter, for which you have so long promised to write to me and which is not yet arrived. As for the Commissions which I gave you in my last letter, I shall again beg you will particularly take care of them, and if possible send them Sooner after than by the Courier. The things which Davies sent Capt. February are not yet arrived. If you will be so good therefore to let somebody inquire, when a Hamburg ship sails, and let every thing be directed to Monsieur Van Aers. Merchant at Hamburg, by which means <sup>the thing</sup> they will come the ~~fastest~~ quickest. lest you should have forgot any of them I shall send you inclosed a list of them, which I hope will be clear.

News you can not expect from us here nor any thing else which would particularly please you. I shall therefore, Dear Brother, conclude my Epistle by begging My Compliments to all Friends in England, desiring that you would write often, and that you would believe me most sincerely

Dear Brother
 Hanover April 26 1702.

Your most affectionate
 Frederick

43519

P.S. Joan begs his Respects. Adieu.

	1/2	1/2
1/2	1/2	1/2	1/2
1/2	1/2	1/2	1/2
1/2	1/2	1/2	1/2
1/2	1/2	1/2	1/2

A
 You
 when eated which should
 a
 ed eep
 ed
 ll
 D
 onest thomato
 k

10518

The Duke of York

to

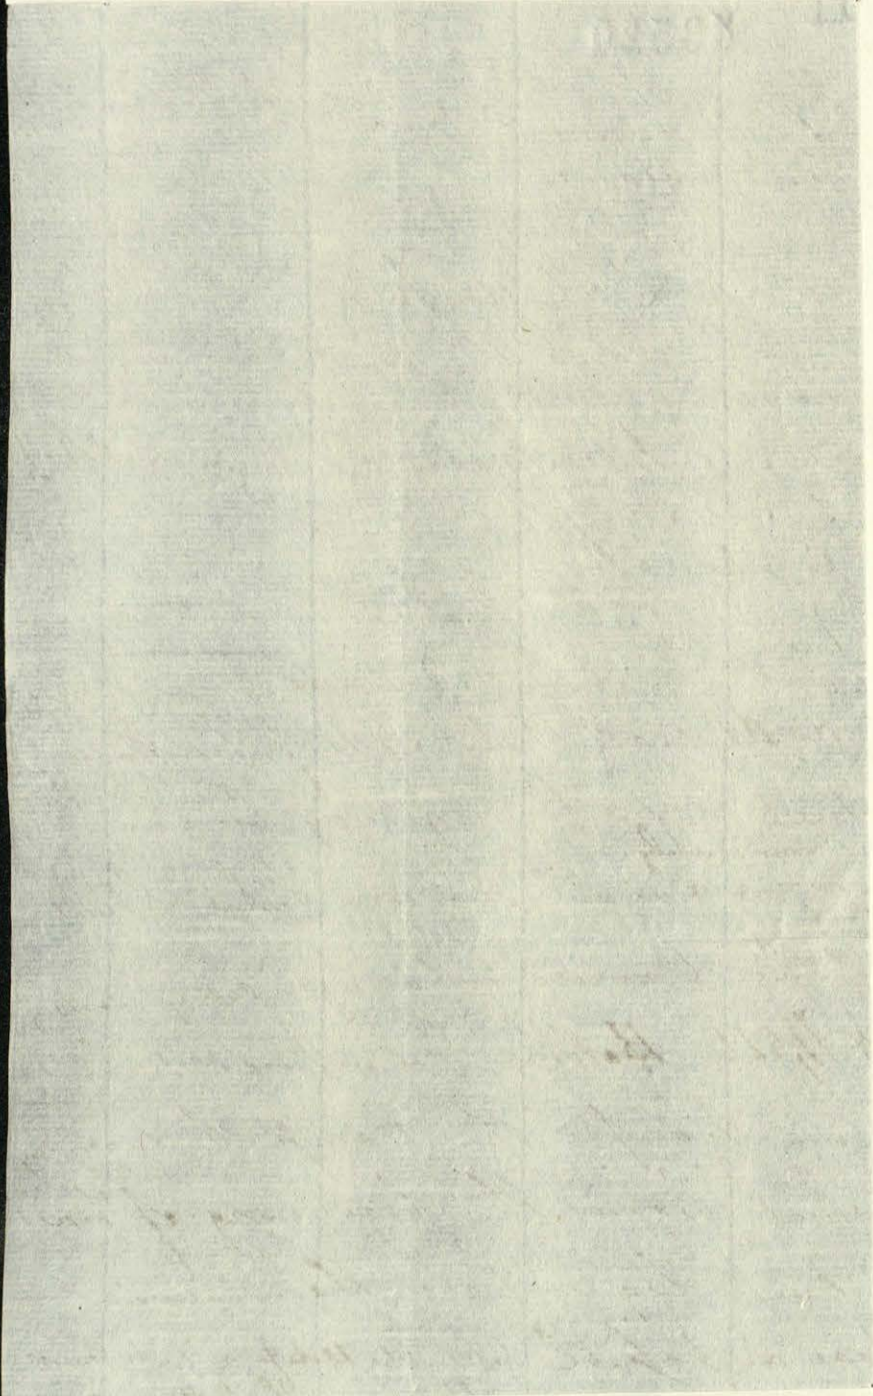

The Prince of Wales

April 26. 1702

43520

List of the things, which I want from England.

- 1 The Full Uniform
  - 2 The Prock Uniform
  - 3 The Cap
  - 4 The two swords, viz the large one and the <sup>small</sup> Prock
  - 5 The Clasp
  - 6 The Staff
  - 7 The Full Furniture
  - 8 The Prock Furniture
  - 9 At least four sets of Buttons which I must beg may be sent <sup>immediately</sup> over in small parcels like letters by the Courier who goes every fortnight.
- All the Furniture will be wanted for the Camp at Lunenburg which begins the beginning of June I must beg to have them over as soon as possible. <sup>For the Uniforms must</sup> also come with the Furniture

AX

43529 - 30

Dear Brother

I can not express to you how happy you made me by your last letter which I received on Monday. I confess it was so long a time since I had heard from you, that I could not conceive what the reason was.

I received last Friday the Buckles &c. which have been near three months upon the road.

AX

The Buckles are beautiful, I gave Joan this and I also sent Prince Ernest <sup>the</sup> Hope which You had intended for him, However We have now a Weavers Mourning, so that I shall not be able to wear them so soon, I am exceedingly happy to hear that You have done all my Commissions, which I hope will arrive here very soon, By the By I have mentioned that We have a Weavers Mourning, and have totally forgot to say who she is for, this for Prince Charles's Wife, who died here last Wednesday. But Pray do not speak to the Queen about it, till she tells it you, as I have been desired to treat the thing to break it to her. You have no idea how dull she is here at present, Every Body is gone out of town, nor do I see as how to be able to stir but so that We live quite retired. I have not time to add more, but you may depend upon my writing soon again, I shall therefore only beg to be remembered to all Friends in England, and to sign myself

Dear Brother

Your most affectionate
Frederick

Hanover May 24 1702

P.S. If thousand to cut Ernest
 a Dean
 P.S. perhaps as left and the Place the 43530

P.S. I forgot to tell you that Greenville returns a thousand thanks to you for his Buckles in which he cut a flesh on the very first occasion. As for Prince Bernett he means to thank you himself. One more Adieu.

P.S. I forgot to beg you to send me some Hats particularly these for my uniform the same numbers as left home only instead of sending three round Hats send me but one round Hat, and four Uniform, and four Flax Hats. One more Adieu.

48580

[Faint, mostly illegible cursive handwriting covering the majority of the page]

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

May

Barnes 24. 1902

AA

43531-2

Dear Brother

As I was out of my power to write to you before I quitted Hanover I shall send this, hoping that Sawcett is still there who has undertaken to deliver it to you. We left Hanover at seven o'clock in the morning, and arrived here at seven in the evening, which considering the distance which is fifteen German Miles, and the roads which are worse than can be conceived, is exceeding good going

The Camp was formed on Tuesday Morning it consists of nine battalions and seven Squadrons. They began on Wednesday Morning with their first evolution considering all things went off pretty well. Yesterday we had the parade review but before we had got have along the line the rain was so violent as to disturb us all through in an instant. One terrible inconvenience however of the Camp is that it is at such a monstrous distance from the Head Quarters, where the Head Quarters, or, as well as all the rest of the Generals, were eight English Miles, so that all our old Generals here, it is quite a journey there and back again.

I think I have given you a proper description of the Camp, but having nothing else worthy your notice to relate to you I was resolved I would give you a high idea of how much I am improved in my progress. This shall if you please afterwards I will give you an exact account ready for

of every have or Dull as in the though for four grow very going on Hosp, w therefore would be

AA
43532 of every Inconvenience, as well as of all the faults which have or shall be committed here. The evenings are as dull as any thing can be, for there is not a single soul in the Town whom I know, except the Generals, who though exceeding good Men, yet being with them continually for four and twenty hours, was the very best thing which I could do, I must close my letter as we are now going out to inspect the Cavalry Man by Man and Horse, which is what I am very curious to see I shall therefore only beg my love to Luke and that you would believe me most sincerely, Dear Brother

Your most affectionate
Frederick

Lunenburg June 14 1702

N.B. You will easily conceive after having read this that I wrote it in my uniform booted and spurred ready for the field of the Day a Die.

48782

The Duke of York

June 14. 1702

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

The Duke of York

AA

to

The Prince of Wales

July 19. 1702.

43533

Dear Brother

As You cannot settle at this evening, I can not help writing to you to seek your for your acceptance long silence, it is above two months since I have had a single line from you, pray for God's sake write often, you shall have so much to say every little particular is interesting to me.
I have received the two Swords and the Hats which you was so good as to send, and the other Boxes, will arrive by the Messager from Hamburgh by tomorrow morning. I am infinitely obliged to you for the Buckles which you was to send me to send me by the Due d'Anvers they are beautiful Pray excuse the shortness of this word but really having nothing to say, which can interest you, for I do not suppose you would like to hear of the Births, Marriages and Deaths here. I shall therefore conclude by assuring you Dear Brother, that I am most sincerely

Your most affectionate

Honour July 19 1702

Frederick

P.S. Pray write after I get to by you would give my best Compliments to Frederick and tell him that I am much ashamed I have not as yet answered his last letter but that he may depend upon a Letter the very next occasion Adieu

43534-5

Sir

In the last Letter, which I had the honor of writing to Your Majesty with the account of my Tour I forgot to mention that I had made it my Business to obey Your Majesty's Command in getting acquainted with Monsieur de Buseck de Hunsfeldt. He appears a very Sensible Man and gains Trust or being known as his first appearance is Trust Against him owing to his Shyness He seems also to have a great Affection for his Country whose Wellfare He appears to have Trust at heart, and is the promoter of every thing which He thinks is for the benefit. Our Weather here is extremely bad We have not had hardly a fine day these six Weeks. I have been three times out a shooting but have been very unsuccessful on account of the inclemency of the Weather.

The Harvest has also been exceedingly bad this year, but it is hoped it will not be so much felt on account of the great plenty of the four last years, so that there is much corn still left, which could not be disposed of.

Perm

Having

Vacan

some on his

at Ina

Deferro

applic

Letter

Duty to

Harve

43535

Permit me, Sir, to remind Your Majesty of My Having recommended Young Rampton for the first Vacant Lieutenancy in My Troop, As it is some time since I did myself the honor of writing on his Subject to Your Majesty, I am afraid it may have slipped Your Memory. He is a deserving young Man, and by all Accounts applies himself exceedingly at Gottenberg Permit me Sir before I close My Letter to entreat Your Majesty to give My Duty to the Queen and to believe me Sir,

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful Son
and Subject

Harbour September 27 1782

Frederick

Prince-Edwin

September 23. 1802