

A. H. to Lord North

Dec. 1 1781

Printed. House II 393

I have received the List of Speakers Yesterday and the Numbers of the Division; when Lord North said Yesterday that he heard it was the intention of Opposition to attempt to postpone the usual Committee for granting a Supply, I own I thought it too violent a measure for the Leaders to think advisable, and that they ought ought to throw the difficulty on Administration not take it on themselves. I am happy so injudicious a measure has been pursued, not only Parliament but every man of reflection in the Kingdom must now see where these desperate Men are driving, and this will I trust make Members attend of ridiculous as every unfair step may be expected and it behoves the friends of this Constitution to be always at hand to repel their Attempts
