

The Duke of York

AA

to

The Prince of Wales

Sept. 30. 1702.

43536

Dear Brother

I have been waiting very impatiently these few weeks for the letter which you promised Mrs thro: late but unluckily I have been disappointed I believe you have quite forgot me, for I have not received a line from you since May lapp I am sure I do not ask too much when I only humbly entreat for a Line how and then when you have nothing better to do, to say that you are well. I must give you the Commission to order two Money Books to be bought for me and to send the over the numbers. Now pray do not forget this if you think it too great a trouble to send them over yourself pray give them to Lewis to send them over. I have not time to add any more, except that I am most sincerely

Dear Brother

Your most affectionate

Honour September 30 1782 Frederick

43537-9

C.A. 15-1782

My dearest Brother,

You can not form to yourself an idea how much I feel myself concerned & hurt that you could even for a moment suppose it possible you should either have forgot you, or you any thing you employ me in, should appear troublesome, indeed my dearest Frederick you injure me very much, for I can assure you that tho' my laziness may appear very great, really is quite incurable, yet my affection never has varied from you one least, it is so strong & of so firm kind you it will never cease but with my existence. Did not I feel you tender of love for you, such I always have done, & now do in a still greater degree than ever) as a Brother, the friend of my youth & the Companion of my Childhood, my gratitude to you, for ye. numberless marks of yr. friendship would recalle you to ye. recollection of a heart wh. is as strongly attached to you as it is possible for ye heart of one man to be attached to y^r. of another; & I flatter myself y^r. y^r. friendship wh. has ever subsisted between us since the moment of our Birth, will as Years multiply over our Heads in proportion be tied in a still firmer knot.

 I hope you are sufficiently acquainted with the sincerity of my Heart, to believe, y^r. ^{ye. expressions} ~~what~~ I have ^{used} made in this Letter are its genuine sentiments, & that they proceed from the very bottom of my soul.
 Let me now entreat yr. forgiveness, as I can assure you, you shall no longer have any reason to complain of not hav shall be in my all the just w curry co Lattira

 stable,
 of every have ye spare earth y^r. I
 & I fla y^r. su

plain of me upon this score & indeed I hope you will not have any upon any other, yr. Lottery Tickets shall be bought directly & sent over to you if possible in my next Letter, & I beg you will send me over all the commissions you have to send to England such as just what relates to ~~wool~~ pails bushes combs forks curry combs, common Saddles & Bridles, in short tout l'attirail necessaire, & tout les petits minuties, of yr. stable, but as to fine furnitures and every commission of every other sort & kind, I beg and entreat I may have yr. satisfaction of executing them as I can assure you my dearest Brother, nothing upon earth can give me more pleasure, than the idea of. I am doing any thing yr. can be agreeable to you & I flatter myself you will find yr. executed with yr. punctuality, & regularity you will approve of.

I intend sending you among other things by the next messenger a Portrait of me painted by Gainsborough & reckoned by every body to be a remarkable strong likeness, he is to pack it up himself it will be col'd up & sent in a tin case, you will therefore make yr. Servants take care how they unpack it. I was very much astonished when I saw Cpt. Diebrock, I think yr. was his name by his telling me, yr. you are at least an Inch or half wider over yr. Shoulders than I am, I wish you wd. send me an exact ^{measure} ~~account~~ of yr. height as I wish to compare it with my own, in order yr. I may form to myself some idea of what sized person I may expect to see, when I have yr. long wished for happiness of seeing you I will not buy yr. Lottery Tickets myself, as I am 43539 such a damnable Dunluby Dog myself in any instance of. I shd. be very sorry to intail ye. same ill luck upon you. We have no news stirring here at present except of. ye. Duke & Duchess of Scherwin are just arriv'd & of. I am to have ye. honor of being introduced to their Einwohner friendship on Wednesday next. In Heaven she write me ye next Letter you write one of yr. factions lively, & by Letters, & so more of yr. scolding ones, car je vous assure qu'elles me content jusqu'au fond de l'ame; je ne suis du tout point content de ce que je vous ai dit dans cette Lettre. mon cœur sent beaucoup qu'il ne soit exprimé.

 Adieu my dearest Frederick, believe me thro' out life,

Your most affectionate
 Windsor Castle.

George R

Oct. 5. 15.

1782

P.S. Compliments & kind remembrance to Edler Count

Number C 156

October 1782

The Province of Wales

43540-1

a thousand thanks for Murray's letter as the paper, but it is impossible to work it over again

Dearest Brother

I have a thousand thanks to return you for your kind and affectionate letter, which I received last Friday, and which I would have answered immediately if the post had not arrived so late as to put it totally out of my power. I will thank you for so wrote my own sealing letter, which really I thought, you had desired. I shall wait with the greatest impatience for your return, for which I am exceedingly obliged to you. I must beg you will take care, when the carrier comes back to send the things which you like and not let him charge as he used to do by which means I was sometimes above four months without receiving my things and also to take care that the work be sent as soon as possible and in the most expeditious manner, because I have not yet received the things which ought to have come by the last carrier. News you see expect here from us here. We have who of inform on to the D capital because your and the be

 I have left
 De manner
 P

43541 have had from Charles of Hope Chapel here who appears a very agreeable man, but with infernal formal By the By - whenever you on to be married let me recommend to you the Daughter of the Hereditary Prince of Capel who is said to be one of the prettiest beauties ever seen she is only fourteen years old which is about the better end I think the sooner you marry the better. Adieu My Dearest Brother I have not time to add more, Give My Love to Lake, and believe me Dearst Brother

I remain
 Yours most affectionately
 Frederick

P.S. pray with affection and love, ever
 your most affectionate

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Oct. 28. 1782.

Sir

Permit me to Sincerely to congratulate Your Majesty upon the great success which Lord Howe has had in throwing in the Supplies into Gibraltar I believe no object ever occupied the Attention of the whole World so much as this Siege, and I am certain, that there never was more sincere joy shewn than upon the news of its being relieved. We have been so unlucky as to have five posts wanting by the way of Offend, so that it is almost three weeks since we have had any news from England. We have had for some time past the very worst weather I ever saw in my life continual rains, and at present a most violent drought, none of the Farmers have been able to sow their ~~seeds~~ ^{fields} and in many places the Harvest is not yet in, In the County of Hays, I was assured three days ago that the oats were not sown in.

In short, there never was known such a Year as this at least in these parts of the Country, and if luckily the two last years had not been so very plentiful there would have been a famine here. As for my studies, I have finished with Captains Hectors, both Dutch Conquest and, Great Fortification as well as a Treatise upon Mines, and I shall tomorrow begin, the Attack and Defence of Places

4
I can how copy, other

to con
the Lu

Maun

43543

I can not sufficiently express to your Majesty how very attentive His Grace is and how clear and easy, ~~but~~ ~~the~~ He has made many ^{things} which would otherwise have been very difficult and unseemly.

Permit me Sir before I close my Letter to entreat your Majesty to give my duty to the Queen, and to believe me, Sir

Your Majesty's

most dutiful Son
and Subject

Mannour November 22 1730 (Frederick)

Francis Sandwith
November 22 1902

Sir

I have a thousand thanks to return Your Majesty, for your last gracious Letter which I received by the Courier I hope Your Majesty is thoroughly convinced that I should never have thought of beginning the repairs of the Palace at Osnabruck, without first of all acquainting Your Majesty with them and sending over at the same time the Estimate of the Expence. Having considered the Subject will ever I think, that as there is nothing to be built but only fitting up and repairing it would be better to employ an Architect who has been accustomed to these things and can calculate better how much they would cost than Hogreve, who never has given up any time to the Study of these things. This Architect has already fitted up a Palace of the Prince of Depau, which is said by every body to be the prettiest thing which ever was seen, and at the same time to have cost hardly any thing. I leave it entirely to Your Majesty whether it would not be best to allow a certain Sum of Money to be set apart in order to buy the most necessary things such as Chairs, Tables Beds Linnen &c. which by being begun now, will ~~not~~ cost considerably less than if it was delayed a few months later, for as all the Workmen are poor here, it is impossible to buy the least thing ready made, so much so, that one must begin

43547 with buy word last of Meckl

During the or the beg happy th
as to perm very Inca and Princ well as to the last great affe which I power
Letter to Duty to Hannover

with buying the Wood and the Hoop Hair.

The Duke of Brunswick sent me word last Tuesday that the Prince and Princess of Mecklenburg would arrive at Brunswick during the Fair, which is about the end of January or the beginning of February, I am exceedingly happy that Your Majesty has been so gracious as to permit me to go there as long as I wish very much to make the acquaintance of the Prince and Princess, of whom every body speaks well, as well as to see the Duke of Brunswick, who the last time I was there treated me with great great affection and gave me some excellent advice which I shall certainly do every thing in my power to follow.

Permit me, Sir before I close my Letter to entreat Your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen and to believe me Sir,
 Your Majesty's
 Hanover December 20 1702
 Most Obedient Son
 and Subject Frederick

Boris Brönnich
December 28 1902

43548 -9

Dear Brother

I have a thousand
thanks to return you for your Picture which I think exceedingly like except the nose which is certainly not shaped like yours. I suppose long before this you will thoroughly recovered from your accident, which however by all accounts might have been a very bad one. We are all here in expectation of news about the peace, which I most sincerely hope

AA

43549

may not take place as it can not but be an ignominious one and I do not think that we are decuded so low, as to make that necessary. So far for Politics, I shall go about the end of next month to the fair at Brunswick to make the acquaintance of the Prince and Princess of Mecklenbourg, the fair is amusing enough as there is generally a good many Strangers there, and I like the Duke of Brunswick exceedingly. He is extremely polite, and behaved to me, particularly the last time that I was there, with a degree of affection, which one seldom finds in such great People. We have not been able to have a party in sledges till as yet this year, unluckily all our snow and frost is gone, which I am exceedingly sorry for, as I think this a very great amusement.

As I have nothing more to write to render this scrawl in the least amusing, I will finish by assuring you my dearest Brother that I shall ever be

Your most affectionate
 Frederick

Hannover December 20 1782

P.S. Pray write often, It is now above six weeks since I 4324

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
Dec. 20. 1702.

43550-1

Sir

The Couriers who returned last Week from Oxford, made me very happy by bringing me, Your Majesty's very gracious Letter of the 17th. I am exceedingly sorry to hear of the poor Bishop of Worcester's misfortune, every body who knows him must esteem him, and so much the more so, as the cause of the disorder is owing to his goodness of heart. Poor Arnold, Little did I think the last time I saw Him, that He would have been in so dreadfull a Situation.

Our Winter which appeared to have been totally gone is returned, with redoubled Violence We have already had a Violent fall of Snow, and it appears as if We should have a great deal more I am afraid this weather, will be very much felt by the Country people here. As the Harvest has been so exceedingly bad, and they have not had time to sow their fields.

I am at present very hard at Work with Hogsrev, at the Attack and defence of Places.
And I can not sufficiently express to Your Majesty, how very clear He is in all His instructions.

Though I know Your Majesty does not like, a New Years Day Compliments, yet I can not close My Letter, without humbly congratulating Your Majesty upon the Change of the Year, That the All Mighty may Shower down His Blessings upon Your Majesty's Head, and that He may bestow on you, a long, and a 43551

Happy Series of Years, are the constant prayers of Sir Your Majesty

Most Obedient Son
and Subject

Hannover January 31783

Frederick

48281

Prince Frederick
Aug 3. 1903.

Sir

The Courier who arrived here last Sunday brought me Your Majesty's gracious Letter of the third of this Month in which You order me to send over the Estimate of the Furnishing the Palace at Spabuck. I explained to the Grand Marshal as fully as I could Your Majesty's intentions about it and He has made an estimate as exact as it was in his power of every thing which is absolutely necessary. I hope Your Majesty will be pleas'd with it as He has made it as little expensive as possible as for Guiding We have determin'd there shall be none I enclose two papers the small one marked number 1. is the Estimate of the whole such as the Furniture, Linen & other Furnishings. the other is the more amount of the Furniture of the House. If Your Majesty is pleased with this Estimate may I humbly desire that Your Majesty would order the Money to be remitted to Your Chamber of Finances at Hannover, because as every thing must be made here, the Workmen being so exceedingly bad at Osnabrock it would be very inconvenient if the Money was left there, to be continually writing for it. May I at the same time entreat Your Majesty in the order which You must give ~~for~~ to the Chambers here to add the permission that I may have the things made by the Workmen whom I hire, otherwise, as Your Majesty's Workmen here have the same trick as they in England of charging twice as much as other Workmen, the things would come much dearer and be much worse made.

I hope shall find fortification remains of teaching

so long as only to be to tell myself
his

Hannover

I hope that by the end of the next Week I shall finish with Captain Hagen by Lepon's for Fortification, which have certainly be rendered as Amusing as possible by his Attention, and manner of teaching.

I am afraid I have already been paid so long upon Your Majesty's behalf I shall therefore only beseech Your Majesty, to give My Duty, ^{to the Queen} and to tell Her that by the next Courier I will do Myself the Honor of writing to Her, and beg Myself
 Sir

Your Majesty's

most dutiful Son
 and Subject

Hannover January 7 1703

Fredrick

Brown & Green
January 17. 1703

Dearest Brother

I find I must again write you one of my Solacing Letters, having lost all patience. You must remember, that after a silence of near six months, you promised me in your Letter of the 10th of October, that you would never be so negligent again, but alas I have not yet since that moment received one single line from you, I am assured that having been so very long absent I have quite forgot.

AA

43555

I shall set out in about six Weeks for Brunswick, which is about the time that the Prince and Princess of Schuering's mean to be there. Our Masquerades are begun here, but I am to judge of all them by those which are passed I must confess I believe they will be very dull We live as quiet a Life here, as is to be conceived I shall find myself quite out of my Element when I shall return to London, being so totally unaccustomed to racketing and noise I will give you as exact an account as possible of my manner of Life there, I get up in the morning about seven, and breakfast, at nine I go to my Lesson in Fortification, at Ten I have my German Lesson, from Eleven till one, I ride some times out a Drive, and some times in the Manège in which by the by I am grown a great proficient.

at Bre
 four, wh Assembly,
 half a h
 I set at sup, ag
 my room when I
 27 of Jan
 Jam son
 London, w each a coat. W with the same tim used you left comp
 myself
 Honore

43555 at breakfast at two dine, Dinner is hardly ever over before four, when I go into my room again, if there is any business, which happens very seldom, I go there at half after five, and play at Cards till nine, at ten I sit at home quite alone, about a little after nine sup, after supper is over I generally go up into my room and read till between twelve and one when I go to bed, Thus have I lived from the 27th of January 1780 till this present moment I am so thoroughly accustomed to it, that I can do every thing without a clock.

I have given you, as thorough and exact a description of our mode of living here as I could without I have told you, you will shudder with the very thoughts of it, I am afraid at the same time I shall also have ~~thoroughly~~ completely bored you with it, I shall therefore only add my best compliments to all Friends in England and beg myself
Dearst Brother
your most affectionate
Friend
London January 19 1783

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Jan 17. 1703.

43556 - 7

My dearest Brother,

Thank God I am now perfectly recovered from my accident, & should certainly have acknowledged yr. two last kind Letters but we have really been lately employed so much in hunting & other Rural Amusements yr. I have hardly had time to eat & drink so far from having a moment to myself, but whenever I have, believe me the pleasantest I pass are those wh. I dedicate to you. In yr. former Letter, you mentioned a young Lady whom you thought wd. make a very good House for me, in the first place I understand there is an unfortunate madness in the family, in the second place I do not intend to marry till I am near the Age of thirty, & in the third place my dear ~~James~~ Joseph Frederick I do not know how I can turn such a number of young

Brothers as I have to a better use, than by making you take ye load of Matrimony off my shoulders.

People talk very much & very strongly indeed, of a Peace to Day, they ever go so far as to say that it is come over designed, but God knows whether there is any truth in it or not, for one Day we talk of Peace & general of War. I have been here received a letter from New York concerning William with exceeding good accounts, he is out upon a Cruise under Lord Howe, having entirely left Dixby, indeed I can not express to you ye satisfaction I have received lately concerning him, in ye accounts I received of him from Elphinstone who was his Captain in the Warwick all last Summer, he says there can not be a more Gallant or a better Officer than our dear William is already & promises to be, that nothing can equal his steadiness, or the knowledge he has already acquired, wh is quite incredible, in short y^t. he is now a remarkable good Officer, & in all probability will be one of the best in the whole Navy. I think my dearest you, as well as Jubets. ill pro

Book. about
Army.
I will you many you to Queen's
Jan. 17
P. J.
Let
manne
My be or rat.

AA
43557 dearest Frederick of this amount can not fail of pleasing you, as I know ye. great affection you have for him as well as me. You shall know the success of my Lottery Tickets in a Letter next week, but Journey being ill prevents my seeing him in order to examine his Books. Pardon me if I break off my Letter thus abruptly & conclude here for I am in the utmost hurry, you shall hear again for certain next week.

I will therefore now close my Pipe with wishing ^{you} many & many happy New Years, & with desiring you to believe me My dearest Frederick,

Queen's House.

Jan. 17. 1783.

P.S.

ever most affectionately

Yours

George B.

Let Mr Smith desires to be remembered in the kindest manner possible to you & hopes you have not forgotten.
My best Compliments & those of the season await Joan or rather on Joan — Adieu, quelle Joinee Demain.

Success House Jan. 14. 83

My Prince of Wales

Jan. 14. 1903

Sir

Permit me to return Your Majesty my most humble thanks for Your Very gracious Letter which I received by the Courier, the kindness and affection which Your Majesty is pleased to express towards me upon every occasion is my greatest happiness, and it shall ever be my first care to do every thing in my power to deserve them. The Duke of Devonshire wrote me word at the beginning of last week that the Prince reflects of Schuering intended to be at Brunswick on the 27th who see I therefore went there on the 25th. But to our the last great surprise not two hours before our arrival The Duke received another Letter from them that we to say that as they intended to be back at Lüneburg and crop Lüneburg on the 1st of February, and that the Elbe was so much ^{swollen} ~~swollen~~ that it was very uncertain whether to subse they should be able to pass at Döhmitz they had to be were very sorry they could not come, I however promised have taken care to send to them the two Letters was out as well as the small Packet which Your Majesty had entrusted to my care. I staid at Brunswick till Yesterday, and was not sufficiently prepared for Your Majesty how very friendly the Duke of Brunswick was towards me, there was nothing formal, ^{in his behaviour} but he put himself quite in the light of a friend & gave me a great deal of good advice which I shall do my utmost to follow. The Duke was in very high spirits, and desired his very best Prince respects to Your Majesty. I also saw Duke Ferdinand who seems in better health and spirit than he was the last time I saw him.

We found the roads terrible, so much so that we were often obliged to quit the common road and cross the fields.

Permit me, Sir, before I close my letter to submit your Majesty to give my duty to the Duke and to excuse me to Her for not having wrote as I had promised but being returned late from Brunswick it was out of my power, and to believe me, Sir
 Your Majesty

most Obedient Son
 and Subject

Hannover January 31 1703

Frederick

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on lined paper]

Princess Patricia
January 31. 1903

43560 -1

Dear Brother

Though I have not much to tell you yet as Lord John Russell who, is returning to England has undertaken the conveyance of a letter to you, I can not let him set out without writing a few lines to you to thank you for your very kind and affectionate letter, which I received last Monday You are totally mistaken about the Princess whom I recommended to you as a Wife, I have enquired about the Doce, which You have of them being madnes in the family, and find it totally groundless. In the Family of ^{the} Hep, there heere is the least suspicion ever, of such a disorder, She is by all accounts beautiful and wonderfully accomplished I have ^{now} been at Brunswick last week for few days, and pass my time very agreeably. ~~She~~ As We are now very well known there, there is much less Ceremony so that there is no great gear We had a great Masquerade there where there was above twelve hundred masks I suppose that Hunting goes on as usual were a Week. I shall have quite a leg of mutton it is so long since I have heard the Paroquet of a Wound. In short I shall be quite wholly out of my element when I return after having lived so long to very great a degree. I must be you will order that the best Services which are seen waister which

 which complem me De

 Hamner
 P.S.
 Camp
 Hurry

A

are sent over for my Grooms ^{to be made} with white cloth waistcoats and Breeches instead of green ones which I think will look infinitely better, besides which the green fades so horribly. Give my best compliments to Mrs. ~~Amelia~~ in England, and believe me Dear Brother ever

Yours most affectionately

Manchester February 4, 1783

Frederick

P.S. My Best love to Lady, from which I excuse this scrawl it is written in a hasty Hurry, ever more Adieu

43561

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

July 4. 1703

10000

Sir

Permit me to return Your Majesty my most humble thanks for your very gracious letter as well as for your goodness in consenting to the beginning the arrangements at Gnabrouk. I have informed the Grand Marshal of it, who has indeed given himself a great deal of trouble about it that every thing may be done in a proper manner

And at the same time with as little expence as possible. Nothing could make me more happy than the gracious manner with which Your Majesty was pleas'd to express Your approbation of the plea which was sent over, and it shall ever be my greatest care, to deserve the Honour and respect, which Your Majesty upon all occasions shew towards me.

The Winter has quite left us but every body is afraid that it will return again, which will do a great deal of harm to the Country where every thing is coming forward very fast. Prince Charles's son is at present a little better, but the Physicians declare, ^{that} it will take some time before he 43563 is thoroughly recovered, One very extraordinary thing is that the Child never will permit them to feel His pulse, so that it is very difficult for them to judge how He is.

I am afraid I have already too long trespass'd upon Your Majesty's patience I shall therefore only entreat Your Majesty to give my duty to the Queen and sign myself Sir

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful son
and subject

Frederick

Hannover Feb^r 14 1783

48783

J. Frederick
London Feb. 14. 1783.

43564-5

Sir

Though I have nothing particular to acquaint Your Majesty with yet I can not let the Courier set off without doing myself the Honor of writing to Your Majesty, Monsieur @ Ahrenswald, came here a few days ago from Ghrabruck in order to enquire about the necessary repairs of the Castle, such as Windows.

Doors belongs &c I told him that Your Majesty had consented to an Architect being sent to visit the Palace and to see what repairs of that sort would be necessary. He is to arrive at the beginning of March so that I hope I shall be very soon able to send Your Majesty his reports.

I have finished with Captain Hogreaves my course of Study, but I have begged them to read over again with me both sorts of fortification as well as the Attack and defence of Places. Last Sunday General Rieder received the news of General Goldacker's Death, This has filled poor Pauline with Hopes, and indeed he bears

43565

So general interest

before the Duke

Mannor

43565 so general a good character that every body appears interested for Him.

May I entreat Your Majesty before I close my Letter, to give my Duty to the Queen and to believe Sir,

Your Majesty's

most dutiful Son
and Subject

Hannover Feb. 20 1783

Frederick

1880

J. G. Fordwick
Hanover Feb. 28. 1880.

[Faint handwritten scribble]

His Royal Highness
Prince Frederick

Hanover. — 24. March 1783.

43566

Sir

I am exceedingly sorry
I am obliged to write to Your Majesty, to entreat You to break to the Queen the Melancholy news of the Death of Prince Charles' second son, this Misfortune will renew His grief, which appeared but just subsided, on account of His recent loss of the Prince, It is however a happiness, that this Poor Child is at last released from its Sufferings which have lasted near three months, without even a Hope of its recovery, I enclose to Your Majesty two Letters from Prince Bernhard, one to Yourself and one to the Queen,

Permit Me Sir at the same time to make my humble thanks to Your Majesty for her Letter answered Your Very gracious Letter but as we have expected Generall Fowcetts departure from hence for some time I chose rather to send my Letter by Him, than by the last Courier

May I entreat Your Majesty to give my Duty to the Queen and to believe Sir
Your Majesty's

Most Dutiful Son
and Subject

Hannover March 26 1783

Frederick

Sir

I can not let the courier set off, without returning Your Majesty my most humble thanks for the favor, You have been graciously pleased to confer on Captain de Louvillier appointing him to the vacant company in the Guards He is a very deserving and agreeable young Man, and I am exceedingly happy, Yours

Majesty has allowed them to continue still with me.

Prince Ferdinand has been so good as to make me a visit here, He arrived last Wednesday, and means to return to Boulogne Tomorrow I find Him grown considerably fatter, and His legs are very much swelled otherwise He appears in very good Health.

I am exceedingly sorry to find by the last Letters from England that Your Majesty appeared surpris'd at My not having writ by the Couriers but as before this Arrives General Fauvel will be returned He will be help able to explain the reason of My Silence as I have waited daily for his departure

43568

May

Close
Lucas, a

Annou

43568

May I entreat Your Majesty, before I close my Letter to give My Duty to the Luce, and to believe Me, Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
And Subject

At Annou April 11 1723

Frederick

48588

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]

*St. Andrew
Monmouth April 11. 1783.*

Sir

Permit me to return

Your Majesty my most humble thanks for your gracious Letter which I received by General Freitag as well as for the permission which you have been pleased to grant for my visiting the Camps in Bohemia and Hungary. Gravelle has already wrote according to Your Majesty's orders to Sir Robert Smith from whose Answer

4352 We shall be able to settle our Journey to that part of Germany I hope Your Majesty will not be displeas'd at our having deviated from the orders You gave us to visit the Count of Schwern and Strelitz after having been present at the reviews at Berlin but as the Camp at Magdebourg is only three days after the one at Berlin, and as it is composed of almost the same regiments in the service besides the Manoeuvring Troops and being much more considerable than those at Berlin at Potsdam We thought Your Majesty would have no objection at Berlin if We see this Camp also. It being so near Your Majesty's Birthday and being already above half our road back to Hanover We mean to return in order to celebrate that day here after which We shall wait for Your orders to proceed on our Journey to Strelitz and Schwern 4353

I have seen thing of to ask her a copy of
Your Majesty
for Potsdam
the 15th in the thing Troops and at Potsdam at Berlin at Magde expect to an exam
has gone
how much

43570

I have received a very gracious answer from the King of Prussia to the letter which I wrote to Him to ask his Permission to be present at the reviews into a copy of which I have the Honor to enclose to your Majesty We mean to set out from hence for Potsdam on the 13th when we shall arrive on the 15th in the evening We shall be presented to the King the next Morning and shall see the several Troops march into camp in the evening, they manoeuvre at Potsdam the 17, the 18, and the 19, the reviews begin at Berlin the 20, 21, and 22, and those near Magdebourg the 24, 25, and 26 so that we have expect to be back on the 29.

There has been within these few days an examination at the Soldiers School, which has gone off exceedingly well it is quite surprising how much the young men have learnt in the short space of time since it has been erected,

Permit Me Sir, to entreat Your Majesty to give My Duty to the Queen and to make her a thousand thanks ^{from the} for not having yet ^{received} Your last Letter, which has really not been in My power as I have been employed for these last three or four Days in being a good many Superintendant with General Freytag, I have the Honour to be
Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
And Subject

Hannover May 9 1703 Frederick

From Bremen
May 9. 1703

43571 - 2

Dear Brother

I can not tell you on a long journey without first of all taking leave of you, and at the same time putting you in mind that there is such a perfect being as he, which really appears to have completely long at least if I am to judge of you which has been for the last ten months indeed it is a little hard, ^{during} a long time not to receive a single line from you. I shall set out tomorrow for Berlin when I shall see the reviews, I shall not be long away as I intend to be back for Mrs. Neff's Birthday. I saw yesterday evening, a concert given by two French Horns nothing can be conceived finer than their tone, before which they have wonderful execution, they mean go to London in about four months, they are if I am not much mistaken in the service of the Duke de Rohan, Pray let me recommend them to your protection I am certain you never heard any thing equal to them.

As I have not time and I do not think you deserve a longer letter, I shall only 43572

respect

I am

Anne

AA
43572 respect to You, My Dear Brother that I am and ever shall be

Your most affectionate

Hannover May 12 1783

Frederick

48215

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

May 12th 1703

AA

Success House May 27. 83

May 27. 1703

The Prince of Wales

43573 - 4

My dearest Brother,

I have just received yr kind Letter for wh. I am very much obliged to you & shall not begin by apologizing for my fault but confesse it stoutly & unrepentant for mercy. But to tell you the truth I have had a great many things upon my mind of late, pleasant ones mixed with unpleasant ones, but do not think of whatever kind or sort they may be, they could any of them even for an instant make me forget my duty

Friend & Brother, I am in great hopes, but I tell you this as a thing I do not wish generally to be spoken of, y^t. I shall soon be in a situation by an Establishment being found for me such a one as I ought to have, to receive you with open arms, & in a manner y^t. I shall be able to testify to the World ye affection I have hitherto always borne you, & wh. I shall contently cherish thro' out life.

The Pawn is at present much entertain'd by ye arrival of ye Duke of Chartres & a large party of French both ^{men} & women, who thank God are going way next week, y^t. is today all ye Gentlemen & Ladies except ye Duc de Chartres & two Gentlemen y^t. are attending upon him, Monsieur de Comflans, a man y^t. dis-tinguis

 the fig.
 a great indeed to be but th at all is rat
 Bear are ne
 May r were y but s & Pe their tired

A Success House May 27th 83

May 27 1783

The Prince of Wales

43574 but distinguish'd himself very much last War with the light Troop, & is an exceedingly sensible agreeable well bred Man, & M^r. de Sige^{name} indeed all the French M^rs. are here seem to be exceedingly pleasant, civil, polite people but the Duc de Chartres tho' he does not at all want for sense, on the contrary is rather clever, but I think he is a great Beast, in short I can not bear him, we are very civil to one another but M^rs. is all My reason for saying I was glad M^rs. French were going is not because I disliked you. but because we have had so many parties & Petes & assemblies & suppers upon M^rs. their account, M^rs. every body is grown quite tired of you.

I can not conclude my Letter to you my dearest Frederick, without condoling with you for the loss of our poor dear little Brother, had you known what a sweet Child he was you would have felt his death as severely as I did & indeed for y^t. reason I am glad you did not know him, but setting aside his loss, I can not express to you what I felt for our poor dear Mother, who is now I believe within about six weeks of her laying in, & I am happy to tell you y^t. she is in perfect health & seems to have got up her spirits most astonishingly, infinitely beyond what any body w^d. have expected especially in so short a time.

I have sent you two fairs, I hope you will like y^m. I understand from 43575

I am sorry you wanted you to go by ye.
 Messengers. I can not say I quite approve of them myself but they were ye. best I wd. get made in so great a hurry, however I will take care you shall have two letters by ye. next Messenger, for I will be speak you directly.

Adieu my dearest Frederick you may really depend upon hearing from me soon again, wd. to Heaven I wd. see you as soon as this letter will reach yr. hands, vous savez bien que ce n'est pas manque de volonté mais de moyens. If you have any other commissions pray send you to bed I will excite you to ye. best of my poor endeavours, pray think of seeing old Douglas shows again as soon as possible, believe me no one is more impatient my dearest Frederick for y^r. long wished for & long expected moment of y^r. arrival here, than he who always has been, & ever will be,

Queen's House.
May 27th.
1783.

Y^r. most affectionate

George C

P.S.

I forget to tell you y^t. I have been fortunate enough to have it in my power to do a piece of service to a very old friend of ours I mean Dr. Jackson, by getting him thro' my interest re. Secenary of Christ Church, he desires to be remembered to you in y^e. warmest manner, as one of the oldest of y^r. Friends & servants. Pray remember me in y^e. kindest manner to my old friend Joan.