

Enclosure to 94361

4364

St James's March 14th 1770

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, some of the Aldermen, the Sheriffs & many of the Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Rt. Honourable the Earl of Hertford) with the following Address, Remonstrance & Petition which was read by Sir James Hodges Town Clerk

To which Address Remonstrance &c. His Majesty was pleased to return the following Answer

July 15th 1775.

This Day the Rt. Honourable the Lord Mayor, some of the Aldermen, the Sheriffs, & Commons of the City of London &c. — introduced &c. by the Lord Chamberlain

To which Address, Remonstrance &c.

