

43997.8

Paris September 5 1791

Dearest Brother

I take the opportunity of a Messenger <sup>to Paris</sup> setting off for England to answer fully Your Letter which I only received last week. With regard to the Jewell, I have taken the Spence and a pair of ear rings which I think are very handsome and have chosen some designs for the Necklace & ear rings, but have deferred them totally to You as You are in every respect a much better Judge than myself, and besides You will be able to know whether the King has already given any orders about the Diamond or not, I think it will be impossible for me to go to a less expense than between fifteen and twenty thousand Pounds for the Diamonds as I remember that those of the Dutchess of Devonshire cost ten thousand and do not make a great show, but however all this I leave to You.

As for our affairs You will, long before this reaches You, have received the money which Leston carried over for You, I think he has managed the affair perfectly well, and indeed with a success which I had no idea of. This ought to stop up some Gaps, and make things run on easier at least for some time: but however unless very soon followed up with a much stronger reinforcement, <sup>the</sup> shall soon be in the same bad State again, as the great object <sup>is not to</sup> to get a sufficient sum of money at one time to be able to arrange all our affairs at once. With regard to here, I confess I am under an awkwardness how to make any application at least at present, particularly as, if you remember two Years ago, we tried the ground a little, and it did not succeed. As for Capel, I think we ought attempt the Grand door there, but at the same time I never can consent to your making any promise to agree hereafter to any exchange of territory, for every reason it would be exceedingly wrong, and exceedingly embarrassing to yourself, should the Landgrave press very hard for it. You might very well answer them in general terms, that it was totally out of your power at this time to give any positive answer upon that Subject, not being sufficiently informed about it, but that your friendship for them was such, that you should at all times be anxious to do any thing which would give them pleasure, consistently with what

 I am exc
 I succeed
 it is dete
 and bes
 As it is my affa was we
 and the inform therefor done abo persuad sake of it at le tired of remem
 It I am
 keep it up about what as yet come

43998

what You owe to Yourself and to Your Situation. As for my own affairs I am exceedingly anxious for to receive the King's consent to the Bill being passed at the end of this month, <sup>full of all business</sup> and ~~therefore~~ I think that when one it is determined upon that one is to leave the sooner it is done the better and besides I want exceedingly to get it over, in order to return to England as it is totally impossible, as long as I am absent that I can settle my affairs, because when I left England, as You know very well I was with the idea of serving a Campaign and returning in the Autumn and therefore I postponed every thing till my return, nor did I indeed inform any body fully of the exact state of my affairs, I would therefore be impossible by letter to settle any thing;

I am very desirous to hear what You have done about attorney for me, I shall hope You will succeed in persuading Melbourne to let me have the House, if any rate of my House was finished we could make shift with it at least at first.

Dear My Dearest Brother I will be tired of this long letter by the time You get thus far remember me to all friends and believe me ever as I am rejoiced that the King & You are so well together Pray Yours most affectionately keep it up, for every reason in the World it is most desirable. I have been thinking about what You mentioned to me in a former letter about our eldest sister and as Mr. Frederick as yet come to any determination what to propose, tell me however that the trust will be put back to England and that

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
Sept. 5. 1791

Duke of York
September 9. 1791

43999

Berlin September 9 1791

Sir

Your Honour's Majesty's very gracious letter of the 2<sup>d</sup> has been delivered to me and I want needs to express to You, Sir, the joy I feel at Your Goodness in consenting to my ardent wish not to postpone my marriage till after the meeting of Parliament, I know Your Majesty does not like fine speeches, I shall therefore only assure Your Majesty that it shall ever be my first care to act in such a manner as not to show myself unworthy of that affection and goodness which Your Majesty has never failed to show me upon every occasion, The 29th of this month is the day which the King of Prussia had fixed upon for my wedding, should Your Majesty give Your Consent to it not being delayed, as therefore Your Majesty has been so gracious

A Bill of Commemoration celebrated on that day.

I will not stoppage longer upon Your Majesty's Business but repeating every wish for Your Majesty's Health and Happiness, and my most sincere and humble thanks for all the paternal Kindness You have ever shown towards me I shall conclude by signing myself, Sir

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful son
and Subject

Frederick

[9. 1791]

44000-1

The Duke of York understood from the commencement of the present business that the terms agreed on by Amisell & Mr. Pitt near three years ago were that the Grant was to be made out (without any term being specified) to His Royal Highness & that a tenth part was to be reserved of the net profits to the King. In the course of the correspondence that ensued between His Royal Highness & Mr. Pitt on this subject, these were always the terms refer'd to, & seem'd always to be understood & never contradicted.

The Patent that has been since prepar'd was the first notice His Royal Highness had of the complete violation of the original Contract.

His Royal Highness understanding that the original agreement is subject to some legal objections, which He is very ready to concede, ~~in~~ order to have it fram'd more consonant to the Chancellors opinion.

~~The first objection he understand to be made is the grants being made in fee, which the Duke is very ready to accept of for ~~99~~ <sup>a given term of</sup> years instead, but wishes to have the original terms of the reservation comply'd with, without which <sup>the grant</sup> ~~it~~ would become only a great & expensive risk, with a probable advantage; & by the restrictions in the patent the Duke is prevented from receiving any aid or assistance~~

49
from contract of all
Duke
W wish to co just in a intere mak with the offer'd
w able

[9. 1791]

44001 tract.

anding
is subject rich the order to

~~from any monied people by the prohibition contained in the act of every sort of alienation of the grant made to the Duke.~~

at to the destand ing <sup>given</sup> made y ready ad, but terms
th, without a great ble
s in nted sance

Under these circumstances the Duke wishes the Chancellor to be so good as to consider what is reasonable and just to grant, & what to withhold, in order to fulfill the <sup>most</sup> gracious intention of His Royal Mother, without making him subject to the fatal risks that might accrue to him, from the present manner in which it is offer'd.

Whenever the Chancellor has been able to consider the subject, the Duke of York will be happy to see him to receive his opinion & advice thereon.

~~The heads of the present Objections <sup>to the present</sup> on the Duke's part are, that the grant term does not keep uniform proportion to the profits, & that it is on the gross produce, before the expences of working is paid, by which means the Duke might be in a condition of paying away the profits.~~

The Duke of York herewith returns the material points, on which his objections are founded to the present instrument, as proposing <sup>that</sup> he hopes may be reasonably repealed in some future one

H. R. H. The Duke of York.

Mines in Nova Scotia

44002

The Duke of York's proposals are, that the quantum of money <sup>the produce of the</sup> to be reserved for the Crown should be the same whether the produce of the mine, be more or less, (2) that there should be a sufficient term granted, (3) that there may be a right of transfer, not only in himself, but in those who may derive a title from him.

F

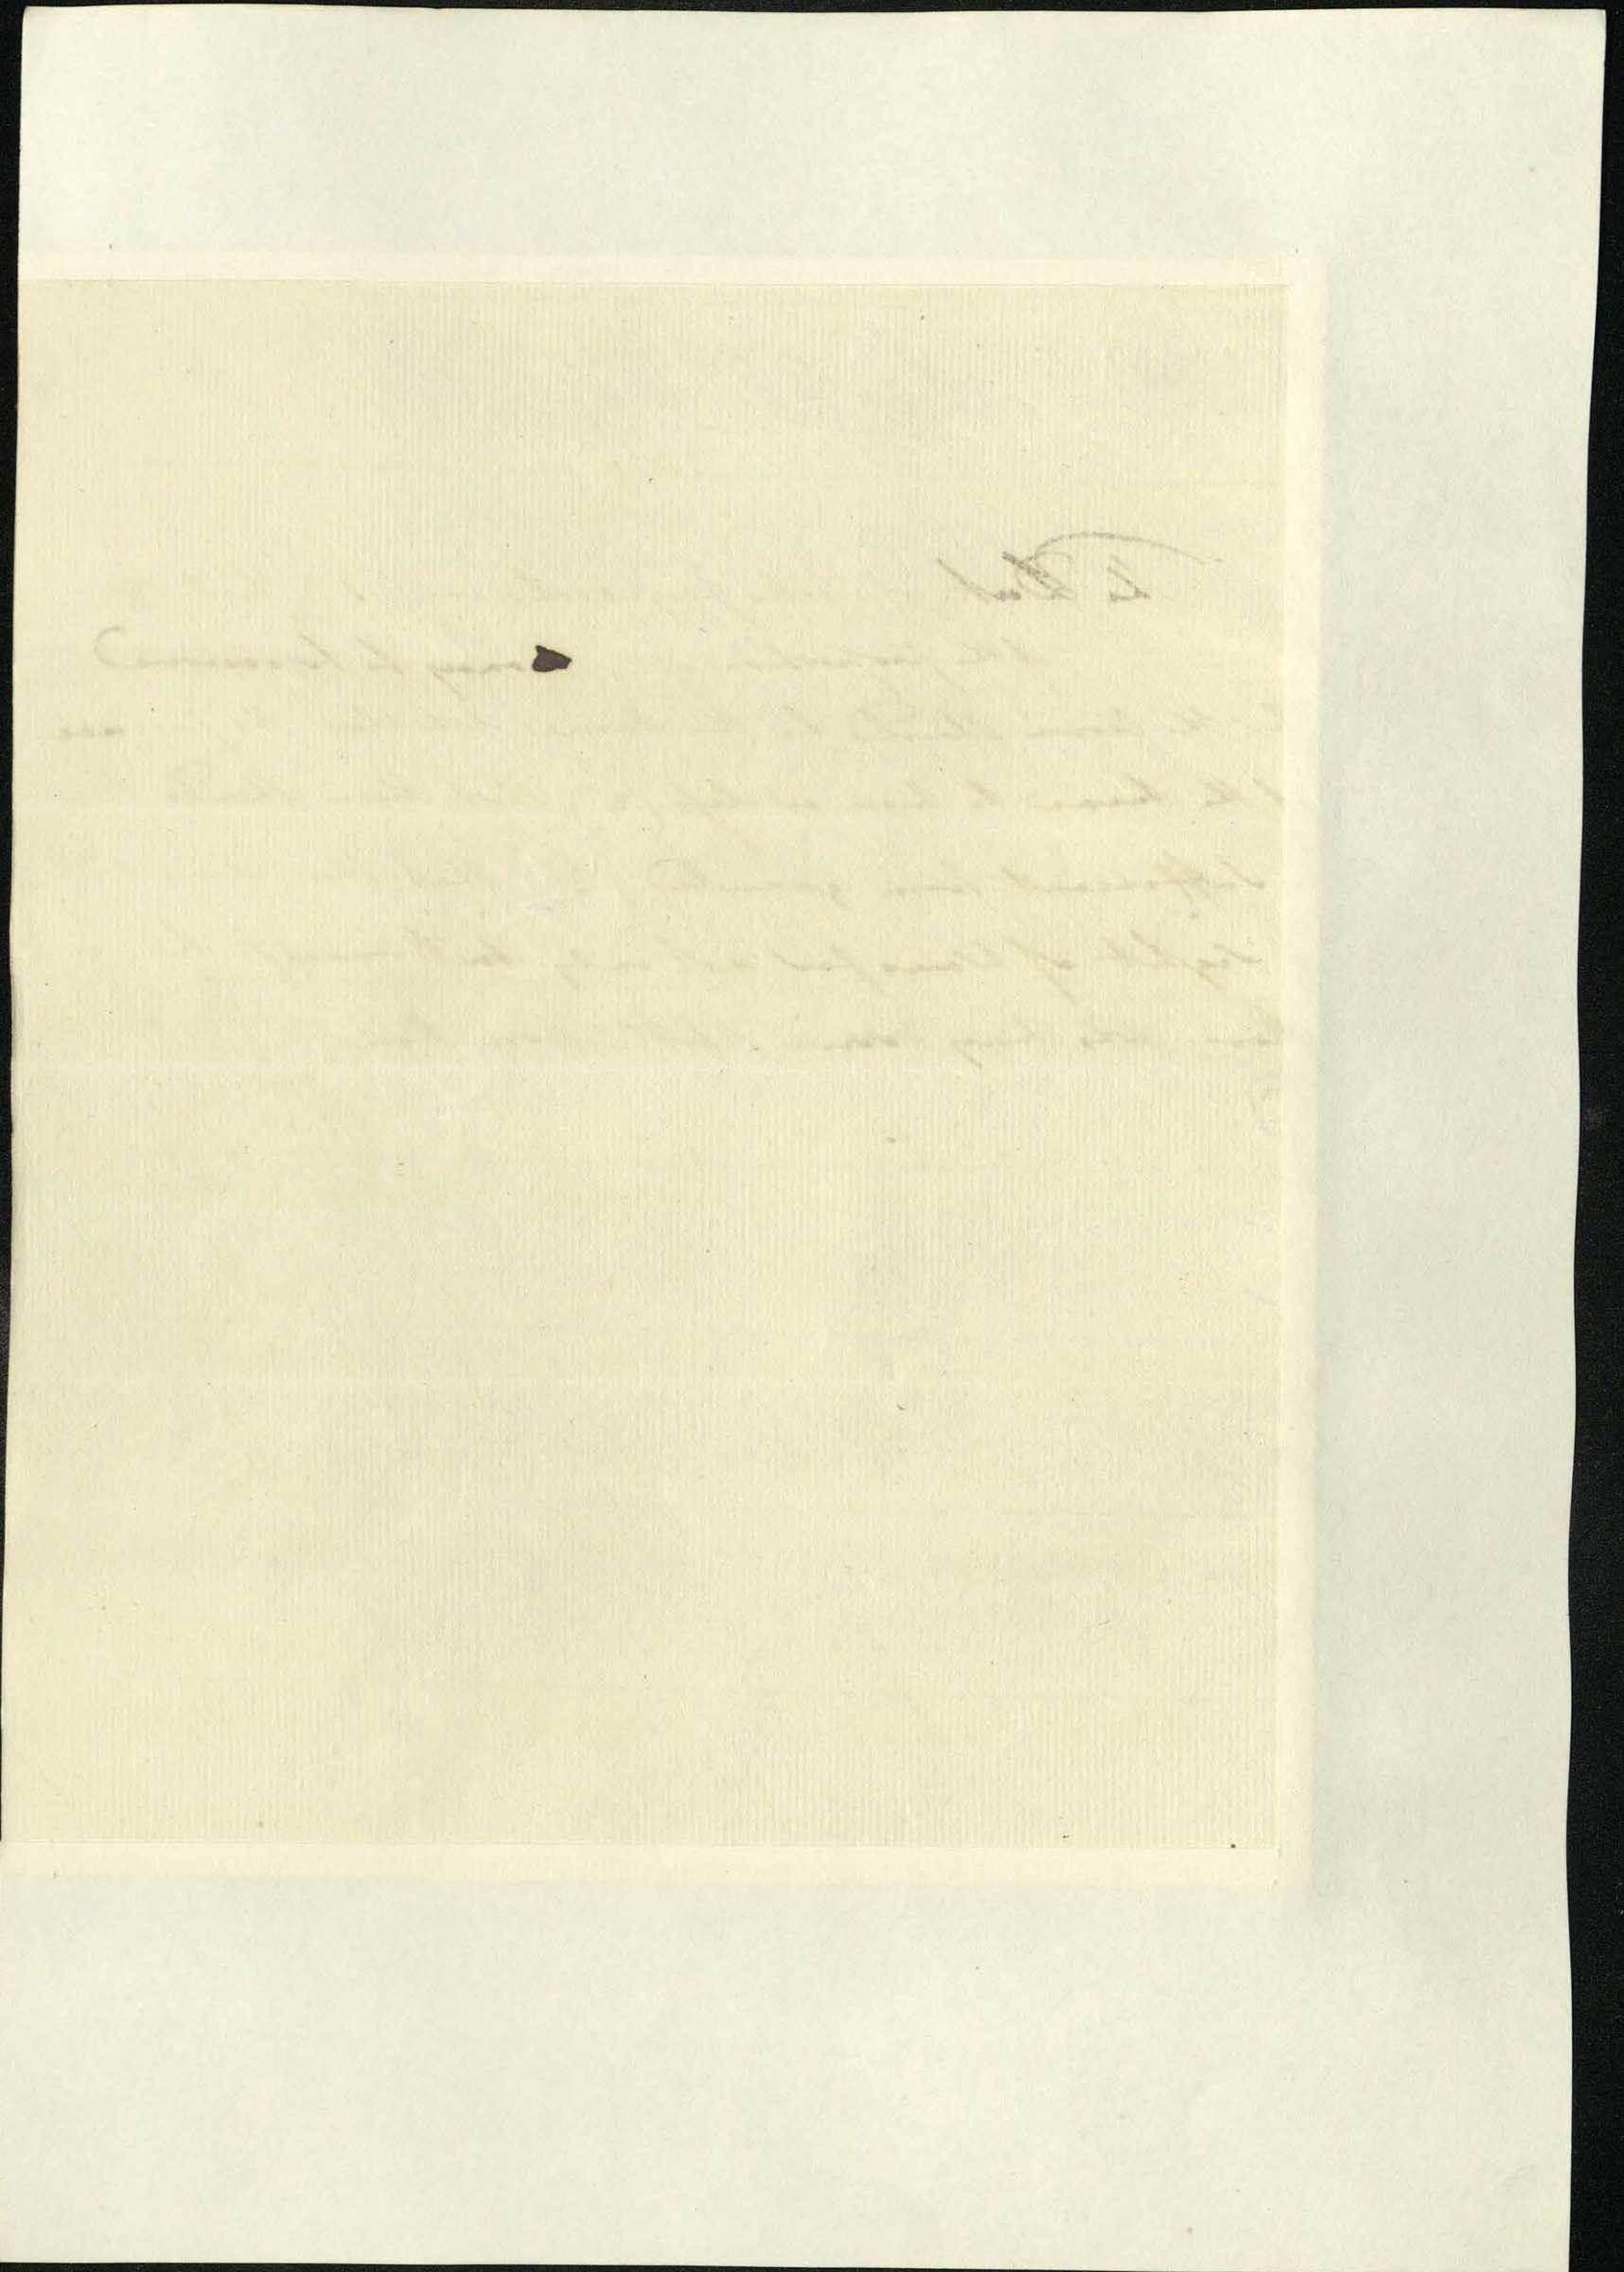

1800

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

44003

The Duke of Yorks proposals are, (1) that the Quantum of the proportion of the Money to be reserved for the Crown should be the same whether the produce of the Mine be taken in life (2) that there should be a sufficient Term granted (3) that there may be a right of Warrant not only to Himself, but in those who may derive a title from Him;

J

44004-5

10 Sept 1494

Dearest Brother

I take the opportunity of a Messengers sitting off for England this morning, to acquaint You, that I received Yesterday the Kings gracious consent to my Marriage being celebrated immediately, and not postponed till after the meeting of Parliament, as it was at first intended I am therefore to be married the 29th. I am for every reason rejoiced at it, among the rest because I am very desirous to get back to England, as I can not otherwise settle my Affairs, I am to receive twenty five thousand pound a year additional, which I think I can make theft to his use. No conditions have been proposed to me, which I confess, is much handsomer than I expected, though I should most undoubtedly not have consented to any.

I find by a letter from Sauroste that the Lemages are not <sup>Pray hurry them on</sup> to set off till near the twentieth. We knew they arriv'd <sup>Wholeness</sup> the better. As for the saddle horses I had wrote for of <sup>two</sup> they are not as yet set out, as the season is so far <sup>advanced</sup> advanced and ~~that~~ I hear to be back in England by <sup>of</sup> the middle of November. I wish you would stop their <sup>to</sup> coming, I am anxiously waiting for some account <sup>of</sup> the house. Should you not succeed in getting another <sup>will</sup> for me, pray order Holland to get up my present <sup>size</sup> house, so that we can lodge in it. We shall not be able <sup>to</sup> I am afraid to leave this place before the 18th of October <sup>coming</sup> as the Prince of Orange's marriage, and the fete given <sup>the</sup> in consequence of the two weddings. Will not be over <sup>to</sup> sooner. As we must stop a few days on the way at <sup>the</sup> Munsrecht, Mersoven & Bruchel, and maybe at <sup>some</sup> the Hague, I am afraid we shall not be able to return <sup>not</sup> at home before the 18th of November. I have had a young <sup>swallow</sup> <sup>which</sup>

44005

... are well & have ~~very~~ <sup>very</sup> strongly recommended to me as fit persons for the Office they arrived at the first of the month of August at Paris and at present for of course with the Comte de Berni, Having received as yet no is so far account from you of any in I have sent for them, and therefore led by of you have not got one, I ~~hope~~ <sup>trust</sup> to be able to to stop their to look out for another, at least till we have used this account of the many thanks for the news, which on every French Adminisand the House will you be so good as to tell Taylor that the least present size of the list, and that he may put up the Purchase of half some as soon as he likes. I have executed all your 18th of October Commissions about the Acquittances and Counting of the goods of Curriers, as for the horses you wish to have he to buy for you I have as yet seen none to my liking.
 The Messenger has been so long delayed that you will have also received two letters from me at a time. I therefore will not add more at present except to assure you how I am
 Dear young Sincerely I am ever Dear Brother Yours most Affectionately
 Frederick
 Berlin Sept 10 1791

Mr Duke of York
to
Mr Prince of Wales
Sept. 10. 1791

Duke of York
September 16 1791

44006

Berlin September 18 1791

Sir

I take the opportunity of the Messenger returning to England to acquaint Your Majesty, that I received yesterday a message from His Prussian Majesty, to acquaint me that as there were so many foreign Princes who were to be present at the two Weddings and at the fetes which are to be given in consequence, and who must have the Equipage &c. belonging to the Court, it was impossible for His Majesties Stables to furnish everyone, and that therefore He wished that I would send to Hannover for two of Your Majesty's Coaches and sets of Horses, to attend the Prince and me during the fetes here, as it would be impossible to ask Your Majesty's orders upon these subjects in time, as they must be here before the 29th. I trust Your Majesty will not be displeas'd with my having writt'n directly to the Ministry at Hanover, as well as to General Walmodee and Monsieur de Buzfe, to acquaint them with the circumstances, and to desire that they would forthwith dispel the Carriages and Lances according to the desire of His Imperial Majesty.

Having done myself the honor of writing last week to Your Majesty, I will not trouble longer upon Your Majesty's business at present, I shall therefore entreat You, Sir, to present my duty to the Queen, and sign myself Sir.

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful Son
and Subject

Frederick

Brighton - 25th Sept 1791
The Prince of Wales

AA

44007.8

My dearest Frederick,

Three Days ago, I received on the same Day the two last Letters you was so good as to write containing the amount of yr. being to be married on Michaelmas Day of wh. I give you most sincerely joy, as well as of the prospect of yr. return to this Country the 15th of November, wh. delights me more than I can possibly express. As there is so little time to make preparations for yr. arrival, I in consequence left London the next Morning to enter upon a negotiation respecting yr. Affairs. Accordingly I went to Melbourn, & opened the business to Sir John Mellinere, who both express'd their readiness to do any thing yt either you or I wd. wish, but said at the same time, yt they were far rather oppos'd. desire that in accommodating us, they shd. themselves be any how losers, tho they were not desirous of being gainers further than the satisfaction they shd. feel in doing <sup>what</sup> was pleasant or agreeable to us, besides wh. the same way by some means <sup>intend'd</sup> still, they did not wish to part with it, without they had Sen Lamb's entire consent. After being seriously consider'd both the Holland & finding yt you wd. have much more than wd. be imagin'd by selling yo. Some <sup>only</sup> sooner than by making a swap with either the Mellinere's or any one else, I propos'd to the Mellinere's to go with me the next morning & walk all over York House, Officers & way other part, in order if they might be perfectly acquainted with it & then judge for themselves. In that we visited every part of it, & they then desired Holland & me to come & walk over Melbourn House, wh. we did, & wh. is more spacious, more convenient & better than I ever thought, wh. I have known it all my life, or rather thought of. I knew it, but I confess it was <sup>very</sup> ~~was~~ surpris'd, & Holland & plus part, <sup>to say every</sup> ~~they in land,~~ he was delighted. We then convers'd about terms when Melbourn said that he was much pleas'd with John Stone & thought it quite big enough for him, but that there were ~~some~~ some inconveniences belonging <sup>to it</sup> wh. when remov'd upon any fair valuation he sh<sup>d</sup>. be very to exchequer. The principal objection is this.

 The Title of Melbourn House is a Feehold to perpetuity, John Stone is refused <sup>to</sup> ~~to~~

The Crown professedly gave up the Term of all Leases from the Crown are granted upon 100 considering in the first place of a Fine must be paid at the expiration of 100 Years by some of his family if the Lease was to be renewed, 100. then one was in all probability very much if not entirely at the mercy of the then King or the then King, he wd. not for the sake of his family think of entering upon terms of so disadvantageous to his family in the present instance, <sup>as he wd. wish to do</sup> ~~as he wd. wish to do~~ if you wd. make out a better title to the same. The next thing to consider was whether you wd. in any shape do 100, & there is no way wh. immediately would be the only way at once, & that is by getting a grant from the Crown, to wh. I assure you I shall give my 44009-10

hearty consent & sh. <sup>at liberty</sup> be necessary <sup>as the Survey</sup> ~~to~~ tell me) of yr. Honour & the ground belonging to it to you & yr. Honour for ever, you then wd. require upon even terms in point of Title, & I think yt. then they wd. be satisfied with a right to money to boot; the responsibility is going on in case any thing else may be found out may do as well, but if there is nothing further to be done, but by way of Grant from the King it must still till you arrive & make a proper application to the King, or if you wish me to do it, I will speak myself to the King about it. However be this as it may you lose nothing by the delay, as neither the Honour, or your own, by any means whatever wd. be patch'd up for you & the Duke's reception in November, or whether it be receiv'd still very late in the Spring or the middle of Summer at the soonest granting of all the money possible was made. As to Belbourn House, they if they keep it, must positively clean it up this year, as it is so dirty & rusty, & the furniture or even of it wd. be ridiculous of you to pretend to buy it, as they think it totally unfit to produce any longer. & as to yr. own House I fancy you forget of there is not even a ceiling or a Floor in the principal Hall, nor any part of the things ready or even begun, that before that is to dry, it must be many months; this I have has design'd me literally as I state it, to inform you ~~what~~ what was then to be done, as you have been so good as to trust it entirely to me, Warwick Lake, Holland, & my self, laid our studs together, & we have therefore determin'd to hire for a year, either St. James's or Lord Levins House for you, in order to give you the

you a then done
to How
of
I
you
you
of
the don re he
A
to
D

AA

44010

You will then be much confin'd for Room, shall have a Horse to put yo. Affairs in, when You arrive, & then You will give time & see what there is to be done & what arrangements are to be taken to yo. unsatisfaction, either respecting the House, or yo. own Affairs or any other You may think of. So. impossibilities have been done I think I sh<sup>d</sup>. have been able to have contriv'd this for You to yo. satisfaction, but all I can assure You of is, yt. it has not been going towards a speedy or perfect of. I have mismanag'd this undertaking, when I say mismanag'd dont mean that the business can not, or will not be done, ~~that~~ I am sure it can only be perfected in the manner I have told You & then it certainly can be done. With regard to a Hair Dresser & Groom of the Chamber for the Duchess, we had found before Sec<sup>r</sup> & goth made. As it, sup<sup>r</sup> it is so soon of.

 tend to be producing may You as a Floor of the thick that is this floor
 inform as You
 to me, said our determine or Lord might

I believe the completest fellow for the purpose of can be, a perfectly well behaved Man with good connections & acquaintances, an incomparable Women's Hair Dresser, having dress'd the of Devonshire & several other Women of Fashion for many Years, a very good creditable looking little Man, who talks English & French perfectly & I believe German, he married a few Years & his Wife keeps a Pension for young Ladies at Chaillot, I sent for him from Paris where he was gone, in order to talk over with him and he sh<sup>d</sup>. like the Dr's service, I have made no terms with him, not knowing what you might like to give him, he said he sh<sup>d</sup> be very happy to attend upon the Dr, & to take such Wages as you might think him worthy of, his name I believe is Jean Fran<sup>ois</sup> I know his Surname is Fran<sup>ois</sup>, have been 44011 acquainted with him for many Years & known him not only from myself but from numerous other quarters to be an exceeding steady well bred man, besides keeping his wit in perfection; if you sh<sup>d</sup>. disapprove of him wh<sup>o</sup>. I think I hope you will not, for I am certain you will not get such another any where, you have nothing to do but to pay his Journey back again either to France or England, & make him some little trifling present besides, but I hope the King & you will not think of sending him back without first trying him. As to the is going by any order to take care of Mr. Francis I send Francis with him as the least extravagant way of travelling as to Mr. Francis I have given the best orders I possibly can respecting them, & I hope every thing else of it.

You have entrusted to my care, you will find on yr. arrival every d to yr satisfaction.
I will see my dearest Brother settled in the best place I am certain you will long ago before you arrive at this part of my Letter, have been tired with reading this shorting scrawl, &c. I can only apologize for on the face of things, & in the next place as I myself am tired of writing, therefore bid my dearest Frederick with very compliments & expressions of regard to me & his beloved believe me,

Brighton. Yours affectionately
Sept. 25th.
1751. P.S.

Yours
George

25 Sept 1791

I will write in a Post or two & let you know what I have & have taken. I may remember all my own affairs. Let me be to the point.

Duke of York
September 30 1791

44012

Sir

I seize the first opportunity in my power to acquaint Your Majesty that Yesterday my Anniversary was celebrated, I want words to express to Your Majesty how happy I feel myself, and how very grateful I am for Your goodness in permitting the Anniversary to be now, instead of being delayed till after every arrangement had been taken in Parliament, I must be, Sir, so returned to Your Majesty's favor and affection Your new Daughter in Law, I am perfectly convinced when she has the happiness of being known to Your Majesty, that You will not <sup>be</sup> disappointed to attend that Good Opinion which You have been pleased to express of her. May I entreat Your Majesty to lay her and the Duke's share the success of, as the Ceremony we have shall to go through Without almost every instant of his day, I trust Your Majesty will render this sheet & written I am Sir

Your Majesty

I am most obliged for and subjects

Berlin September 20

1791

Friederich

44013

Dearest Brother

I have literally but a moments time to acquaint you that I was married the day before yesterday. The man I feel the happiness I now enjoy, the man I am sensible, of your kind and affectionate behaviour towards me upon this occasion, the Dutchess is highly delighted with the letter which you was so good as to write to her, as well as with the fans which are beautiful, and I mean to write to you by Anthony St. Leger. ~~My dear~~ I need not tell you what pleasure I received from your letter, but friend Lord Melmerby has been received by the King and the whole Court in the most distinguished manner and has been of infinite service to me in arranging every thing for me. I introduced him as you have already been according to your desire myself to the Dutchess, I am rejoiced to hear that your fall though a bad one has not been attended by any bad consequences. This evening

<sup>24</sup> is the Prince Wilhelms marriage with the Princess of Orange, but will therefore excuse this sheet as as I must drop, believe he was desired to do so

Yours most affectionately

Berlin October 1

1891

Friedrich

to
The Duke of York
The Prince of Wales

Oct. 1. 1891.

The Duke of York

AA

to
The Prince of Wales

Oct. 14. 1791

44015

Dearest Brother

I have but an instant before the messenger sets out to return You being thanks for Your very kind and affectionate Letter by the coach which arrived arrived last Wednesday morning, I am infinitely obliged to You for the trouble You have been so good as to give Yourself about Melbourn House and wait anxiously for the Letter You promise to write to me to acquaint me with the best arrangement You have taken concerning it, I am perfectly of Your opinion that it is better to have a house for this winter or at any rate settled. My own House or Melbourn House should the exchange take place, could be ready for our reception With regard therefore to the idea of asking the King to make my House a present, I had better not tell Mr. Ansell, I shall leave this place on Monday and shall travel as fast as I can by my power but as Mr. Ansell has some days at Brunswick, Hannover, and Osnabruck and as the roads are so bad that instead of taking the straight road to Halle I stayed to pass through Leipzig and Frankfurt, I am assured it will be the latter end of next month before I shall be able to return to England.

Every thing arrived safe and the carriage in excellent order. I have executed all those commissions as far as I was in my power and what will not be finished by the time I set off will be sent after me. Adieu I am as usual & thank I have not time to add here, Remember me to all friends and believe me ever most truly

Dear Sir Brother

Berlin October 14
1791

Yours most affectionately

Frederick

P.S. If you have an opportunity give my best respects to Lord and Lady Mollineux and thank them for my thanks for their kind reply in relation to the matter about which I hope you will be able to bring it to a good conclusion soon here Adieu I forgot to mention that I voluntarily had already enjoyed the other three drapes and could not therefore take Francis's I am exceedingly sorry for it, I have paid his journey and have given him New fifty Guineas

Duke of York

November 10. 1791

44016

Dover November 10 1791 11 o'clock

Sir

I am not at present to acquaint Your Majesty that we are this instant arrived, after having been detained four days at Calais by contrary winds, We sailed at three o'clock this morning, but the wind changing we were not able to disembark sooner, As the Dutchess has suffered most exceedingly from sea sickness, I will be out of our power to leave this place before tomorrow morning, and therefore we can not arrive in London till late in the afternoon.

Altho' I need not acquaint Your Majesty how anxious I am to pay my duty, and introduce the Dutchess to Her Majesty, and the Queen, As I hope to have that honor at latest the day after tomorrow, I will not be absent longer upon Your Majesty's business at present, and shall therefore entreat You Sir, to give my duty to the Queen and

Sept. 18th, 1814

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
and Subject

Frederick

AA

44017

Dearest Brother

The Major writes to you saying that "in his case to acquiesce in that they are just disembarked after having been detained ever since Monday morning at Calais by foul winds, as the Duke has suffered to hunt by sea sickness, he shall not be able to leave this place before tomorrow morning, and hence to be at York House to a late dinner, I need not tell you how anxious I am to see you, till then I am remembered by Mr. Williams and believe me ever,

Dearest Brother

Dover Nov 10 1799

[1799]

Yours most affectionately

Frederick

[Faint, mostly illegible cursive handwriting on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is written in a dense, flowing script typical of the 18th or 19th century.]

The Duke of York

To

The Prince of Wales

Nov. 10. 1796

1796

[Circular seal or stamp, mostly illegible]