

44054-5

From the papers of Mr. Hales - June

Dear Brother,

I shall trouble you with very few lines by Mr. Hales, having had a very very long conversation with him on a variety of subjects, & on one or two wh. I think must peculiarly interest us both, how far & how much I shall leave you to judge after you have heard him; news you can not expect from us, for that indeed we can only look to your side of the water, all I can say is, if we have this day receiv'd the amount of the Dutch ^{being} ^{been} surpris'd at Surinam, & to tell you the truth if it is likely not to be attended with any disagreeable consequences to the allied Army, I can not say I am very sorry for it, as I flatter myself it may at least convince those who commended ^{at our own} ~~at our own~~ ^{at our own} that they were not the best calculated in any respect or situation to have commended either at Fort, or the Battle or any part of it. Pray attend most carefully & attentively to what Crampden will explain to you, believe me so. I have found time to have tumbled you with it by letter, but have done it, tho' it were impossible to find a paper, & to write or better conveyance than our friend Charles Crampden, who I am delighted in finding has distinguished himself so much as to merit a paper of His Majesty's gracious goodness & protection, as well as of His Majesty's approbation. I shall add nothing more trouble service

 I hope
 Serk,
 - for sent
 W. G.
 but sent
 I hope
 part coming

more at present, except that I find you some few trifles by Campanus, wh^{ch} I conceive may be superfluous service in enquiring, of Doctors with one Suggess th.
 I suppose was what you meant, when you said one Serke, see impossible to get finished under a fortnight or three weeks, I therefore have sent you a Box of the best I had made by Weyden, wh^{ch} I suppose will have two Suggess notes I thought it probable you might be in want of such pie arms, I sent you the best I suppose I had. I don't think such as you usually particularly wish'd to have; as to any other commissions you have to execute in this Country,

21 June
1793

Believe me there is no one who can or will devote more of his time, or endeavour to execute them with more alacrity or attention than I shall, tho' I am certain it is possible to employ those who may do it with more ability. I am very sorry you did not employ me to buy the Annes, as I think with the sum you gave I have paid the Annes there are in London I might have purchased for quite as good as you will receive. Had I done so I rather shall not let any one else purchase them & I am very desirous to see them & to my two yellows & others; & I trust to go before Christmas. I am
Dear Sir,
Yours truly
George B.

June 21
1793

AA

From H. H. The Prince of Wales
Aug: 13 - 1793

44056-7

[of date on letter]

My dearest Father,

I can not delay one single moment acknowledging the receipt of yr. very kind letter as well as congratulating You not only for the very essential advantages wh. the war in general must reap by the taking of Valenciennes, but likewise in the very brilliant manner in wh. it was carried, & wh. ever must do You the highest credit & honor, & give the most perfect satisfaction to all who love You as sincerely as I do. I have been writing this long time in hopes of receiving a letter from you, respecting the conversation I had with Campden, & wh. I desired him to communicate to you on his arrival, since that, tho' I had a few lines from you, in wh. you took no notice of what had pass'd between you & him, except saying y^t. you had not the time to write about business but y^t. you sd. almost immediately. I can easily conceive how much you must be ^{be}worry'd that it is with difficulty you can get an instant to write to any one, but as it is ^{an} important I have much at heart, & concerning wh. I have not time to answer & writing to you wh. I ought

General to command it. Kennedy our old friend will have the pleasure of delivering this to you it will in all probability be in your power my dearest Frederick. to be of the most useful service to him wh. I am certain will give you the greatest satisfaction. I beg you will be kind to let him wh. he can do very briefly the particular hardships of his case, & how far the Letters wh. pass'd on the occasion, I do not enter into the subject myself as I do not wish to detain you, & as there is nothing but facts to be stated & related, wh. you are to hear of from him; I think therefore it needless to say any thing further about him, as I know of your good disposition towards him, & your inclination was to do what is agreeable to me. One word more & I will not plague you any longer with my servant Garton has been with proposals to me, wh. he is going a long drive to Palermo to explain to you, Mr. In think it an eligible scheme, expedite him immediately, I think a full yr. it will be of very material advantage to me, & I think as much for the can it be executed, but I doubt his success, he was to have had a letter from me to you as I am writing so long an Epistle I do not think it with which your former judgement to trouble you again, or take up more of your time than is necessary. As to news you can not expect that from us, we must look forward to you, and of the Water for that, tho' indeed I think we ought to be satisfied for the present. I am sill not troubled any further upon you, but rather with what is so revealing to you & that is my dearest Frederick by informing you of the continuation of that never alterable affection wh. I have ever felt you thro' life,

44058

Believe me
Dear Madam
I am ever affectionate
George B.
I am very glad to hear of your little of this being much better. As to William I am so much in his debt, he is much beloved by me & I have done every thing possible to remedy the things that I hope I have not done

44059-60

Dear Mr. Baister,

No words can express how much I feel for you on the present occasion, believe me you can not feel more than I do. ~~What~~ rest assured my dear friend Frederick that from what I this day have gathered from most of the individuals of the cabinet, it is the through intention of most of them to give you every support possible. With respect to myself I can only say that I hope you know me too well to doubt either my affection or my firmness when either yr. credit, honor or interest is any way called in question. Thus You paid sufficient attention to a Letter wh.

Pelham has written to Mr. Seger for yr. order inspection, I say no more upon this subject as General Gouder actually is waiting in the Room whilst I am writing these few lines & I am afraid of detaining him too long but I am sure You will know what I mean by alluding to yr. Letter. God Bless You ever 44060

dearest Mother please attend to me on all occasions is the fervent prayer,

Carlton Place. Affectionately
Sep. 12.
1783.

G.W.

My Love to dear Adolphus thank you for his escape. Remember me to all friends.

of affection of honor or them. Anne
Her ab. of cypher subject writing in the few in to long
I mean to you ever

From W.W.W. the Prince of Wales
and April 10. 1949.

AA

44061-2

From Sir Wm Pitt Rivers
11-1993

My dear Brother,

As Garton is exceedingly eager to set out, & is urging me to let him get ~~off~~ immediately I have only time to scribble a few lines, in the first place to thank you for yr. last kind letter & next to congratulate you on the success of the marches wh. I can not help thinking is one of the most essential events that have taken place thru out the whole campaign. Will you be good my dearest Frederick as to let me know as soon as You inconveniently can, how far you really have it in yr.

 power to take any steps respecting a loan, I am sure I have not the smallest doubt that you wd. do any thing in yr. power to assist the cause common unless yr. hands were absolutely tied, & in case it is an impossibility for you to join, I must endeavour to shift some how or other for myself.
 I am afraid my dear Frederick from hurry or business you have not written quite so often to the Queen as she expected, & perhaps as you wd. have done had you not been so much occupied; my remain

 me
 the had went is
 but sh.
 in
 is d
 he reason for mentioning this to you is on account of a message she charg'd me to deliver to you, saying at the same time that she did not write herself, as she had only receiv'd two Letters from you ever since you went to the Continent, the message is, y^t. the Queen is extremely desirous that Mr. Compton's Brother Arthur Compton sh^d. get an Embassy in the old sh. she understands is now vacant without success in consequence to poor Mr. C., as the young Queen's future is self sufficient to afford him the means of making it as the recommendation must proceed from you she hopes you will think of him if not already appointed

11 Nov 1793

engaged, however after I think that the Queen's recommendation must succeed every ~~thing~~ ^{other} I hope therefore you will lose no time in writing on this occasion wh. I make no sort of doubt will succeed perfectly ~~right~~. Just now I am glad to learn from himself you have been so good as to let into what probably ^{may} be a tolerable good thing for him, I think he is greater than ever; I wish much to send him out with a parcel of ~~the~~ ^{the} for the Army as ~~company~~ ^{company}, my love to ~~James~~ & pray tell him I will congratulate him in my name on his new Regiment. Adieu my ever dearest Frederick, I will write you again ~~Cherish me~~ Ant: P. I have nothing to write ^{it then believe me} your ever affectionate George

AA

44063-4

Mr J. M. H. H. H.
London
185-1893.

My dear Brother

The Sir James Murray is in great haste to set out I can not help detaining him a few moments, just to scribble two or three lines especially as it is upon a subject in which I feel myself much interested. It is respecting an exchange into the first Regiment of Guards for a very particular Friend of mine young Billy Churchill & who is in my Regiment, you know his Father, & I am certain will on that account wish him personally well; the circumstances is exactly thus, and Lambert has given him a promise of a Company whenever he can find an Officer to exchange with in the Guards. Gage is ready to exchange, I applied to the Duke of Gloucester for his consent; the Duke of Gloucester in the kindest manner possible said how happy he should be in any way to forward my wishes, & approved of young Churchill as a proper person, but added that he neither could nor would take any steps in it till he knew that it met with yr. approbation, as he felt that owing to the circumstances which we all heard mention'd here, respecting some history in

AA

44064 ands, which have been supposed to have dropped from Gage respecting his leave to return to England, He himself should feel very awkwardly had he been in your situation & you in his, if you had inserted, such a report being in circulation to any exchange without its being first ^{communicated} to him, he therefore acts upon the same ground which I think perfectly reasonable, & I hope my dear Mother you will not object to my forwarding ^{this promise} it is of great consequence for the young Men future prospects in the Army, & as I feel myself so much personally ^{interested} in his success. I should add a great deal more only I am afraid of delaying them longer than what is absolutely necessary, I will therefore conclude dear Brother with wishing you all health & happiness in addition to the usual joys of the Season, & desiring you to believe me dear Frederick,

Carlton House. Your ever affectionate Dec^r. 25th.
1753
George R.

BT
I go tomorrow to Windsor to meet the King

AA

44065

1 copy of Hall to Ed. Hall - 27 1941

My dearest Frederick,

I have received yr. kind letter for wh. I am extremely obliged to You, your commissions I have already executed having bought you two of the best stones I could I think them so, in England, & for so very extravagant sum, for 195 Gs. Some has been riding one & thinks him capital, but when they are both Stone but perfectly quiet, they are taken in quiet through bed. With respect to Churchill, as he has till enter upon the subject you, when next I see you, wh. I am truly happy in learning from the lady is to be for you, ^{have I} as very many very essential papers to talk over with you. I will not say any thing at present ~~was~~ conversation is worth five hundred letters, God bless you

Carlton House. dearest Frederick, Adeline

Feb. 24. One over

1794.

Your affectionate

B. J. George

Mr. Pitt denies her assistance

M. Gen. J. de Bude' to Duke of York

Ms. 38

44066

J. G. de la Perrière

Monsieur?

J'ai reçu hier la lettre que vous m'avez fait l'honneur de m'écrire du 30. Comme j'apprends par le P. J. que vous partirez ce jour là pour Bouffelles pour y rencontrer le Col. Mack & le Prince de Cobourg, il se passera peu de jours avant que j'aie l'honneur de vous voir ici. J'ai appris par Grenville qui ^{est} ~~est~~ dimanche faire la révérence à Windsor que le Roy lui a dit vous aviez écrit vendredi pour vous donner l'ordre de venir dès que vous auriez les Plans de Campagne.
Si cela est ainsi & que S. M. ait changé d'avis puisqu'il veut attendre la nouvelle de l'entrevue avant de vous envoyer l'ordre de venir, je suppose que nous aurons à peine le temps de les présenter de votre arrivée avant de vous voir paraître. J'ai dit à matin à Thomson de faire venir & préparer la maison sans annoncer votre arrivée; comme il n'y a rien à faire que de mettre les Tapis & les rideaux, tout cela se fera sans la moindre publicité. Je verrai certainement J. M. ce soir ou demain, je saurai plus positivement l'ordre qu'il vous a envoyé. Il est inutile que je vous écrive sur aucun autre sujet, puisque votre lettre peut vous parvenir en route & peut être même ne plus vous trouver en France. Je suis les vœux les plus sincères pour votre heureux voyage

Je suis

Monsieur

De votre Altesse Royale

de très humble & très obéissant serviteur

J. B. de

From Genl de Bude
Dated Feb 7. 1744

AA

H.R.H. to Duchess of York

44067

Bien obligée ma très chère petite Sœur de la Lettre obligeante que vous avez bien voulu m'écrire, vous pouvez compter sûrement de me voir à Battandis aujourd'hui pour le dîner, & je viens d'envoyer chercher Guillaume qui je me flatte ne manquera pas aussi de venir à Battandis. Je vous félicite de tout mon cœur de l'arrivée de mon Frère, et je partage bien vivement votre bonheur, car je vous assure qu'il n'y a personne qui vous est plus sincèrement attaché, ma très chère petite Sœur, Carlton House. que votre très dévoué Frère Le 8 de Février. et moi, George 1794.

44068-9

Dear Brother,

I have taken the liberty of detaining Colonel Poynt for a few days in the hope that I might have had an opportunity of writing to you upon some subjects which however are not in sufficient forwardness as yet to be touched upon, I therefore have nothing particular to say further than to explain to you how Colonel Poynt came to postpone his departure for a day or two longer than he would otherwise have done. The piece of information that I am conveying by my to have it in my power to give you, & that is that our good Friend Goldsmith as he was riding by my side, both of us accompanying the King to the coronation of the Queen on Saturday last, dropped off his horse, in a shocking Fit, which Doctor Jamberton declared to be Apoplethick, however he is now getting tolerably the better of it, but by way slow degrees, they are of opinion he may recover this time, but in all probability that he will not last long as his constitution appears to be entire union

 had

Con
 Pre
 17th 30

44069 entirely broken up. Pray forgive this almost unintelligible scrawl, as I write in the utmost haste. God bless you dear Brother,

London. 14.
Bramble St.
1794.

Ever most affectionately
Yours
George D.

From the Lib: of Haber at H
Dunelm - 18-1995

44070

St Oswald March 20 1794

Dear Mr. Bisset

Ten thousand thanks for your very obliging letter which was delivered to me by Colonel Bight, and which I would have answered by the last Mail if I had not been so terribly hurried, on account of the snow which I have had with all the British Troops and part of the Russians from their Encampments round Constantinople to this place.

I am exceedingly sorry to hear of poor Goldsmith's accident, I am afraid that though his last attack has been the strongest, yet that was not the only one he ever has had, he would really be a terrible loss to the is so perfectly honourable and good a man.

We are all very impatient here for the opening of the Campaign, should the weather continue as fine as it has been for the last week, it must take place very soon and I have therefore writ to the Duke of Gloucester to send Prince William over as soon as he can.

When my Dearest Mother, as I am obliged to go to Valenciennes to make a visit to the Prince of Cobourg Bring you my best compliments to M^{rs} Pollock, believe me ever

Yours most affectionately

Frederick

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
March 20. 1794

From Pa. of Wales dated May 2 1791.

44071-2

My dear Frederick,

I have but a few moments to write to congratulate you on your late success, which really have been truly glorious, & I do acknowledge I am not a little pleas'd that our Country has been so great a share in them; & it is so long since I have heard from you, that I begin to think that you have almost forgotten me, however I am as well acquainted with how much your time is taken up, not to know that your silence can proceed from no other cause. Le Comte de Jarnac has been pleading me to back with you a proposal which I believe he sent you thro' ~~Stanhurst~~ to raise a Regiment of ~~French~~ Heavy Cavalry upon the same terms as Anreppe raises his Regiment of ~~Swiss~~ ^{Swiss} ~~Swiss~~ think that if any Frenchman is entitled to raise a corps Jarnac's pretensions stand almost the first upon the list, & therefore I hope should an opportunity offer you will upon

 I hope
 me to call
 I am any
 I pro safe your & an come both will think of him; & now I am to please you upon another head & that is concerning an Goppy in your Regiment should there be to be given away, Charles Hawkins called upon me yesterday morning to let I should mention his son to you should any such opportunity offer itself soon I promise I would, & can do it with safety as the young man is really a genteel & uncommonly well educated & one that will not discredit your name considering every thing I am convinced both you & I shall be happy in obligeing

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1.

most kind thanks, especially as he seems to have much at heart having his son in the cold stream, tho he would afford to buy him the first Commission I will not be happy any longer for near Brother, then before you be truly I remain,

with affectionately

London.
May 2?
1734.

Yours
George D.

R

Gray give my best regards to Campbell I think how much I hope he will continue to write whenever any thing particular occurs.

44073-4

Head Quarters at Oisterhant August 12 1794

Dearest Brother

I am not at the Head Quarters today without sending you with a few lines to express to you my sincere and hearty wishes for your health and happiness, and that you may be many and happy returns of this day.

Prince William informed me that you wish to see the Cloathing and Accoutrements of the Corps of Mllers raised by Monsieu de Wederbrock, Wiederbrock has nothing more to do with them and they have been changed from Mllers to Hussars, I will take care to send you over a complete Cloathing and Accoutrements of them as they are at present There are three other Corps of Hussars raising of which if you please I will send you over the Cloathing

The Prince de Rohano, the Duc de Chermille and Comper's I received yesterday the Account of a great General Action, taken place between Bormon and Roblespierre, which ended in a Victory, and in that ten people were murdered there on the one of the famous 10th of August Bormon's party were compleatly victorious, and the two Roblespierre's the Justs and Coulter were immediately guillotined without a trial this happened on the 31 of last Month, what the consequences of this will be, God only knows, I think however it never can be bad.

Arthur told me that You desired I should give a Commission in the Waggoner Corps to young Elvington, which I will certainly do upon the first opportunity.

I will not take up all present men of Your name I shall therefore conclude with begging You to believe me ever with great respect

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales

Aug 4. 12th 1794

44075

Head Quarters at Orléans August 27 1744

Dearest Brother

I can not let Moleys set off for England when he is obliged to go for a few days upon very particular Business without sending you a few lines by him, to recall myself to your memory, for I begin to think that you have forgot me, as I have writ to you many times this summer without receiving a single answer.

As I understand that Lord Charles Somerset's Regiment is compleat I have written to General Mordaunt to recommend us by some Charles Hawkins's for the Company that will be vacant.

We have been here ever these three Weeks perfectly quiet, but yesterday we had a great alarm the Enemy having moved forwards in great force and and attacked our outposts, they were conducted by a squad of about 100 of the 10th Light Dragoons who had marched the day before and to the morning when the post was burnt the enemy thought upon them, as soon as on the support of the outposts advanced the enemy was driven back, Every thing is still very quiet this morning though many people think we shall be attacked again,

Adieu Dear Brother I can not add more at present Believe me ever with great truth

Yours most affectionately

Frederick

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Aug. 27. 1794

AA

From Mr. of Wales dated Aug. 29. 1794.

44076-7

My dearest Frederick,

I must begin by thanking you for your two last kind Letters, which I will now explain to you my reasons for not having as yet answer'd, & indeed for not having written to you for some time past.
The very uncomfortable situation I have been in for some months, & indeed for some years, but particularly for the latter three or four months ^{which} was so much shagrin & pain, together with the very uncertain turn that these sort of affairs in general are likely to take, made me not desirous of writing to you till something special & decided had taken place, for being at a distance it was impossible unless I wrote every day to describe the various & different charges of your that every hour circumstances put on, at the same time that I did not wish to idle away your time which so much more essentially taken up, with all the commerage, chit chat, very transparencies which the various disagreements & misunderstandings between Mr. Fitzherbert & me naturally occasion'd. In short we are finally parted, but parted amicably, & believe from what you know of my temper, disposition, & the unwearied attention & affection I have ever bestow'd with, you will not lay the fault whatever it may be at my Door. However sent off since the same, & I have obtain'd the King's consent to my marrying my own Cousin Prince's daughter the Duke of Devonshire's Daughter, the King wishes it not to be much talk'd of at present, as he seems rather inclin'd to have the wedding put off till the Spring but I was forc'd to go that neither meets my liking nor those of His Majesty's Ministers, & we are all working a main, & never death to commodity paid for her over, by which I am in the greatest paper we shall carry our point, as We are all both the King's 17044

I myself quite in a mind together. Your little Sister has behav'd like what she is, quite like an Angel to me, nothing that I can say can equal the gratitude I feel towards her for her kind resp. & the nobleness of thinking which she has express'd w^{ch} I have taken care to inform the King. The King too has made him quite happy, that it was the only proper alliance, & indeed the one in all respects he should have wish'd for himself, & the one he should have wish'd to have pointed out to me. I do not say as much for the rest of the Family, at least for one person, all my Sisters, my two Brothers

44078 my Mother & Sister, are delighted all that they are so good as to spare me, that it is the worst they could do for me. I only therefore want my dear Mother your kind approbation to make me feel quite comfortable at the prospect of the new room of life I am going to enter into. The little Sarah is just gone into her room to write to you & may send some other particulars which I have not yet time to add, having still some letters which I especially must write, adieu my dearest Mother, believe me.

Bathurst, 11.
 August 29.
 1754.

ever most affectionately & truly
 Yours
 George B.

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on lined paper]

44079

Head Quarters at Burlington September 2 1794

Dearest Brother

I have this instant received ^{the} your very kind and affectionate letter of the 29, and have no time in replying to you how sincerely I applaud your resolution of marrying our Cousin Princeps Caroline of Brunswick

I have long been grieved to see how very intimate Mr. Fitzherbert's unfortunate temper had made you, and ever, if I remember, some years ago, advised you not to have with it any longer. I am rejoiced to hear that you are now out of his shackles, as for the Princeps, she is a very fine girl and in every respect in my opinion a very proper match for you. That you may be completely happy with her, is my most hearty wish, and believe me, that among the many congratulations which you will receive upon this occasion, none is more sincere as comes from truly from the Heart than mind. As for what you speak of one person not appearing of his name all I can say is if my understanding and I am sure that no person who writes you will ever find fault with it.

I will not trouble you at present with a longer letter and will therefore conclude with repeating my hearty wishes for your Happiness and Wellfare, and beg myself with great truth and

Dear Madam

Yours most affectionately

Frederick

The Duke of York

to

The Prince of Wales

Sept. 2^d 1794.

Not to be filmed.

Copy

GEO/MAIN/44079A

Head Quarters at

Dearest Brother / Berlioz Sept. 2 1794.

AA

I have this Instant received your very kind & affectionate letter of the 29th, and lose no time in expressing to you how sincerely I applaud your resolution of marrying our Cousin Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

I have long been grieved to see how very miserable Mrs. Fitz Herbert's unfortunate temper made you, and once, if you remember, some years ago, advised you not to bear with it any longer. - I am rejoiced to hear that you are now out of her shackles. - As for the Princess, she is a very fine girl and in every respect in my opinion a very proper match for you. - That you may be completely happy with her is my most hearty wish and believe me that among the many congratulations which you will receive upon this occasion, none are more sincere or come more truly from the heart than mine. - As for what you mention of one person not approving of your marriage, all I can say is jealousy intends evil, and I am sure that no person who wishes you well can find fault with it.

I will not trouble you at present with a longer letter and will therefore only conclude with repeating my heartly wishes for your happiness and welfare, and sign myself with great truth ever

, Dearest Brother,
Yr^s most affected (signed) Frederick.

2 Sept 1790

Long mss of 1790
Wales - Sept: 2 - 1790

44080-1

My dearest Frederick,

It is so long since I have had the pleasure of hearing from you that unless it was from the News Papers I should hardly know that you was alive, however I do not complain as I am thoroughly well acquainted how much you have must necessarily let them up & therefore how few moments you have to write from Munich to your friends. All is now going on well respecting my marriage

I trust that very few weeks from five or six at the least will see it entirely completed. I have a favor my dear Frederick which I have already mentioned to the good little Duke's mother of you, & that is, that in case that either Carlton House should be quite ready, or that the small apartment should be entirely finished out of it, you would allow me to go & lodge for a week or so at York House, till my house is fit, & till you the Prince's come to lodge in it. We have no news here to tell you either political or even of any remarkable nature

I shall
 You,
 whether long
 you
 was then
 you should
 I will
 dear
 my
 London

18044

[Faint, mirrored handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

[Handwritten notes or signatures in the right margin]

The Duke of York AA

to

The Prince of Wales

44082

Head Quarters at Amheim November 4

1794

Nov. 4. 1794

Dearest Brother

I have but a moment, before the Messenger sets off to acknowledge the receipt of Your very kind and affectionate letter which was delivered to me by Ernest who arrived last night and who I find infinitely better than I had imagined.

Believe me My Dearest Brother that my silence, as you call it, though if I am not much mistaken I have written to you twice since you wrote to me, proceeded only from want of time of which God knows I have very little to spare, though certainly ^{I might have} sufficient writ to you, and not from any want of affection and that so brother is then sincerely affected to another, than I am to You.

I need not I am sure express to You how Happy I shall be if You will make use of York House, the Duke's Chamber House will be quite ready to receive Your Bonds. The Duke's intention I am sure will be the best, and I have not written to You to day and offer it to You.

You are now well informed of publick news for it to be necessary for me to enter into that subject here, I have gone through a great deal indeed this Campaign, than who will be well and who are fully informed will I must do in justice but I certainly have not passed a pleasant time With every wish for Your Health and Happiness

I am ever, Dearst Brother

Many thanks for Your kind offer about Houses

P.S. For the rest of this Campaign I shall be able to get through with any present matter, but I shall find the next Campaign I shall be able to get through with

I am ever, Dearst Brother
I shall be able to get through with
I am ever, Dearst Brother

Produce

AA

From the Pr. of Wales - Dec: 28
1792

[cf date on letter]

Ms. 44083-4

I ought to say that I do not know whether Major Archie has the honor of being known to you, but all want to recommend him as they by no means forget your favor & protection.

My dear Mr. Frederick,

From Mr. Major
Archie
Dec: 28
1792

As I am sending Major Archie to Brunswick to send the money by way of expediting the Princess's departure I can not help thanking you with a few lines on many accounts, in the first place to thank you for your last kind letter. As your obiging offer respecting John Adams which now I shall have occasion for, as follows

Anne I flatter myself will be quite ready at least & forward as to enable me to receive her in it on her arrival, & in the second place to enable you respecting her journey my wish undoubtedly is, if the passing thro' Holland is still safe either by means of a coach, or from Amsterdam in a private the Dutch, that she should pass thro' Holland preferably to her coming from Holland or Hamburg thro' the Elbe, as tho' the journey by land certainly is more considerable till the passage by sea is wonderfully

From the Pr. of
Wales - Dec: 28
1794

[cf date on letter]

44084 much shorter, & I think if Holland is really possible it is no question, the less I have desired British troops to call upon for it, however I was full of you how far it may be safe for the Princes to pass them, to take you that expert about the two cathedrals here, that is say there is no doubt, & to request of you if it should be necessary there any detachments of troops to secure the passage that you could have the goodness to make such preparations as you shall judge proper & necessary, if it should be agreed afterwards to Mr. Fox's journey, you shall have the goods & be dispatched a courier on the road to Lord Melmouth's & to their further orders send us them back towards St. Paul, & at the same time to dispatch another to be sent to me, to acquaint us with the place of her lady's being necessarily changed, & she might also take a letter from you & refer to the Admiral should be at the which I think will be most probable

AA

44085-6

admiral Vandespelt with little further Payne acting as second in command, advising them to head their course towards the place the Princess being ship's to charge her plans & to embark at Stend with a number aftered of Helvet. All this you will have the goodness to arrange with Aubin & to write to me immediately after you have seen him, perhaps it would be well if you were still able to write a few lines by him to Lord Melanburg let him know what you say & think me upon this head. I need not say more than that you will do every thing that lays in your power to forward the Prince's arrival in this country, as my instruction the other is arriv'd in a very low condition and very weak. Both here & home, as well as respecting the Duke & Duchess of Devonshire, I will let you know in every thing by word of mouth if you will question him then I judge it prudent to state upon Paper. Pray do not delay him long till he is arriv'd as expeditiously as possible. One favor before I conclude that is that you will allow & desire your little Sonnets to be presented to the public. I have request of you for a personal regard to her, that I can not take for the pleasure it will give me I shall take it as a great mark of affection & attention & I shall be glad to hear from you both if you will admit of it. I have been in the subject. had seen several to view, I am satisfied that I can hardly see what I can do, having been this whole day employed in writing letters

23 Nov.
1794

Volumes of the papers of the late ... before I write down my ... not help saying, that I am thoroughly convinced you will see the ...
of my ... in every ... both for public as well as private ...
... as speedily as possible, I therefore ... in you to do every thing that lays in your power to give us every aid that can depend upon you to effectuate it; & I have written on this head to the ...
...
London. Nov. 23. 1794. George B.

44087

My dearest Frederick,

I have only time to scribble a few lines in order to mention my having received a letter from Anne, very desirous of leave of absence for some time in order to be present at the celebration, if this should not interfere with any plans of yours I should be much oblig'd to you, if you could grant it her.

God bless you,

London. A.

Jan. 28

1754

Respectfully
 Yours
 George C.

