

44138-9

Provy
A. D. H. Nicholson of Madras, Feb 23 1808
No 261

My dear Brother,

I trouble you with a few lines to tell you perhaps what you know already, that after all, about ten o'clock yesterday morning it was reported to Guthrie (who I found had just arrived at Serapeta before me) that it was not an enemy's fleet that had been seen off the coast, but the Spanish fleet. Major Howard of the North Gloucester appears to have done every thing that could be done under the circumstances. Captain Seymour's report from Marchem to me, was in consequence of the Express which Major Steward sent from Weymouth, ordering him to be in immediate readiness. As I went through Blendford I found the Boys all ready to march at a moments warning, & I can not sufficiently express to you how pleased I was at the alacrity of spirit of two Troops of the Dutch after journey several, part of me of which before they received any order assembled of themselves at Blendford to wait for orders in case they should be wanted, together with one of their Officers, Mr. George Lane the Bankers

Bo
 sur
 his did flut e won con
 me
 - can all & ha spr
 pres

Brother, who though he had the post full very surely was lifted on horse back to testify his zeal. Churchill's Troop being to some extent did not receive the communication till six o'clock from Warham. I was all under arms as I understand by eight, which is afternoon considering how dispersed the Farmers are from one another. I mention these trifles in
 - circumstances only, in as much as I think that they are creditable to the Individuals, & that it is infinitely pleasant to see the spirit which so generally prevails at the present crisis. I do not think it worth while

Ms. A. 9. 2. 1. 199

to trouble the King with these particulars, but if you have an opportunity I shall be of you to mention them; I am with great thanks

Dear Brother,

Ever most affectionately

Yours,

George St.

Critchell.
Feb. 23^d.
1798

The Duke of York
to

AA

The Prince of Wales

Feb 26th 1790.

House Guards (Palmer), 26 1790

44140

Dear Brother

I have many thanks to return You for Your very kind letter which I received on Saturday and by which I was rejoiced to observe the Diligence and Zeal which has been shewn by the ^{different} Troops of Mannery and Volunteers upon the late Alarm of an Enemies fleet being upon the Coast, which doubtless makes one much more easy as to the event of any such attempt being made hereafter in reality

You may depend upon ^{my} taking the first opportunity to shew Your letter to His Majesty who I have no doubt will be highly gratified by it.

Believe me ever

Dear Brother

Yours most affectionately

Frederick

Not to be filmed

Horse Guards

Feb 26th 1798

AA

Copy

No 121.
H. O. N. to the Prince of Wales Feb 26th 1798

Dear Brother

I have many Thanks to return You for your very kind letter which I received on Saturday the which I was rejoiced to observe the Alacrity & Zeal which has been shown by the different Troops of Yeomanry Volunteers upon the late alarm of an Enemy's Fleet being upon the Coast, it certainly makes me much more easy as to the event of any such attempt being made in reality. ^{hereafter}

You may depend upon my taking the first opportunity to show your letter to His Majesty, who I have no doubt will be highly gratified by it

(Signed) Frederick

44141-2

Carlton House

April 25th 1798.

Sir,

I have from various considerations of Duty & respect delay'd to the latest hour obtruding myself, by a direct Application to your Majesty, And it is now with an earnestness that I never before ventured to approach you, Sir, that I presume to throw myself at your feet, & to implore your Gracious Attention to the humble sentiments that I offer in this Letter. The serious & awful Crisis in which this Country now stands, Calls for the united Efforts of every British Arm in the Defence of All that can be dear to Englishmen, And it is with glowing Pride that I behold the prevalence of this sentiment through every part of your Majesty's Kingdom. Whatever may some time back have been your Majesty's objections to my being in the way of actual Service, yet, at a Crisis like this, unexampled in our History, when every Subject in the Realm is eagerly seeking

No 130 ✓

Copy

Carlton House

25th Apr: 1798

The P. of Wales to
The King.

for, & has his Post assign'd him, those Objections I humbly trust will yield to the pleasure of the Prince, & that your Majesty will be Graciously pleas'd to call me forth to A Station wherein I may prove myself Worthy of the Confidence of my Country & the high Rank I hold in it, by Making my Life in its Defence! Death would be preferable to being mark'd as the only Man that was not suffer'd to come forth on such an occasion. Should it be my fate to fall in so glorious a Contest, no Injury could arise to the Line of Succession from the number happily remaining of your Majesty's Children: At the same time, that were there fifty Princes, or were I the single one, it would in my humble judgement be equally incumbent on them, or me, to stand Foremost in the Ranks

of Ad
 your humb that h
 the Re
 of Wa
 :portu
 Majest
 myse tamer
 to just your were Courag
 Army

of Danger at so Decisive a period as the present.

I am the more induced to Confide that Your Majesty's Goodness will comply with my humble Petition, from the Conviction I feel that had similar circumstances prevail'd in the Reign of the Late King, when Your Majesty was Prince of Wales, you would have granted, Sir, for the Op: portunity I now so earnestly Covet. I know Your Majesty I am fix'd in this belief, & I should hold myself unworthy of my Descent & Station, if a tamor impulse could now possess me: Still more to justify this Confidence, Allow me to Recall to Your Majesty's Recollection the Expressions you were graciously Pleas'd to use when I solicited Foreign Service upon my first coming into the Army; They were, Sir, "That Your Majesty
 did

not then see the opportunity for it, but, that if anything was to arise at Home I ought to be one of the First & Foremost!"

My Character with the Nation, My Honour, My future Fame & Prospects in Life are now all at stake. I therefore supplicate Your Majesty to afford me the means for their preservation which my Affection for my Country & Devotion to my Sovereign, would have prompted me to solicit, even though my Birth & Station had not rendered it my Duty to Claim them.

I presume in no respect to prescribe to Your Majesty the mode of my being employed, what I humbly but most earnestly solicit, is the certainty of Active Service in such a Character as to Your Majesty shall seem fit

✓ ✓ ✓

AA

Copy

44143

Batlands - 1st July 1798

Dear Brothers

I take the earliest opportunity to acquaint you that in consequence of the necessity of bringing the 7th Regiment of Light Dragoons nearer the Camp in Windsor Forest on account of the Court-Martial which is to sit there upon Lieut: Col: Watson of that Regiment; It will be more convenient that the change of quarters of the Regts of Dragoons which are not intended to encamp should take place as soon as possible instead of being postponed till after the Camp as was at first proposed. — I hope therefore it will not be inconvenient to you if the 10th Light Drag begin their march from Dorchester next Thursday

To His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales
&c &c &c

for Canterbury. - I have already directed Lieut: Genl: Dundas to arrange their march so that they may be assembled near Ashford Common; as I have no doubt but that Her Majesty will wish to ~~see~~ ^{review} them
The 3^d Drag: Guards will relieve the 10th at Dorchester during the camp.

Believe me ever

, Dearest Brother

Your most affect signed Fredenick

No 8
Batlands
7 July - 1798
A. R. H. To
The Prince of Wales.

44144

Callands July 8. 1790

Dearest Brother

Take the earliest opportunity to acquaint You that His Majesty has been pleased to give the Review of the 10th Light Dragoons for Friday next the 20th instant upon Wimbledon Common, as the quarters round Ashford Hill to give full of the Regiments marching to Camp,

The King has chosen Friday instead of Thursday as You may probably wish to visit the Queen and Mrs. Suters to be present at the review

Believe me ever

Dear Brother

Yours most affectionate

Frederick

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
July 8th 1790

44145-6

My dear Mother,

I write in the greatest hurry possible to you, as My Carriage is waiting at the door to carry me out to a very dinner with the very punctual & regular people & therefore I must be brief in my scribble. To come to the point I have two favors to ask of you. The one, that you will allow Mr. H. Tregdale who is already very sensible of your goodness in allowing him to fall out of the Duke of Grand, & to go upon half pay without taking any difference (his back going on) to buy that quantity which ^{George} George has the permission to sell, it will really be the greatest plenty to both of them, and pretty cheap too. The other is, that you will allow me to push some houses out of the twenty sixth St. J. if they are going abroad as I have heard they are, we want what is in the last houses that have died since the Review from the money of our Church from London to those quarters, & what is in the Gladders for which I was again obliged

Pro
 we re d se m p w
 G
 S
 G
 B
 Char
 C

just five yesterday, & I am much afraid we may be obliged to shut there as it seems rather promising, we want eighty Acres, & I had not I am sure time to you how many better it will be for us to put a few out of that Regiment & that we need above land that in them, then be obliged to buy all from New Amos. I shall not detain you any longer than just to say how truly I hope you are quite well, & begging you to remember me in the kindest manner to the whole Family. I am Dear Friends Charleston Place
 Oct. 12th. 1750.

ever your most affectionate Brother
 George O.

1818

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

No. 43
The Province of Wales
October 19th 1748

Dft. of a Letter
having reference to an intended Review of Troops by His Majesty

The Duke of York
to
The King

44147

[? July 1798]

Sir

Having understood from the Prince of Wales that Your Majesty, had not been pleased to approve of his passing by at the head of the 20th Regiment of Light Dragoons ~~which he had reviewed by Your Majesty~~ ~~before Christmas, tomorrow, and having remarked that he appeared~~ a good deal hurt, & sick at the idea that Sir William Faunt had not sufficiently explained to Your Majesty the manner in which this proposal took its rise, and the reasons which induced my Brother to consent to its being laid before Your Majesty I trust, Sir, that You will not be displeas'd with me if I take the liberty of mentioning them, to Your Majesty, in order that You may not be induc'd to think that this ^{displeas'd} ~~idea~~ ^{was} only originated with ~~my Brother~~, ^{him} I went down together last Saturday to Blackheath to be present at a field day of the Regiment during the manoeuvre General Pitt express'd his surpris that it would make him, and the whole Regiment, of, as they have the name of the Prince of Wales's Regiment, he would do them the honor of appearing at their head before Your Majesty at the same time it was ^{desired} by other persons who were present that ^{his} I should give a great relief to the whole Army, at a moment, when parties appeared so very desirous of lowering it in the eyes of the Nation, they were the reasons which ^{made} my Brother ~~think~~ this proposition would not meet with Your Majesty's disapprobation, and therefore induced them to consent to ^{be} ^{made} being laid before You, I am ^{very} desirous to repeat again, that Your Majesty will not be ^{at all} ^{injured} by ^{my} ^{brother's} ^{having} ^{been} ^{thus} expressed to You the reasons ^{of} ^{my} ^{brother's} ^{disapprobation} as it would give me the greatest pain to know Your Majesty displeas'd with any part of Your family, if it is any ways in my power to ^{prevent} ^{it}

I am Sir

AA

44148

Oatlands October 18. 1798

Dear Brother,

I send up the Highflyer Horn according to your desire, my only objection to them is being more of a Horn than I want for the Road, You may take any brial of them for pleasure, I have asked one hundred and fifty guineas for them but will take one hundred and twenty

Ever your Obedt affectionate

Frederick

Mr Durbey-Young
to

Mr Prince of Wales

Oct^r: 10th: 1790.

The Duke of York
to
The Prince of Wales
Sept. 6th 1799

AA

44149 ^HWalmer Castle September 6th 1799

Dear Brother

Understanding that You have left Carlisle for London and therefore desirous of being the pleasure of shaking You by the hand before I sail, I can not refuse Yourself the satisfaction of writing to You a few lines to wish You all Health and Happiness till We meet again

I had hoped to have been able to embark yesterday but the Wind was quite contrary and the Combe in which it was intended that I should go, was not arrived here as the so at this moment but as this of consequence that I should not be hindered as long as possible if the Wind does not increase I shall not wait for the arrival of the Combe but embark this Afternoon on board of one of the other Frigates in the Downs.

God Bless You My Dear Brother Adieu I am

His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales

Your most Affectionate

Fredrick

AA

44150-1

Quebec

The Prince of Wales

15 September 1795

My dear Brother,

I take up my Pen to acknowledge the receipt of your kind Letter which did not reach me till some days after your departure for which I can not help returning You my best Thanks; I am extremely vexed that I did not see You previous to your embarkment, for had I known that you was expected at Walmer the day ^{on} which you pass'd through Canterbury I should have with the greatest care ~~endeavour'd~~ endeavour'd to have seen You en passant.
 On my arrival in London I found from enthe ~~was~~ injury exercised on the part of my friend John relative to the exchange he sought, ~~and~~ ^{my Regiment} ~~the~~ other Officers ^{had} ~~had~~ ^{been} ~~been~~ ^{very} ~~very~~ ^{honestly} advised to it, and on such reasonable grounds that I was induced from principles of justice to assist them after having talked the matter over with them, to stop any further proceeding except what the Reputation of the Army admitted, and Major George Leigh though much against his Inclination to purchase the Staff which has rather good humour, unanimity in the Corps, being and by now seems perfectly content except

Col
 Lt
 Geo
 Tho
 in Prin
 to ap who by in a
 the Prin
 at 44151

Letter who is very sorry at being obliged to call for the Regulation, but this I can not help George Leigh is only apprehensive that he should appear in your eyes to have acted incompetently and is therefore that I charge him with the delivery of this letter himself to assure you that it was not till I took it upon myself to promise that I could not to you explain the circumstances of taking in consequence of the application of the Officer that I could induce him to appear to the Sumner Money being lodged by his Father at the same time I am very obliged

To enclose to you a certificate signed by M^{rs} Jullien. All health which will prevent his being able to join the W^{est}.
two months, he is laid up with a very severe General Attack, nothing fresh but an old Lumbago which has hitherto only been put up. But which I hope I can send herever we be will make him completely rid of. As I have no news here to communicate suspect it all from you from the other side of the water, as I am sure you have the Strength enough to bear you without mine
I will relieve you by concluding here, deposing you my dearest Mother, how truly I ever am, Your affectionate son
Sept 15.
1793

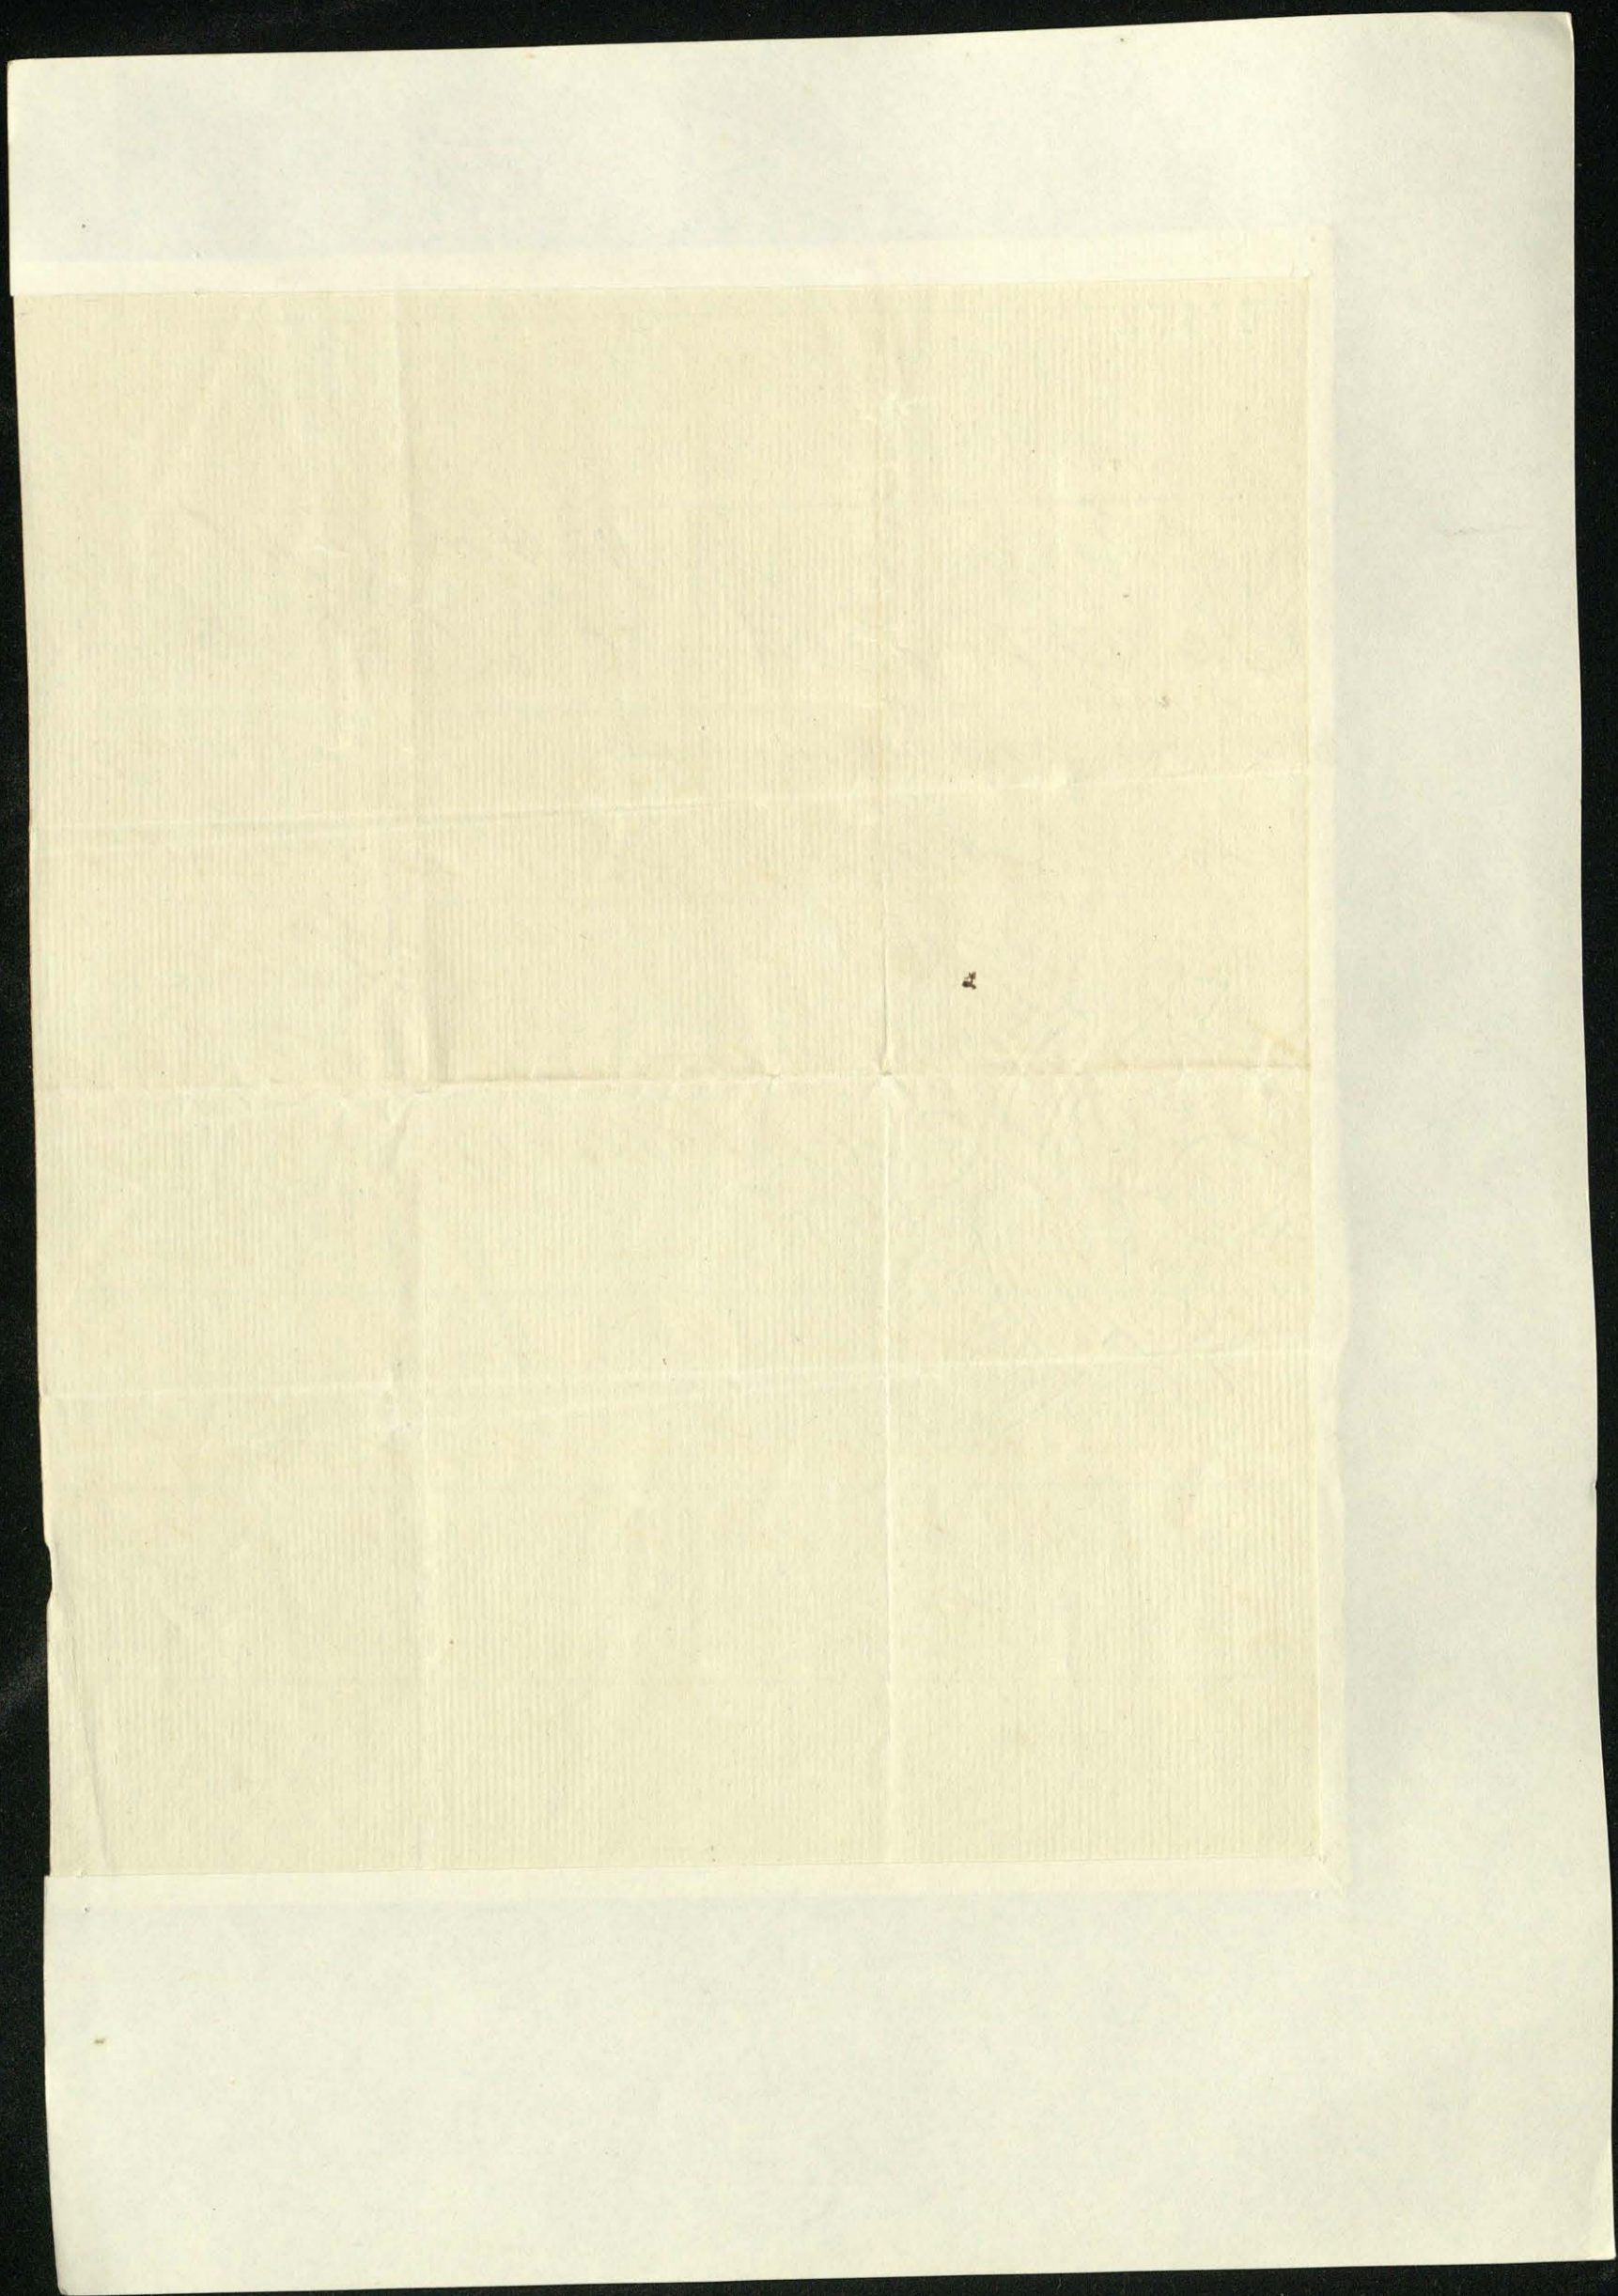

Dr Thomas Keate

[Enclosure]

44152

It is necessary for Capt^m Fuller of the 10th L.D. to have two months leave of absence for the recovery of his health.
J. Keate

Ord.ⁿ 4th Sept. 14. 1755

AA

[Copy] Schagen Bank. September 30th 1799.
44153

Dearest Brother,

I take the earliest opportunity in my power to acknowledge the Receipt of your very kind Letter of the 15th Instant, and am very happy to hear that You have settled the Lieutenant Colonelcy of the 10th Light Dragoons to your own, and the Regiment's satisfaction.

As for George Leigh I think it would have been impossible for Him to allow any body to purchase over Him, and I beg that You will assure Him that I do not see any Inconsistency in this Conduct, and that this diffidence of himself does Him Credit.

With regard to Captain Fuller there cannot be the least difficulty in granting him leave of Absence for two Months.

News I have more to tell you from hence; since the 19th we have been obliged to

Schagen Bank 30 Sept. 1799
Rev. P. H. To The Prince of Wales

remain quiet, in order to get up many things which were wanted, and the weather has been so bad, and windy for some days, that it has retarded us very much.

Adieu my Dear Brother, I am afraid of ruining the Post if I add more.

Believe me Ever,

His Royal Highness
The Prince of Wales.

Your most affectionate,

Alfred / Frederick

AA

44154-5

My dear Brother,

I have only written to you once since you have quitted this country which was upon matters affairs, & knowing how much your time must naturally be taken up, engaged as you were in the most difficult & intricate service (that has almost ever been chalk'd out for any man, I consider'd it but common humanity on my part not to intrude upon your leisure moments, or such as might be much more usefully employ'd, with letters that could not afford you much amusement, at any rate, but which perhaps you might ^{consistent} with your usual good humour have thought it necessary to mention however troublesome it might have been to you. But do not suppose that though I have not broken upon you by my letters, that therefore my silence is to be attributed either to negligence, or to indifference as to what regarded your interests. You may rationally suppose that the situation of the Army under your command ever since your landing in Holland, but more especially at the present moment, creates much & indeed is the sole topic of conversation & of the amusement of the public, various are the opinions & strange very strange indeed the opinions of people even amongst those where you would have the least reason to expect it. When a man is really in difficulties (or supposed to be so by the world, which is nearly the same thing as the being ^{really} so) is the only moment

44155 when so those who

dear B.
for some
I take series, &
- pleasin
upon the
to me be will me
- files
interest
Stewart
with
MS.

AA

44155 when ~~we~~ can know his ^{true} friends, ^{it is that} ~~it is that~~ these real friends ^{such} to show themselves. It is therefore my dear Brother (not that I ~~think~~ it is necessary for me for various reasons to make any professions) but that I take the earliest opportunity of writing these few lines, to assure you that whatever may be the con-

 -^{or claiming} - fession it may be thought right to give or ^{write} ~~write~~ upon the ^{events} that have taken place with respect to our country in Holland, you will find none who will more staunchly stand by you, or prove them- selves more truly your friends from being your interests most sincerely at heart, than,

Adieu. Your ever affectionate Brother
 W. S.

common
 But
 if line appear naturally
 your
 but much
 the opinion people least in dif-
 is moment

Letter to the Duke of York.
Oct 25. 1799.

The Prime of Wales
to
The Duke of York
Oct 25. 1799

AA

44156-7

My dear Brother,

I have only written to you once since you have quitted this Country which was upon matters of business, & knowing how much your time must naturally be taken up, engaged as you were in the most difficult & intricate service perhaps that has almost ever been chalk'd out for any man, I consider'd it but common humanity on my part not to intrude upon your leisure moments (or upon such as might be much more usefully employ'd), with letters that could not afford you much amusement at any rate, & which perhaps you might consistent with your usual good humour have thought it necessary to answer however troublesome it might have been to you. But do not suppose that though I have not broken in upon you by my letters that therefore my silence is to be attributed either to negligence or to indifference as to what regarded your interests. You may naturally suppose that the situation of the Army under your command ever since your landing in Holland but most particularly at the present moment, creates much, & indeed, is, the sole topic of the conversation & of the animadversion of the public; various are the opinions, & strange very strange indeed the opinions of persons even amongst those where you would have the least reason to expect it. When a man is in difficulties (or supposed to be so by the world, which is nearly the same thing as the being really so) is the only moment when he can know his true friends,

when it
such a think any prop writing
be the
to give place
find no prove to your
P. Chow
M. 2
1753.

AA

44157

when it is that it behoves true real friends to show themselves such. It is therefore my dear Brother (but that I think it is necessary for me for many reasons to make any professions) that I take the earliest opportunity of writing these few lines, to assure you that whatever may be the complexion or coloring it may be thought right to give or turn upon the recent events that have taken place with respect to our Army in Holland, you will find no one who will more staunchly stand by you, or prove themselves more truly your friend than having your interests most sincerely at heart, than Stowth.

 Oct. 25.
 1758.

Your ever affectionate
 Brother,

*To
The Prince of Wales
Osborne 5th 1999*

Carlton House April 14
1855

AA

From the Prince of Wales

44158

My dear Brother,

I feel quite unhappy at not having had the pleasure of seeing you for the last three days, but I will tell you candidly how I have been circumstanced. On Saturday I set out in my carriage but was so immediately wet through that I did not dare venture to stop in my wet clothes; Yesterday I went to Windsor, & today I have been so unwell again that I have not been able to stir out of my chamber; if I am able to go out at all in the morning tomorrow I will certainly make my first visit to you, but at any rate let me entreat of you to let ~~me~~ me write me a line, to say how you are. I should I not care I hope you will believe that it is because I am really not able to do. I am

Dear Brother,

ever most affectionately Yours

George B.

Cartton House.
Monday night.
April 14. 1800.

AA

Bathurst September 27 1800

A.A. H. to the Prince of Wales

[925]

Bathurst September 27 1800

44159

Copy

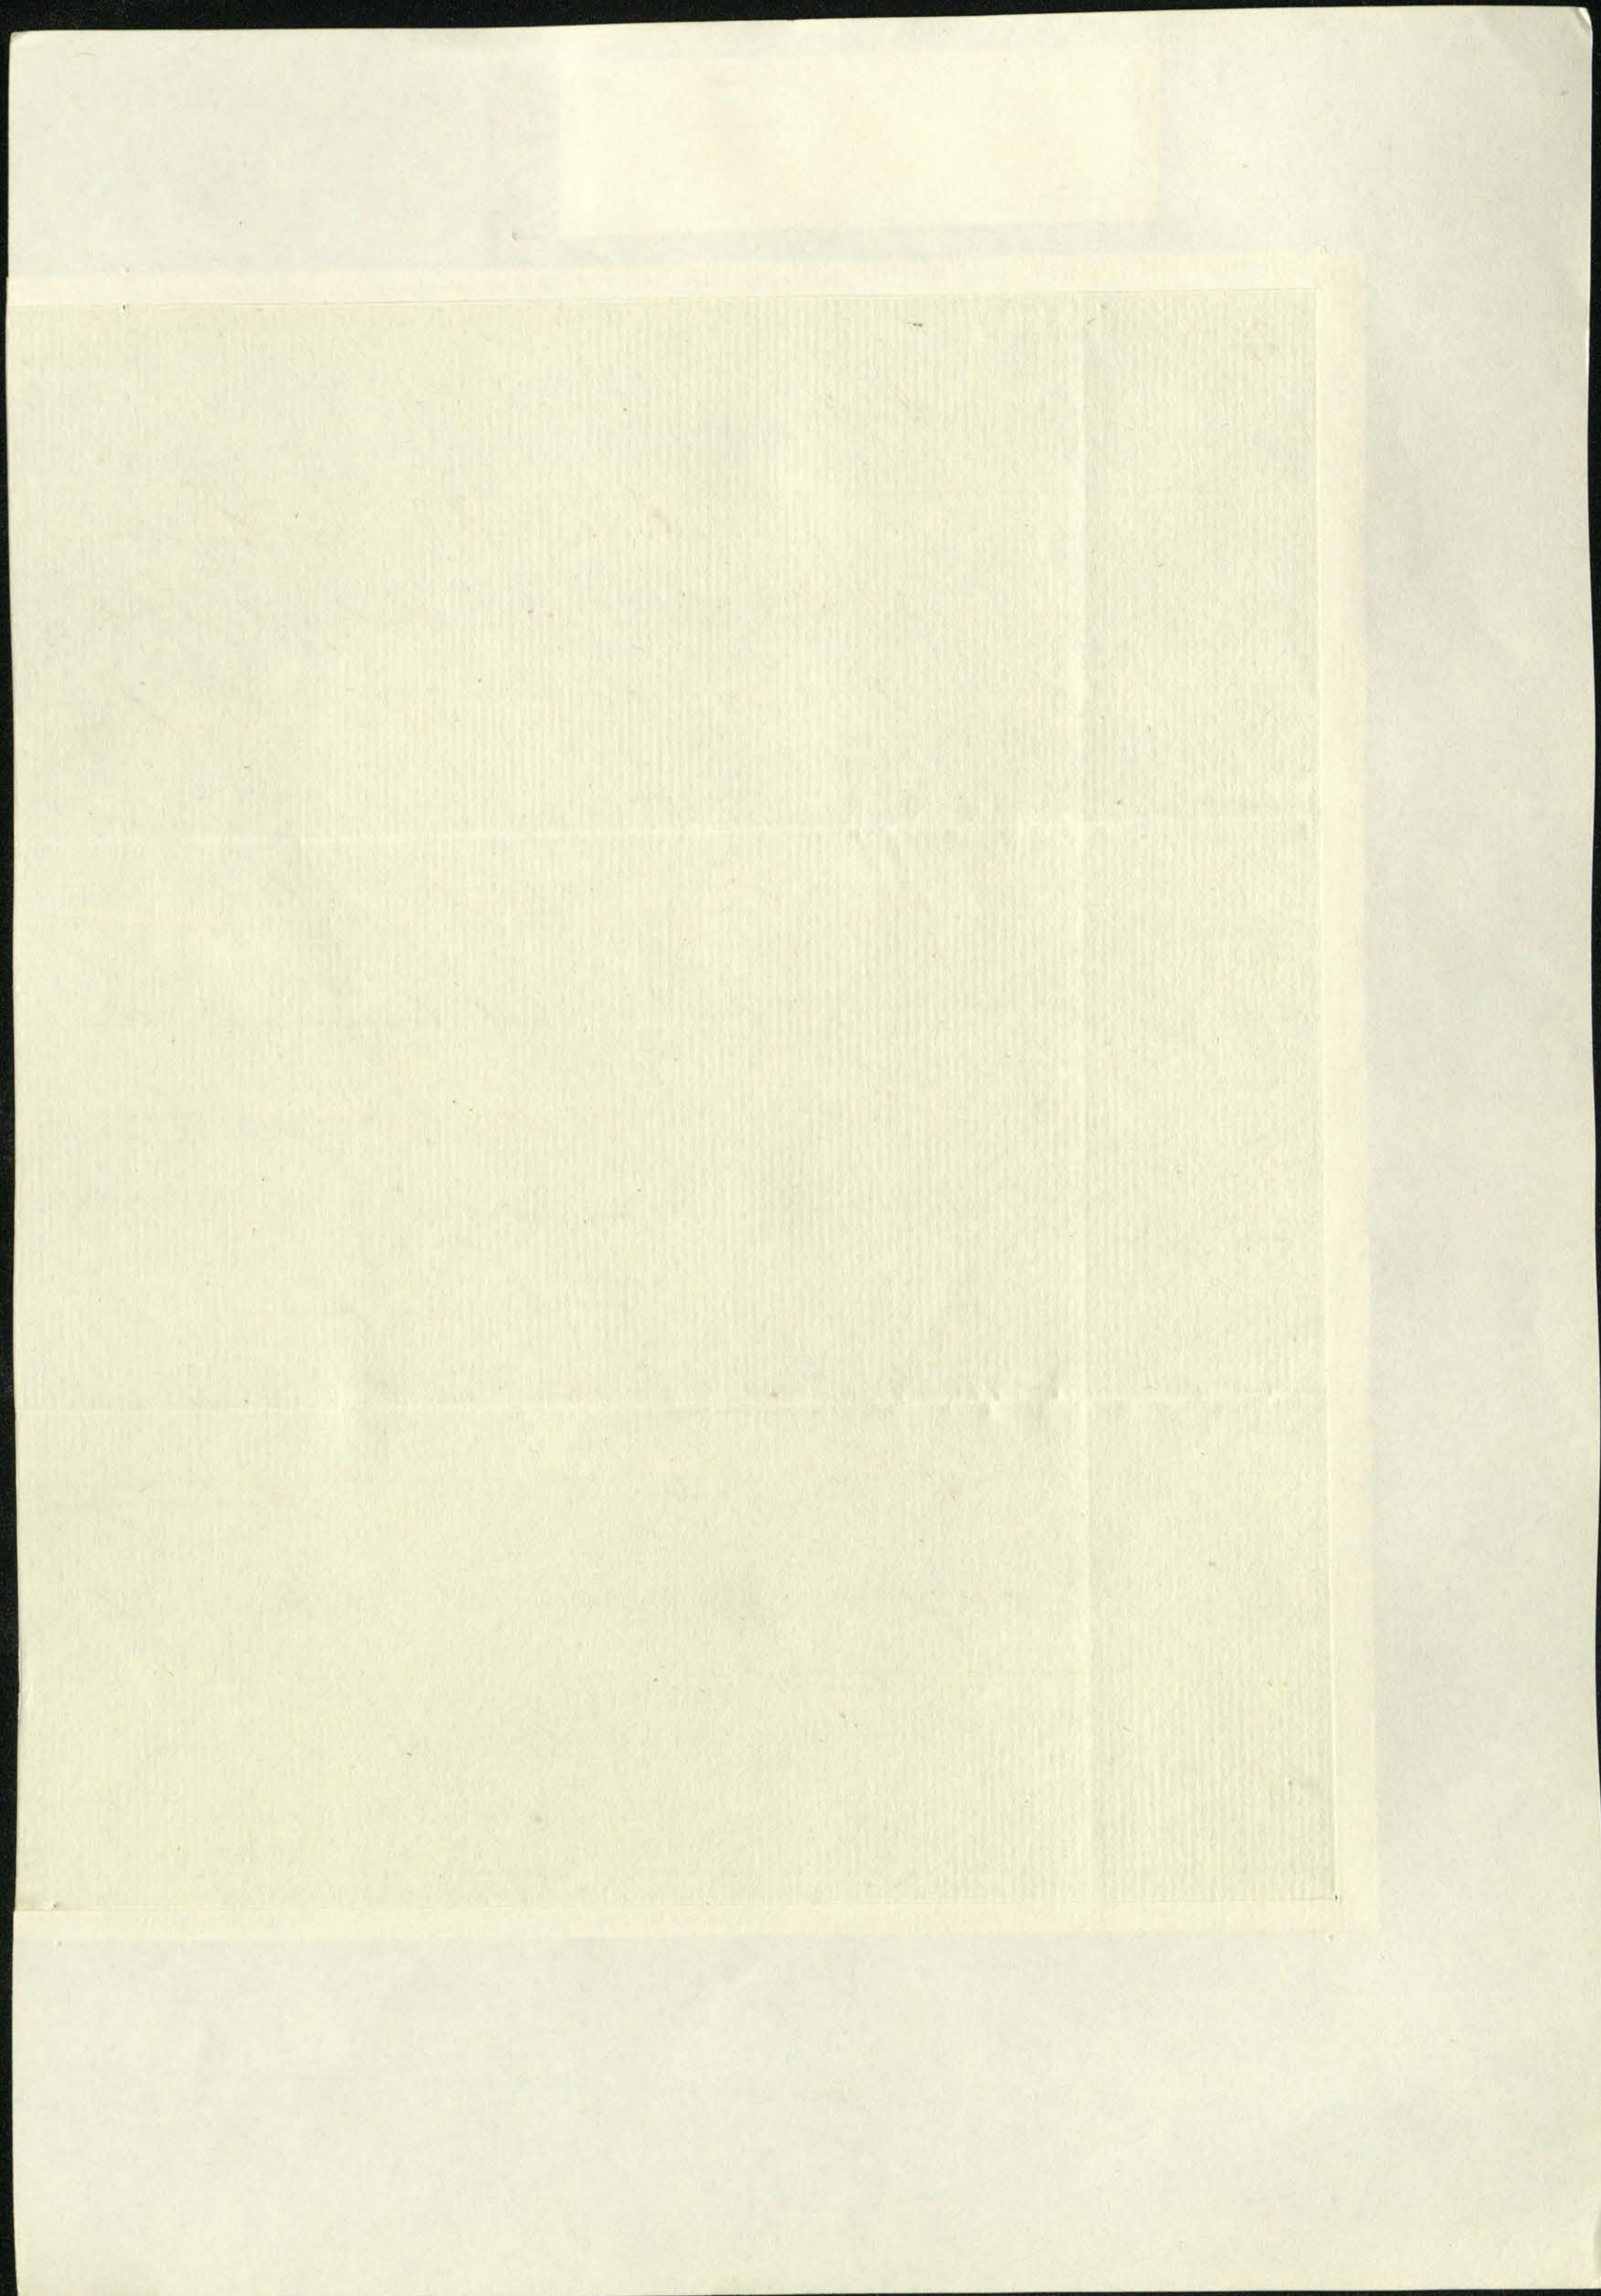

Dear Brother,

As it will be necessary to augment the Cavalry in Portugal, I take the earliest Opportunity before I make any Arrangement to enquire of you, if you have any Objection to the 10th Light Dragoon composing a part of that force, as the Reg^t was last Year ordered for Foreign Service but prevented from going.

(Do be the favour to give me an Answer in the course of the day, as I must write to His Majesty Tomorrow & prepare the different Corps to be employed.

Believe me to be signed Frederick

A.A. H.
The Prince of Wales

44160-1

My dear Brother,

I am most extremely oblig'd to you for your kind letter which I receiv'd this morning, & in answer to it, I can only say that I should be most extremely sorry that my Regiment was not as ready & as desirous as any other to go upon service when call'd upon; at the same time I can not but fairly confess to you as you have put the question to me, that I should feel much more happy & pleas'd that any service the Regiment was call'd upon, was in a part of the Continent where they might have a wider field & a greater scope for doing themselves credit, & distinguishing themselves than I see any probability of Portugal offering them; & should there be in the coming Year ~~an~~ opening for Troops being employ'd on that part of the Continent nearer to us, it would give me great pain that situated as my Regiment would be in Portugal, it in all probability would be excluded from composing a part of that Corps of Troops which would be there employed. I have likewise to observe that we have such an amazing number of young Officers that it would be absolute distinction to them. However after having made these observations, if it would be attended with any injury to any other Regiment, or that it would retard the Service; or be attended with inconvenience to you, I can not possibly create any further objection; but I will entreat of you to acquaint me with your determination

AA

44161 as soon as you shall have made up your mind to the absolute necessity of my Regiment being sent upon this mission out of the Country.

I beg my kindest remembrance to the Duke & am my dear Brother,

Ever your most affectionate

Carlton House,
Sept. 26th.
1707.

Brother,

George B.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Collection Room: Volume 272 1880
Room No 8 Prince of Wales

AA

Batlands September 27
1800

H.R. H. to the Breve of War

Copy

44162

Batlands Sept 27 1800

Dear Brother,

I have no time in acknowledging the Receipt of your letter, and in assuring you that there cannot be the least Difficulty in sending another Regiment of Light Dragoons to Portugal in the Place of the 10th. My only Wish was that you should be acquainted as early as possible with the Intention of sending a Reinforcement of Cavalry upon that Service, in case you had wish'd your Regiment to be employ'd upon it.

Believe me ever &c

Signed
Frederick

H.R. H.

The Breve of War

The Prince of Wales

no date

[c.16. March 1807]

44163

Jan 1807

Dear Brother,

I have paid you off with Mr Talbot,

I am dear Frederick

Carton House
Liz of Cork

Most sincerely Yrs

J.P.

your haste.

William in this instant come in, the more is up Mr. Spensville having given up the Bill wh. means much speculation, as they suppose it a proper business pending what he has already given to the King's disapprobation, & pretty clearly testifies the weakness of the Cabinet.

