My dear Whitehead,

Last Saturday afternoon a pleasant journey I arrived here ushered in by several hundred militia
- the I most likely shall remain till Friday next; better
- to I am much pleased; every thing goes on I. I am well
- a board; the youngsters are quiet and play no tricks in the cabin; I mean to return as soon as possible,

Believe me

Yours sincerely
J. G. Whitehead
