Dear Whitthead,

I am truly sorry to inform you that in both applications I have met with a flat refusal from

Lord Chatham which I must confess I think very disagreeable but do not my good friend despair: the time must and shall come when it will be in my power to serve you and yours: I never will cease applying with every hearty wish for your health and well fare ever believe me,

Dear Whithead,

Yours sincerely

J. J. Whithead
