London

Bushy Park.
 Thursday night.

My Dear Lord,

I have not been able to acknowledge your Lordship's letter of the instant and will certainly do all in my power relative to Captain Osborne: but should think Lord Pellicci might be of the greatest use as he has all the appointments relative to Scotland not entirely with Lord Pellicci and your Lordship's Curia is understood very intimate with the Present at the head of the Admiralty?

Perhaps a hint to Lord Pellic that Cap-tain Cook in the event of succeeding and give up his appointment at the Military College might be useful. I have known our believe me,

Yr. Servant,
J. J. J. J.
