

The King calls the Attention of Lord Will to the peculiar situation of the three Regiments composing the Household Brigade relative to their Dicking Masters, and trusts that the Vacancies in the second Regiment of Life Guards may be so arranged that the Dicking Masters may have the Rank of a King's Officer.

It is also adverted to the too frequent Practice of Officers in the Army not appearing at Courts Martial in their Uniforms and therefore desires that no Officer shall appear in picture at any Count,

- I shall submit his uniform.

Windsor

Castle.

June 11th
1834.

The King

10 June 1734

Riding Masters of the Household Brigades

of Officers not appearing in uniform at Courts Martial.

✓