

Ld. North

March 4th 1752 ^m 46. p. 8 P.M.

4484

Lord North has the honour of informing his Majesty, That Mr Conway made two motions today in the House of Commons; one to return thanks to his Majesty for his answer, & the other declaring all those enemies to their country who should advise, or in any way, attempt to prosecute an offensive war in America for the purpose of reducing the Colonies to obedience by force. The first Motion passed Nimine Contradicente, The second, without a division.
