

Ld. North
March 5th 1782. Even.

4486

Ld North has the honour of informing his Majesty that The House has given leave to him in the attorney general's Bill for enabling his Majesty to conclude a truce or peace with the revolted colonies in America. There was a good deal of debate or rather altercation, but it did not relate to the Bill, which was not opposed.

Sunday Evening.
