I have heard nothing in the course of Today worthy of the Information of your Majesty but that Mr Highby in consequence of the Authority given them by Lord North has seen Lord Weymouth & Lord Gower. The first was not disposed to do any thing, saying he had not of late had much conversation with the Duke of Grafton; but Lord Gower readily undertook the Commission & was to see the Duke this Night; but I am uninform'd of what has pass'd between them.
