

Chas. Tentlerow

Mar. 16 1782

4507

I trouble your Majesty with a Letter of Paper which I have just received from Mr Robinson, containing his Observations on the State of the Members in the House of Commons. I wish it afforded a more favourable prospect of the Dispositions of the Members of it. I shall continue in Town that I may have an opportunity of observing all that paper, & be able to render every service in my power.

From

Paul White
March 16th 1782 $\frac{1}{2}$ past 3.

Your Majesty's
Dutiful Subject
C. Robinson

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]