

Post 45212
Secret and Confidential.

Bishop House.
April 27: 1870.
J. P. M.

Dear Sir,
" Yours Wm. Westcott and J. P. M.
" Confidential" I am on my return from my ride and indeed it gives me the sincerest pain that the King has had to be a night. I am to Mr. P. M.
- just as asleep and I trust will be as just as his making. However your fear alarm, we most sincerely by and God grant your affectionate wife
- her own makes you all things more than they may have. I shall be most anxious to hear from
- none from Mr. Henry Alfred and our remain,
Dear Sir,
Yours truly
Wm. Westcott

