Dear Sir,

Your of this day has reached me and on I can find your expressions of yesterday. With all the bills of Miss Thajis-tja students together with their affectionate
-te care of their beloved monarch themselves,
-rings and illness increase of the King and I am lamentably afraid the dawn of the best of men and Princess is near. God's will be done and -ness must we limit. However I may be per-mitted to deplore the state of things, and still to me fear one bit of there is life there is get hope.

Free I have not wanted to write and till I do My heart is full and I cannot forget the long and constant & true friendship between the King and myself for so many years. I have shared prosperity and adversity with His Majesty and trace back the various acts of kindness and affection I have ever enjoyed from my suffering and excellent Master.

God bless you and ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly

W. Marshall
