

Post Office and Confidential.

45223

Beesly House.
May 19: 1830.
2 P. M.

Dear Sir,

I have this instant received yours "Post Office" Confidential and thank God is more favorable than I ever expected. It is gratifying to learn the punctures have produced a most successful discharge and that the King is relieved for the present. I am confident you will not have believed them over with affection and a fidelity and God grant you may be enabled to send tomorrow an encouraging report.

Your believe one,

Dear Sir,

Yours truly

W. Marsh

