

Ld. Amherst

Mar. 27 1782

4554

Sir

I am very unable to express the sense I have of your Majesty's great goodness to me, by Your Majesty's most gracious Letter, and I beg, with my most humble and devoted Duty to assure Your

Ld. Amherst

Mar. 27 1782

4554(2)

Your Majesty, that since I have had the honour of commanding Your Majesty's Army here, I have had no other end in view, than to serve Your Majesty faithfully, to the honour of your Majesty's Arms, and the good of this Country. I shall pursue the same, as long as I live, in whatever station I may be in, satisfied and convinced as I am by your Majesty's most gracious Letter, that [as far as regards myself] I have more reason to

Near Whitehall 27 March 1782.

rejoice than I can my present Situation, though deprived of the honor of the Command of Your Majesty's Troops here, and being Lieutenant General of the Ordnance.

I have the honour to be with the most devoted duty, Sir, Your Majesty's,

most dutifull
most Humble and most Obedient Subject and Servant

Amherst.

