Undoubtedly Mr. Harris not having any hint of the contents of the Dispatches brought by the Russian Courier to Mon. Simolin, it is impossible to guess what they contain, but it may not be ~~leaning~~ leaning too much to the side of suspicion to imagine, that he would not have found the Secreto impenetrable, had their matter been agreeable. The sending a Messenger on Tuesday to Sir James Harris with the notice of the Message delivered this day to the Russian Minister will be very proper

Queen Anne's handwriting
The handwriting is in a cursive script, likely from the 17th or 18th century. The text is written on a piece of paper that has been pasted onto a larger sheet. The ink is dark and the script is fluid and connected. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be in a different script or language, possibly Latin or French, interspersed with English words. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a letter.
