

Mr. Fox

Grafton Street April 15. 1782
10 o'clock A.M.

4630

Upon further enquiry Mr. Fox begs leave to inform your Majesty that it appears that a message was sent from your Majesty to the House of Lords upon the business of the civil list debts, and therefore Mr. Fox humbly submits to your Majesty that the same course should be pursued upon the present occasion.

Grafton Street

10 o'clock A.M. April 15. 1782.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]