

C. J. P.
For H.

46

M.
A.
M.

move on Monday next. Mr Fox has the honour of sending your Majesty copies of these intended Resolutions. As there is no
Treasurer, Comptroller, or Vice Chamberlain now in the House of Commons it will be Mr Fox's Duty to acquaint the House tomorrow that he has presented to your Majesty their Address and to report to them upon it. —

St James's, 10 o'clock P.M.

April 15. 1702

C. J. Fox.

For A. H. S. Secretary

Apr. 15 1782

4632 (2)

Mr. Fox will give the usual answer on being delivered the Address of the House of Commons to Mr.

Windsor April 16th 1782.
^{5m}
56 p. 6. A. M.

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

Mr Fox
St James's April 15. 1782
10. o'clock P.M.
with my brother
Miss Fox Apr. 16. 1782. 5 p.m. 1.0