making some progress.

Admiral Keppel has the honour to transmit to your Majesty two dispatches by Express from Plymouth, the one brought to Coward bay by the Spanish Frigate Captain Birch, the other from Captain Ingham of the Alarm, a more descriptive & satisfactory Account, but yet leaves the matter of hope of Vice Admiral Boscawen

The Account of the pursuit of the French Convoy intended for the East Indies and the taking of four of the Transports does Cap. Maubise great credit; but his activity has been so thoroughly tried this War that if it was expected he will deserve approbation whenever the opportunity offers, I trust we shall have further good Accounts from Vice Adm. Barrington
