Sir Grey Cooper having finished the book of his Majesty's accounts, Ld North has carefully revised it, but thinks that possibly Sir Grey may have made an error in transcribing the accounts of the Quarter ending Oct: 10. 1779. Ld North, therefore, begs the permission of troubling his Majesty to return him for a moment the accounts of the two quarters ending June 5 & Oct: 10. 1779.
He will not fail to send them back to his Majesty with the final account in the course of tomorrow.

Thursday April 25. 1782.
