

Ld. Keppel
Adm. Office April 26. 1782.
35. p. 5. P.M.

+ 4683

Admiral Keppel has the honour to transmit to your Majesty, a letter this moment received from Admiral Sir Thomas Pope, and Admiral Keppel has also the honour to acquaint your Majesty that he has examined the Master of the Hawk Cutler, who gives reason to hope the Quers may bring the French Ship mentioned to Action, he last sight of them at about Eleven o'clock on Monday last, the Quers bearing North about fifteen Leagues, the wind at West in the morning, but when he left the Quers in chase the wind was South, the two Ships standing to

to the westward. with a fresh of wind

Admiralty Office April 26th 1792

30 minutes past five o'clock