

Draft to E. of Shelburne
Lucas House April 27th 1782.
^m
48. p. 7. A. M.

4684

I now send again the Papers on the reformation to be made in the Civil List for Ed. Shelburne's Inspection and for any remarks he has to make on them; I desire they may be returned in the course of the day, that Ed. Buckingham may at latest have them tomorrow morning; the only thing that seems to occur is that they should be accompanied with a letter stating that the Message had been altered to render it conformable to the one already sent, for that I did not think myself bound to make any additional propositions.

There is a Copy of the Message on Quarto Paper with Mr. Shelburne's

Yours
Lucas House
April 27th 1782
^m
48. p. 7. A. M.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]