Curlington Street April 28th 1782

Sir.

Your Majesty's most gracious letter has quite confounded me; I believe the most respectful return that I can make is, to give your Majesty no farther trouble than to say that I shall obey your Majesty's commands on Wednesday next.

I am Sir
your Majesty's most loyal & dutiful Subject.
