Draft to E. of Shelburno Lucins House Afril 29. 1752. a.m.

Lucini House April 29. 1782. It is impossible to be more pleased than I am with the confidence ad I helburne reposes in one by the very open letter it has wrote to the the conduct the has held towards the D. of Marthorough and Id law hich as to the Heward's faff does it in honour Jam not Jusprised at the ill humour it met us the knowing the disposition to has to deal with Id. How the never presumed to meddle in the appointment of the Lands of respion but was indulated as to the Barris of the Each your their jains diction him in thereaux lours, and fear thise recommending our not always in the Dof Marthorough is highly proper and proposed language to the Dof Marthorough is highly proper and with at last key this right. The conduct towards Pathiser is certainly mean and considering the good fortune that has attended suppel with if it is legal som thought veirere; but other daying that I do not mean to break With the Chalana for Juch a business. Certainly this quito new for business to be laid before the abinet and consequents Advice of the Ainesters the Frown unasked, the Ministers have thought night & make for Ad. Roth and In Thohinson; but I have every et tor good an opinion of the justice of the House of Commons to Jappase they colle would be justice from Paris may feel recognized improper a whotien. Thoughours from Paris may feel quit at facts of home on a more creditable from.
