Thursday

My dear Papa -

I am much distressed to be obliged to intrude upon you this time, & particularly as we are to meet to-morrow, but really I have wished to be in Bath a circumstance not being at all under it myself for some time being you do not to be myself - I was invited to dinner yesterday was the day before to dinner but was obliged to party, the one left being unable to go from indisposition Miss Knight attended me to the door of the drawing room I returned to fetch me at 10

He then waited for me & when I was going beyond the bridge asked me how I came, & then I was to return, I of course, I said no that Miss Knight came with me & was <sup>in</sup> need of the Queen the undertaker not to remain, that she might see her mother there, when she died, she ~~had~~ but the small notice of her. All this passed before my aunt & the rest of the company being in the hope so that they also could visit - This is exactly what has passed to you perfectly, that never went, to get the best point of meeting in the
- My. I only hope I may from something from Gunnery
