Wednesday night

My dear Mother -

... that it is late, but I cannot but send you a line to say how sorry I am to find the mistake that has arisen relative to my being with you to night. I am sure you will believe that nothing in the world should have brought me had I been told it, but the fact was, so many water made me conceive it was possible I might be sent for, and with a confidence, for when I remained a day in expectation of further business. I should feel too unwell if I thought I could and I am sure that to long my friend in my heart is ever displease to have been

Dear Mr. [Name]

Very truly yours
